In bringing a patient to the Hospital, use force if necessary, but never deception, as it lessens the chances of cure by making him look upon the institution with dislike, and those in charge of it as alone responsible for his being kept there. Tell the patient frankly that physician and friends alike consider him sick, and that it is proposed to take him to a hospital where his chances of being cured will be of the best, and whence he will be taken out again as soon as well.

Packages for patients, sent by express, must be prepaid and addressed to them, care of the Hospital.
