VICTORIA TIMES, FRIDAY, JANUARY 23, 1903.

BY SILAS K. HOCKING.

hor of "God's Outcast," "In Price," "For Such is Life" "The Heart of Man," "For low. He called again louder than be-Life and Liberty," "A Son fore: "Dorothy!" of Reuben," etc.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

Their Hearts' Desire.

tried to persuade himself that the a orier interview? She bowed her head in token of assent, stead of going to Andermatt, pitched their tent at St. Moritz Bad.

hand and censed to love Dorothy, but he knew pow that he had not. He had hand densed her to day as purely and passion-the felt humble enough now. Had he sign of emotion. He felt humble enough now. Had he isgn of emotion. He felt humble enough now. Had he here to day as purely and passion-ther across the park at Sandhurst. Should he go and confess his love erain and ask her to withdraw her had been removed. She was free tomate of your provided that the time one, "he said, slowy, "and I wish to an imperative duty. He had a right of an imperative duty. He had a right formise. Moreover, he knew it was no mere Moreover, he

three other girls to

ental Fence

lly sui able for fro urds, etc. Retail

FOOT. Just abo full particulars

Walkerville, Ontario.

and Vancouver

00000000000

0000000000

lice

PIAL

on by a

e

serial, "The

ede to a geneven greater inged for the

Boothby

"Pharos, the

s 'the author rd and thrillince written

sensational

his pen will,

Feek Times.

n the latter

ICE.

00000000

00000000000000000

ME COURT OF COLUMBIA.

ne Title of Victoria.

of Lots 405 and 406, Official Map of the British Columbia, And the "Quieting Titles en that any person or rse claim or claims petition herein of

0. 0. F., to those lots, numbers 405 ularly described as at a point on the street, in the said

e running in a south-e said east side line

e said east side line e intersection with the of fifty-one feet easterly along the Fort street a dis-et five inches more i angles in a north-ce of fifty-two feet a straight line in the place of com-ow cause why a De-did not issue to the the "Quieting Titles-tired to file a state-aim, verified by affi-ewith on or before-day of February in the forenoon, at Declaration will be e Justices of the sisued to the said I, O, O, F.

affidavits of verifica-the Registry of the oria, British Colum-ing the same and affi-must be served upor onally or upon the Fell & Gregory, etitloners, Board of on Square, Victoria, L & GREGORY, for the Petitioners.

dent Order of Odd

hn, N.B.

r face was the index of a put and ble soul. Her action was doubtless isotic, her sense of duty a wholly staken one; but it was the greatness her nature not the littleness, that was the greatness and her nature not the littleness that was the greatness and her desire.

dying affection. Never had her loss seemed so great, her punishment so hard to bear; for in her heart there had been a secret hope i is true, yet nevertheless a hope, that if they ever did meet again their meet-ing would be at least friendly and per-after dawn he got up and dressed . Early as it was he found Mrs. h busy scouring the door handle. Mr. Duncan that I shall not be ill lunch at the earliest," he said getting a chunk of bread and from the sidehoard he started out walk. the lake, and getting beyond it he his face towards Pontresina. He o clear idea in his mind what he the pine needles in dreamy monotone ten thousand." She did not look back, and he fol- the best after all." lowed at a safe distance. The last house her pace quickened; she was evidently cut for a long walk. There was nobody near; the road was quite deserted. His heart was beating at an uncomfortable rate, and all his nerves were thrilling. minutes, and they soon ran into hours. Suddenly he put his hand to the side of Spite of Fate," "To Pay the his mouth and called: "Dorothy!" She evidently did not hear. The river several days Basil remained at For a moment she seemed to hesitate. "Why, Dodo, where have you been?" and worked diligently at his Then she moved to the side of the road he said. s, or if he failed in diligence it and waited. He pulled off his hat and "I have been for a walk with Basil,"

> Instantly she stopped, turned quickly be two years since we parted." round, and looked back.

They had met and patred, and there had been no smile upon his lips, no gleam of pleasure in his eyes. One evening as Phil and Basil sat on the balcony smoking, Phil said in a casual way: "You will soon be able to take your "Are you in a hurry to return?" "Indeed!" was the laconic reply, and im a hurry to return?" "Indeed!" was the laconic reply, and im a hurry to return?" They hade on again in silence:

they smoked on again in silence. That night Basil scarcely slept at all. The sun was high in the heavens by this time, and the shadow of the pines the shadow of the pines The sun was high in the heavens by this time, and the shadow of the pines The sun was high in the heavens by this time, and the shadow of the pines The sun was high in the heavens by this time, and the shadow of the pines The sun was high in the heavens by this time, and the shadow of the pines The sun was high in the heavens by this time, and the shadow of the pines There was no necessity for speech. Heart spoke to heart, and each under a glorious morning, fresh and of a tall pine, for the Swiss authorities The sun was just kissing the an peaks as he skirted the lower the lake, and getting beyond it he wooded path.

to do. He only felt that he that mingled with the gurgle of the riv-o something, that, if possible, he er below them. Dorothy was the first to speak.

it's Derothy. I should know her among be separated from you that I might find God. So, my darling, it may be all for She looked at his with loving, yet inin the village was passed at length, and her pace quickened; she was evidently "Some time, darling, I will tell you

> There was no one to keep count of the "This is better than the embankment gardens, Dodo?" he questioned.

"For such hungry lovers as you," she "Can you wonder that I am hungry. darling?" he questioned; "it will soon ound, and looked back. Did she recognize him? he wondered. "No, Basil, I do not wonder," and she raised her sweet lips to his again. He wore a wide-brimmed Panama hat pulled low over his eyes. His face was all in shadow. in search of him. "Why, Dodo, where have you been?"

s, or if he failed in diligence it watted. He pulled of his hat and to for want of will. It was not advanced rapidly towards her. however, to concentrate his davanced rapidly towards her. however, to concentrate his Her face was very pale and grave. We walking in the meadow; or in "I berg your pardon for this intrusion," woods just at the other side his high pulled of his hat and advanced rapidly towards her. We walking in the meadow; or in "I berg your pardon for this intrusion," he said, hnskily, pausing a few feet away from her. "I saw you leave your hotel and followed. Would you grant tried to persuade himself that t at his work; to watch the growth of his is finished with knots of velvet and crocheted buttons.

the happiest man on airth, an' I don't (The End.).

way.

something would happen." Manufacturers Association, W. P. "And what now, darling?" he queshow to behave himself. The least tid do now was to ask her pardon way he had treated her. Village was scarcely astir when ered the long and starcely astir when "My darling," he whispered, tenderly, d to idea where the Clevelands and bent over and kissed her. and he idea where the Clevelands staring. He trusted entirely to the fer of accidents. Mad after all these weary months of suffering," she said, with a little sigh, "it seems too good to be true." "Perhaps we needed the suffering, sweetheart," he answered, reverently. "God only knows. Perhaps It was necessary that I should s out for her mofiling walk. Yes,

TIME: FASHION HINTS.

of the "tulip" variety, and is made of velvet combined with white taffeta,

A BIG PROJECT. Overhead the wind hummed among The Australian Government Propose to Build a Transcontinental Rail-behaved like a clown, and she sweetest and noblest woman on the must not go away from Pont. Dorothy was the first to speak. "Basil," she said, "in those early days I was always haunted by a fear that, She must not go away from Pont. "And what may dealine"," he must not go away from Pont.

the happiest man on airth, work work work the started out the

STRUCK DOWN.

Slain in the Hour of Success.

The Indian who trailed the hunter silently and secretly through the woods, often played with his victim as a cat Thus as starvation causes weakness, plays with a mouse. Just in the moment when the nutrition falls short of of the hunter's success, the blow fell; needs of the body we may look for the silent, sudden, swift.

which seem inhumanly malevolent. the diseased stomach is cured by Dr. Like the Indian they seem to play with the victim, until some day when he has reached the height of success and is thinking to "take life easy," disease strikes him down, perhaps never to rise What People Say. strikes him down, perhaps never to rise again, or mayhap to drag out the re- "Your 'Golden Medical Discovery" nainder of existence in physical pain | and Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy have and privation.

Man A

from food, the blood becomes poor, the body lacks adequate nourishment and the flesh "falls away." The weakness consequent on this loss of nutrition will generally find its expression in some one silent, sudden, swift. There are certain forms of disease bich seem inhumanly melerolent newed day by day, and meal by meal.

But when the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition are diseased

P. Wall

12,09

The best example of such a malevolent (Prof.) Pleasant A. Oliver, of Viola, Fuldisease is found in dyspepsia and allied | ton Co., Ark. "Before I used the above mentioned remedies my sleep was not sound; di-gestion bad; a continual feeling of misery. I now feel like a new man." "I have been taking your medicines," writes Mrs. W. M. Bowers, of Lynch, Boyd Co., Neb., "and I can't say enough in their praise. They have helped me more than all our doctors have helped me in two years' doctoring. I spent dollars upon dollars for my lungs and received no benefit from the medicine I took, until a lady friend advised me to write to Dr. Pierce. I did so, took his kind advice, and am now so well as to be able to do my own work. I also took the Golden Medical Discovery' and the "Pellets' six months for liver disease and indigestion, as the kind doctor advised. I know that they reached the case, as they have helped me so." "I have taken your medicine with the greatest satisfaction,", writes Mrs. Geo. Riehl, of Lockport Station, Westmore-land Co., Pa., "and can forms of "stomach trouble." Not long ago the newspapers were calling attention to one of the richest men of the age, Golden Medical Discovery has cured me working in his garden like a common laborer for his health's sake and for the doctors could not help. My appetite doctors could not help. My appetite laborer for his health's sake and for the same cause living abstemionsly on a diet which a laborer would despise. There's a conspicuous example of the class of people whose success seems almost fail-ure. But how many people are struck down fatally in the hours of success, no man can absolutely say. Stomach "failure" means heart failure, the failure of kidneys, liver, lungs and any other organ, inasmuch as each and every organ ease of any other organ? You will find dertake the duties attending public that in general, if you trace the disease school life, and contracted to so." back it originates in a diseased condition A Valuable Medical Work, Containing of the stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition. The best proof digestion and nutrition. The best proof of this is that diseases of heart, liver, lungs, kidneys, etc., are constantly being cured by Dr. Price's Golden Medical Discovery which is primarily and chiefly converted into blood forms the in paper covers. nutrition by which physical life is re- Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE MANITOBA MYSTERY.

of Girl Indicate Accident.

Acting under instructions from the attorney-general of Manitoba, Dr. M2-Leod, the coroner, at Stonewall, left for Galacia, about twenty-five miles north of Teulon, to hold a post mortem on the body of a reported murdered girl. A jury was summoned and the postmor-tem held. The jury returned a verdict that the girl came to her death from a that the girl came to her death from a steamer Newport from Panama to San gun shot, the gun being in the hands of Francisco. Wasil Homeny.

Wasil Homeny. Homeny had already been arrested by Excitement in the southern waters durdict had been given was arranged de fore Justice of the Peace Chatfield and mitted but the testimony of nearly all the wintesses would indicate accident, the purport of it being that Homeny and a cousin were visiting Christmas morn-ing at the home of the girl and the cousin had a gun with only one cart-ridge in it. Homeny wanted to shoot the gun off. He had never before handl-ed or shot a gun off. He went outside to shoot at a mark and going to the window called to the girl that he would shoot at the grindstone. She went up to the window and told him not to shoot at the grindstone as he might break it, but to shoot at a tree, and in turning to do so the gun was discharged, the do so the gun was discharged, the centre and causing instant death.

LOADING FOR PHILIPPINES.

other feed products.

began a voyage involving many thous-and miles of sea travel. Having been engaged formerly transporting mules for of the Bogota and the men of the rebels' the use of the British forces in the Boer war, from New Orleans to Capetown, the revolution had ended. she sailed from the latter port in ballast for New York. In the metropolis she took 190,000 cases of oil for Adelaide and Melbourne, Australia. Thence pro-honestly say Dr. Pierce's of a pain in my right lung that the best Texas. "I was troubled with very fre-quent headaches, often accompanied by severe voniting; bowels were irregular and my stomach and liver seemed con-tinually out of order. Often I could eat almost nothing, and sometimes abso-tinually out of order. Often I could eat almost nothing, for twenty-four hours at a time. I was entirely unfit for work, and my whole system seemed so run-down that I feared a severe sick spell and was very much discouraged. I was advised to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medi-cal Discovery and did so with such sat-isfactory results that before finishing the Is it "weak" lungs, "weak" heart, isfactory results that before finishing the third bottle I felt perfectly able to un-More Than One Thousand Pages Free.

medicine for the cure of diseases of the colors, is sent free on receipt of stamps tomach and of the blood. The body to pay expense of mailing only. Send and all its organs are sustained by food. 31 one cent stamps for the cloth-bound properly digested and assimilated, which volume, or only 21 stamps for the book Address Dr. R. V.

ceeding to N wcastle, she took a cargo of coal for Valparaiso, South America. Evidence of Witnesses Regarding Death From the latter city she sailed in ballast for Victoria, arriving in Royal Roads in December. While in the Roads she secured a charter from the United States

THE BOGOTA'S EXPERIENCES.

Six of the crew of the Colombian war vessel Bogota, which sailed about four months ago to fight the rebels of the southern republic, have returned on the Detective McKenzie, and after the ver-dict had been given was arraigned be-fore Justice of the Peace Chatfield and in progress. She captured several of but to shoot at a tree, and in curves, the days hidden in a small slougn not far from the Costa Rican line. For five days the Bogota lay off the entrance of the slough with the fleet bottled up in the narrow chaunel. Visions of prize money floated before the crew of the government boat and they were preparing a Steamer Yeddo, which recently ar- plan to capture all of the vessels of the rived here from Valparaiso, has com-nenced loading a cargo of lumber and the horizon approaching from the sea. forage for the American military forces forage for the American military forces operating in the Philippines. All told the Yeddo wil: carry 2,000,000 feet of mber and 4,700 tons of hay, oats and action. When the approaching vessel came nearer she was made out to be a The Seattle Post-Intelligencer says: "It was in May, 1902, that the Yeddo

A rumor published in Paris that the

