And there was a romantic story about her going the rounds. It was said that no less a personage than Prince Eric, the son of the great and good Gustavus. had been standing one morning by one of the palace windows to witness a rustic procession which had been gotten up in honor of some important victory recently won by his famous father. As he stood gazing listlessly out, his eyes brightened suddenly, and he turned to an attendant and whispered a few words which caused him to hasten away.-When he returned he was not alone-Rika was with him.

Prince Eric's beauty-loving eyes had been attracted by her as she had stood which he gave to her saying : amid a group of other maidens, looking at the gayly-dressed columns of her countrymen filing by. She, too, was in holiday attire, and the black velvet jacket, fitting closely to her slender figure, and adorned with silver-gilt buttons, brought out so vividly the exquisite fairness of her skin, with its he had gone.
