

INTERNATIONAL S. S. COY
Three Trips a Week
TO BOSTON.

COMMENCING Oct. 24, the steamer of this company will leave St. John, N. B., MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY, mornings, at 7:00 o'clock standard, for Boston, Portland, New York, Philadelphia, Baltimore, Washington, New Orleans, and other ports. Freight received daily up to 5 p. m.

Star Line S. S. Co.
(Eastern Standard Time)
One of the Mail Steamers, VICTORIA, under the command of Captain W. J. Weston, will leave St. John, N. B., for Fredericton and intermediate ports every morning (Sunday excepted) at 8 o'clock, and will leave Fredericton every morning (Sunday excepted) at 7:30 o'clock. Freight received daily up to 5 p. m.

FOR Washademoak Lake. THE MODERN EDEN.
Unsurpassed on Earth for Beauty and Climate, the People's Paradise.
STEAMER STAR
Has been rebuilt under the supervision of the most practical government inspectors, and until further notice will leave for Washademoak Lake every TUESDAY, THURSDAY and SATURDAY, on the after 8:30 a. m. for the above route, calling at all her landings on River and Lake, returning on alternate days at 3 p. m. Freight received up to 5 p. m. on the day of sailing. All tickets must be prepaid. J. E. PORTER, Manager.

Str. CLIFTON
STEAMER CLIFTON leaves for Hampton every MONDAY, WEDNESDAY and SATURDAY.
Leaves Hampton, 5:30 a. m.
Leaves St. John, 2 p. m.
CAPT. WHELAN, Steamship Clifton.

Millidgeville Ferry.
Steamer MAGGIE MILLER will leave Millidgeville daily, except Saturday and Sunday at 8 a. m., 4 and 6 p. m.
Returning from Baywater at 6:30 and 8:45 a. m., and 5:45 p. m.
Saturday leaves Millidgeville at 7 a. m., 2 and 5 p. m.
Returning at 9, 1:45, and 4:45 a. m., and 5:45 and 8:45 p. m.
JOHN McQUILL, Agent.
Telephone 228 A.

LIVERY STABLES.
I think I can give you Better Service
That you can get elsewhere. Large, warm box stalls, the best feed, get your horse for you any hour of the day or night. A visit to my barn will make you one of my customers.
J. E. MANN, 234 Union Street.
Telephone No. 71.

DAVID CONNELL,
BOARING, HACK AND LIVERY STABLES
48 and 47 Waterloo St., St. John, N. B.
Horses boarded on reasonable terms. Boxes and Carriages on Hire; Fine Fit-outs at short notice.
A large truck-bus wagon, seats fifteen to twenty people, to let, with or without horses.
Telephone 8.

DAVID WATSON,
BOARING, HACK AND LIVERY STABLES
Coaches in attendance at all boat and train.
Horses to hire at reasonable terms.
91 to 95 Duke Street. Tel. 78

HOTELS.
HOTEL DUFFERIN
E. LEROY WILLIS, St. John, N. B.
A. A. McCAFFREY, Manager.

PARK HOTEL
CHAS. DANFERY, Prop.
Centrally located, facing King Square.
ST. JOHN, N. B.

PHOTOS!
ETCHINGS!
ENGRAVINGS!
To beautify your rooms at small cost. Also Fancy Goods, Silverware and Stationery; Souvenir Postals, Cards and Views of St. John to send to friends.
A. E. CLARKE,
87 KING STREET. - St. John, N. B.

THE ST. JOHN STAR is published by THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY (INC.), 25 St. John, New Brunswick, every afternoon (except Sunday) at $2 a year.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 23, 1911.

DOMESTIC WORK AND OTHER WORK.

Numerous Canadian journals have reprinted and discussed a pair of "wanted" advertisements which appeared in the same column of a newspaper in Montreal. One offers $14 a month to "an honest Protestant school teacher with a 'first class elementary certificate.'" All the critics agree in denouncing the state of civilization in which this scale of pay is possible. They dwell upon the alleged fact that the servant's work is purely manual and deals with material things, while the work of the teacher is intellectual and has to do with the minds and souls of the coming generation. And they are all shocked that when allowance is made for board the servant gets the best pay.

But now let us look at the other side of the question. Is there any reason for surprise that a capable woman, able to do all the work about a house, should be paid more for ten or twelve hours work per day than a girl of sixteen or eighteen teaching an elementary school for the first time, and working say five hours per day? Which trade calls for the rarest qualifications? Which implies the longest training for real efficiency? For which class of occupations does the demand most exceed the supply? Which advertisement is likely to bring the larger number of applications? The fact is that a young girl with a common school education such as is open to the daughter of a laborer in the cities, or of the poorest farmer in the rural districts, can obtain a certificate as an elementary teacher with less study and instruction than would make her thoroughly competent in all kinds of domestic work. When she takes the school at $15 per month she is nothing more than an apprentice. The girl teacher takes the lower pay expecting that something better is in store, while her sister who goes out to service has little hope of promotion.

But if it be true that domestic service is much better rewarded than teaching or other work, why should the ill-paid classes complain? The kitchen is open to them if they are willing to do the work and take the pay. No doubt domestic service would be much more profitable than much of the work in factories and shops. It is also more healthy. Probably a good domestic worker can save more out of her pay than many saleswomen or typewriters, and even some teachers. How does it happen then that while the supply of help for the house is never in excess of the demand, the other avenues for women to make an honest living are more or less crowded? Domestic work cannot in itself be generally distasteful. It is the business to which a majority of women are brought up, and the one in which most of the married women in the civilized world are engaged. Most girls who earn their own living in other employments look forward to marriage, which will give them the care of a house, with the personal performance of the whole or a part of the domestic duties. The real objection to domestic service which makes young women prefer other activities is apparently the social objection. There is a false idea that a girl who takes pay for cooking meals and keeping a house in order is not so respectable as one who takes pay for other service not more useful, nor requiring higher mental or moral qualifications. It is not necessary here to speculate on the origin of this theory. But it has no sound or right basis. The man who pays a teacher $14 when he is willing to give $15 to the girl who takes care of his house, is the creature of circumstances. He has found that the girl who wants to teach would rather take the lower pay than do the work which commands the higher rate. And he has probably found that if he does not pay the higher sum he cannot get good domestic help in the city where he lives.

RESETTING SOUTH AFRICA.
The London Standard strongly advises the establishment of a Bureau of Information at Cape Town with a branch office in London, in order that the intending immigrants to South Africa may know something about their proposed new home before going to it and also learn what the prospects are in every class of business. At present there are in London a number of gentlemen who have been sent by the Cape government for the purpose of creating an interest in the new colonies and furnishing information to intending immigrants. These gentlemen have received numerous enquiries from practically every class in regard to the country, but as yet no definite steps have been taken to establish a permanent information bureau, and special instructions are to be issued. It is stated that there is the time for immigration. Hundreds of foreigners, probably more wide-awake than the average Britisher, seeing the splendid opportunities now open in Africa are pouring into the country, and if the British wait until the termination of the war, which may not come for a long time yet, they will probably find all the best lands taken and the best places filled.

LETTERS ON CANADIAN HISTORY.

A very large audience, entirely filling the school room of St. John's church, assembled to listen to the first lecture of Mr. Raymond's course upon the Early History of New Brunswick. The Rev. J. deSoyras presided, and introduced the lecturer of the evening with an explanation of the purpose of these educational lectures, already justified by evident success. It was clear that St. John's could provide her own instructors, although anxious to profit when it was possible by the professional instructions from the provincial capital. The Rev. W. O. Raymond was warmly applauded upon commencing his lecture. He spoke of his early interest in provincial history, and entered into a very interesting account of the first Indian inhabitants of New Brunswick, their habits, dwellings, weapons, and other usages. An account was also given of the first English explorers of New Brunswick and their adventures, sometimes of a tragical nature, with the Indians.

The next lecture of the course will be delivered on Tuesday evening next, Oct. 25.

Y. M. C. A. SOCIAL.

The evening social of the gymnastic classes of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening in the gymnasium. There was a fairly large attendance of young men. During the evening the following programme was carried out: Overture, orchestra; address, C. E. Macmillan; address, physical director, Robert Alken; club singing, A. H. Likely; song, S. McGowan; parallel bar work, Markham, Lewis, J. Malcolm and Alken; clarinet solo, Fred Jones; tumbling, Malcolm and Lewis; basket ball match, picked teams.

The Y. M. C. A. orchestra was in attendance and played a number of selections during the gymnastic programme. The work of the men on the bars and the mat was very good. At the conclusion of the gymnastic programme tables were brought in and a barrel of oysters was emptied on them. Each man was provided with a knife and opened his own oyster. It was a shell game.

The tobacco war still wages between British and American capital. The leader of the American combination is now in Liverpool and is reported to have declared that he would capture the British trade in tobacco the next four years or lose a million sterling in the attempt. The British manufacturers are mustering forces and the struggle will soon begin in earnest.

As the time for closing the Pan-American exposition approaches, the Buffalo papers begin to admit that there is no hope that the exposition will pay expenses. It is declared that all such enterprises are financial failures, and only the too sanguine expect anything different. Buffalo, however, would have come out much better had it not been for the tragedy of September sixth, from the shock of which the exposition has not fully recovered.

The royal train, built in Canada, and used by the Duke and Duchess of York will soon be on exhibition here for the benefit of local charities. Sir Wilfrid Laurier's private car, bought in Ohio for the use of the Duke, because Mr. Blair thought Canadians could not build one good enough, will not be shown at any price.

The clerkship of Toronto are beginning a systematic and determined crusade against gambling. They will appoint a committee to gather evidence secretly and hope to lessen if not to altogether annihilate this growing evil.

The Windsor Hotel, Montreal, will have telephones in every room. The idle guest may thus transact his business throughout the city without getting out of bed.

There is need of Canadian pulp in Europe, as the Norwegian article is very scarce, and the mills are all shut down because of the scarcity of water.

NEW STEAMER FOR C. P. R.
It is stated in C. P. R. circles, says the Winnipeg Telegram, that the fine steamer Yarmouth, running between Halifax and Boston, will be purchased by the company to replace the lost steamer Islander. Should the purchase of the Yarmouth be concluded she will be at once taken around the Horn to the Pacific coast during the winter. Capt. Troup, manager of the C. P. R. coast steamship service, who has been in the east effecting the purchasing of new steamers for the coast service, is expected to arrive in Winnipeg shortly.

AN INJUDICIOUS TEXT.
(Homiletic Review.)
A church was a considerable time without a pastor. A great number of persons of varied talents preached to them with a view to obtaining the post. A very ambitious young man was asked to supply them for a Sabbath. All went well until he gave out the text: "See that ye refuse him not that speaketh." Imagine the consternation the people experienced when he read out the text in a lofty and commanding manner. He was unaware of the feeling he created. The people did the opposite from the text. The young man was not called.

THE ST. JOHN STAR is published by THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY (INC.), 25 St. John, New Brunswick, every afternoon (except Sunday) at $2 a year.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 23, 1911.

DOMESTIC WORK AND OTHER WORK.

Numerous Canadian journals have reprinted and discussed a pair of "wanted" advertisements which appeared in the same column of a newspaper in Montreal. One offers $14 a month to "an honest Protestant school teacher with a 'first class elementary certificate.'" All the critics agree in denouncing the state of civilization in which this scale of pay is possible. They dwell upon the alleged fact that the servant's work is purely manual and deals with material things, while the work of the teacher is intellectual and has to do with the minds and souls of the coming generation. And they are all shocked that when allowance is made for board the servant gets the best pay.

But now let us look at the other side of the question. Is there any reason for surprise that a capable woman, able to do all the work about a house, should be paid more for ten or twelve hours work per day than a girl of sixteen or eighteen teaching an elementary school for the first time, and working say five hours per day? Which trade calls for the rarest qualifications? Which implies the longest training for real efficiency? For which class of occupations does the demand most exceed the supply? Which advertisement is likely to bring the larger number of applications? The fact is that a young girl with a common school education such as is open to the daughter of a laborer in the cities, or of the poorest farmer in the rural districts, can obtain a certificate as an elementary teacher with less study and instruction than would make her thoroughly competent in all kinds of domestic work. When she takes the school at $15 per month she is nothing more than an apprentice. The girl teacher takes the lower pay expecting that something better is in store, while her sister who goes out to service has little hope of promotion.

But if it be true that domestic service is much better rewarded than teaching or other work, why should the ill-paid classes complain? The kitchen is open to them if they are willing to do the work and take the pay. No doubt domestic service would be much more profitable than much of the work in factories and shops. It is also more healthy. Probably a good domestic worker can save more out of her pay than many saleswomen or typewriters, and even some teachers. How does it happen then that while the supply of help for the house is never in excess of the demand, the other avenues for women to make an honest living are more or less crowded? Domestic work cannot in itself be generally distasteful. It is the business to which a majority of women are brought up, and the one in which most of the married women in the civilized world are engaged. Most girls who earn their own living in other employments look forward to marriage, which will give them the care of a house, with the personal performance of the whole or a part of the domestic duties. The real objection to domestic service which makes young women prefer other activities is apparently the social objection. There is a false idea that a girl who takes pay for cooking meals and keeping a house in order is not so respectable as one who takes pay for other service not more useful, nor requiring higher mental or moral qualifications. It is not necessary here to speculate on the origin of this theory. But it has no sound or right basis. The man who pays a teacher $14 when he is willing to give $15 to the girl who takes care of his house, is the creature of circumstances. He has found that the girl who wants to teach would rather take the lower pay than do the work which commands the higher rate. And he has probably found that if he does not pay the higher sum he cannot get good domestic help in the city where he lives.

RESETTING SOUTH AFRICA.
The London Standard strongly advises the establishment of a Bureau of Information at Cape Town with a branch office in London, in order that the intending immigrants to South Africa may know something about their proposed new home before going to it and also learn what the prospects are in every class of business. At present there are in London a number of gentlemen who have been sent by the Cape government for the purpose of creating an interest in the new colonies and furnishing information to intending immigrants. These gentlemen have received numerous enquiries from practically every class in regard to the country, but as yet no definite steps have been taken to establish a permanent information bureau, and special instructions are to be issued. It is stated that there is the time for immigration. Hundreds of foreigners, probably more wide-awake than the average Britisher, seeing the splendid opportunities now open in Africa are pouring into the country, and if the British wait until the termination of the war, which may not come for a long time yet, they will probably find all the best lands taken and the best places filled.

LETTERS ON CANADIAN HISTORY.

A very large audience, entirely filling the school room of St. John's church, assembled to listen to the first lecture of Mr. Raymond's course upon the Early History of New Brunswick. The Rev. J. deSoyras presided, and introduced the lecturer of the evening with an explanation of the purpose of these educational lectures, already justified by evident success. It was clear that St. John's could provide her own instructors, although anxious to profit when it was possible by the professional instructions from the provincial capital. The Rev. W. O. Raymond was warmly applauded upon commencing his lecture. He spoke of his early interest in provincial history, and entered into a very interesting account of the first Indian inhabitants of New Brunswick, their habits, dwellings, weapons, and other usages. An account was also given of the first English explorers of New Brunswick and their adventures, sometimes of a tragical nature, with the Indians.

The next lecture of the course will be delivered on Tuesday evening next, Oct. 25.

Y. M. C. A. SOCIAL.

The evening social of the gymnastic classes of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening in the gymnasium. There was a fairly large attendance of young men. During the evening the following programme was carried out: Overture, orchestra; address, C. E. Macmillan; address, physical director, Robert Alken; club singing, A. H. Likely; song, S. McGowan; parallel bar work, Markham, Lewis, J. Malcolm and Alken; clarinet solo, Fred Jones; tumbling, Malcolm and Lewis; basket ball match, picked teams.

The Y. M. C. A. orchestra was in attendance and played a number of selections during the gymnastic programme. The work of the men on the bars and the mat was very good. At the conclusion of the gymnastic programme tables were brought in and a barrel of oysters was emptied on them. Each man was provided with a knife and opened his own oyster. It was a shell game.

THE ST. JOHN STAR is published by THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY (INC.), 25 St. John, New Brunswick, every afternoon (except Sunday) at $2 a year.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 23, 1911.

DOMESTIC WORK AND OTHER WORK.

Numerous Canadian journals have reprinted and discussed a pair of "wanted" advertisements which appeared in the same column of a newspaper in Montreal. One offers $14 a month to "an honest Protestant school teacher with a 'first class elementary certificate.'" All the critics agree in denouncing the state of civilization in which this scale of pay is possible. They dwell upon the alleged fact that the servant's work is purely manual and deals with material things, while the work of the teacher is intellectual and has to do with the minds and souls of the coming generation. And they are all shocked that when allowance is made for board the servant gets the best pay.

But now let us look at the other side of the question. Is there any reason for surprise that a capable woman, able to do all the work about a house, should be paid more for ten or twelve hours work per day than a girl of sixteen or eighteen teaching an elementary school for the first time, and working say five hours per day? Which trade calls for the rarest qualifications? Which implies the longest training for real efficiency? For which class of occupations does the demand most exceed the supply? Which advertisement is likely to bring the larger number of applications? The fact is that a young girl with a common school education such as is open to the daughter of a laborer in the cities, or of the poorest farmer in the rural districts, can obtain a certificate as an elementary teacher with less study and instruction than would make her thoroughly competent in all kinds of domestic work. When she takes the school at $15 per month she is nothing more than an apprentice. The girl teacher takes the lower pay expecting that something better is in store, while her sister who goes out to service has little hope of promotion.

But if it be true that domestic service is much better rewarded than teaching or other work, why should the ill-paid classes complain? The kitchen is open to them if they are willing to do the work and take the pay. No doubt domestic service would be much more profitable than much of the work in factories and shops. It is also more healthy. Probably a good domestic worker can save more out of her pay than many saleswomen or typewriters, and even some teachers. How does it happen then that while the supply of help for the house is never in excess of the demand, the other avenues for women to make an honest living are more or less crowded? Domestic work cannot in itself be generally distasteful. It is the business to which a majority of women are brought up, and the one in which most of the married women in the civilized world are engaged. Most girls who earn their own living in other employments look forward to marriage, which will give them the care of a house, with the personal performance of the whole or a part of the domestic duties. The real objection to domestic service which makes young women prefer other activities is apparently the social objection. There is a false idea that a girl who takes pay for cooking meals and keeping a house in order is not so respectable as one who takes pay for other service not more useful, nor requiring higher mental or moral qualifications. It is not necessary here to speculate on the origin of this theory. But it has no sound or right basis. The man who pays a teacher $14 when he is willing to give $15 to the girl who takes care of his house, is the creature of circumstances. He has found that the girl who wants to teach would rather take the lower pay than do the work which commands the higher rate. And he has probably found that if he does not pay the higher sum he cannot get good domestic help in the city where he lives.

RESETTING SOUTH AFRICA.
The London Standard strongly advises the establishment of a Bureau of Information at Cape Town with a branch office in London, in order that the intending immigrants to South Africa may know something about their proposed new home before going to it and also learn what the prospects are in every class of business. At present there are in London a number of gentlemen who have been sent by the Cape government for the purpose of creating an interest in the new colonies and furnishing information to intending immigrants. These gentlemen have received numerous enquiries from practically every class in regard to the country, but as yet no definite steps have been taken to establish a permanent information bureau, and special instructions are to be issued. It is stated that there is the time for immigration. Hundreds of foreigners, probably more wide-awake than the average Britisher, seeing the splendid opportunities now open in Africa are pouring into the country, and if the British wait until the termination of the war, which may not come for a long time yet, they will probably find all the best lands taken and the best places filled.

LETTERS ON CANADIAN HISTORY.

A very large audience, entirely filling the school room of St. John's church, assembled to listen to the first lecture of Mr. Raymond's course upon the Early History of New Brunswick. The Rev. J. deSoyras presided, and introduced the lecturer of the evening with an explanation of the purpose of these educational lectures, already justified by evident success. It was clear that St. John's could provide her own instructors, although anxious to profit when it was possible by the professional instructions from the provincial capital. The Rev. W. O. Raymond was warmly applauded upon commencing his lecture. He spoke of his early interest in provincial history, and entered into a very interesting account of the first Indian inhabitants of New Brunswick, their habits, dwellings, weapons, and other usages. An account was also given of the first English explorers of New Brunswick and their adventures, sometimes of a tragical nature, with the Indians.

The next lecture of the course will be delivered on Tuesday evening next, Oct. 25.

Y. M. C. A. SOCIAL.

The evening social of the gymnastic classes of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening in the gymnasium. There was a fairly large attendance of young men. During the evening the following programme was carried out: Overture, orchestra; address, C. E. Macmillan; address, physical director, Robert Alken; club singing, A. H. Likely; song, S. McGowan; parallel bar work, Markham, Lewis, J. Malcolm and Alken; clarinet solo, Fred Jones; tumbling, Malcolm and Lewis; basket ball match, picked teams.

The Y. M. C. A. orchestra was in attendance and played a number of selections during the gymnastic programme. The work of the men on the bars and the mat was very good. At the conclusion of the gymnastic programme tables were brought in and a barrel of oysters was emptied on them. Each man was provided with a knife and opened his own oyster. It was a shell game.

THE ST. JOHN STAR is published by THE SUN PRINTING COMPANY (INC.), 25 St. John, New Brunswick, every afternoon (except Sunday) at $2 a year.

ST. JOHN STAR.

ST. JOHN, N. B., OCTOBER 23, 1911.

DOMESTIC WORK AND OTHER WORK.

Numerous Canadian journals have reprinted and discussed a pair of "wanted" advertisements which appeared in the same column of a newspaper in Montreal. One offers $14 a month to "an honest Protestant school teacher with a 'first class elementary certificate.'" All the critics agree in denouncing the state of civilization in which this scale of pay is possible. They dwell upon the alleged fact that the servant's work is purely manual and deals with material things, while the work of the teacher is intellectual and has to do with the minds and souls of the coming generation. And they are all shocked that when allowance is made for board the servant gets the best pay.

But now let us look at the other side of the question. Is there any reason for surprise that a capable woman, able to do all the work about a house, should be paid more for ten or twelve hours work per day than a girl of sixteen or eighteen teaching an elementary school for the first time, and working say five hours per day? Which trade calls for the rarest qualifications? Which implies the longest training for real efficiency? For which class of occupations does the demand most exceed the supply? Which advertisement is likely to bring the larger number of applications? The fact is that a young girl with a common school education such as is open to the daughter of a laborer in the cities, or of the poorest farmer in the rural districts, can obtain a certificate as an elementary teacher with less study and instruction than would make her thoroughly competent in all kinds of domestic work. When she takes the school at $15 per month she is nothing more than an apprentice. The girl teacher takes the lower pay expecting that something better is in store, while her sister who goes out to service has little hope of promotion.

But if it be true that domestic service is much better rewarded than teaching or other work, why should the ill-paid classes complain? The kitchen is open to them if they are willing to do the work and take the pay. No doubt domestic service would be much more profitable than much of the work in factories and shops. It is also more healthy. Probably a good domestic worker can save more out of her pay than many saleswomen or typewriters, and even some teachers. How does it happen then that while the supply of help for the house is never in excess of the demand, the other avenues for women to make an honest living are more or less crowded? Domestic work cannot in itself be generally distasteful. It is the business to which a majority of women are brought up, and the one in which most of the married women in the civilized world are engaged. Most girls who earn their own living in other employments look forward to marriage, which will give them the care of a house, with the personal performance of the whole or a part of the domestic duties. The real objection to domestic service which makes young women prefer other activities is apparently the social objection. There is a false idea that a girl who takes pay for cooking meals and keeping a house in order is not so respectable as one who takes pay for other service not more useful, nor requiring higher mental or moral qualifications. It is not necessary here to speculate on the origin of this theory. But it has no sound or right basis. The man who pays a teacher $14 when he is willing to give $15 to the girl who takes care of his house, is the creature of circumstances. He has found that the girl who wants to teach would rather take the lower pay than do the work which commands the higher rate. And he has probably found that if he does not pay the higher sum he cannot get good domestic help in the city where he lives.

RESETTING SOUTH AFRICA.
The London Standard strongly advises the establishment of a Bureau of Information at Cape Town with a branch office in London, in order that the intending immigrants to South Africa may know something about their proposed new home before going to it and also learn what the prospects are in every class of business. At present there are in London a number of gentlemen who have been sent by the Cape government for the purpose of creating an interest in the new colonies and furnishing information to intending immigrants. These gentlemen have received numerous enquiries from practically every class in regard to the country, but as yet no definite steps have been taken to establish a permanent information bureau, and special instructions are to be issued. It is stated that there is the time for immigration. Hundreds of foreigners, probably more wide-awake than the average Britisher, seeing the splendid opportunities now open in Africa are pouring into the country, and if the British wait until the termination of the war, which may not come for a long time yet, they will probably find all the best lands taken and the best places filled.

LETTERS ON CANADIAN HISTORY.

A very large audience, entirely filling the school room of St. John's church, assembled to listen to the first lecture of Mr. Raymond's course upon the Early History of New Brunswick. The Rev. J. deSoyras presided, and introduced the lecturer of the evening with an explanation of the purpose of these educational lectures, already justified by evident success. It was clear that St. John's could provide her own instructors, although anxious to profit when it was possible by the professional instructions from the provincial capital. The Rev. W. O. Raymond was warmly applauded upon commencing his lecture. He spoke of his early interest in provincial history, and entered into a very interesting account of the first Indian inhabitants of New Brunswick, their habits, dwellings, weapons, and other usages. An account was also given of the first English explorers of New Brunswick and their adventures, sometimes of a tragical nature, with the Indians.

The next lecture of the course will be delivered on Tuesday evening next, Oct. 25.

Y. M. C. A. SOCIAL.

The evening social of the gymnastic classes of the Y. M. C. A. was held last evening in the gymnasium. There was a fairly large attendance of young men. During the evening the following programme was carried out: Overture, orchestra; address, C. E. Macmillan; address, physical director, Robert Alken; club singing, A. H. Likely; song, S. McGowan; parallel bar work, Markham, Lewis, J. Malcolm and Alken; clarinet solo, Fred Jones; tumbling, Malcolm and Lewis; basket ball match, picked teams.

The Y. M. C. A. orchestra was in attendance and played a number of selections during the gymnastic programme. The work of the men on the bars and the mat was very good. At the conclusion of the gymnastic programme tables were brought in and a barrel of oysters was emptied on them. Each man was provided with a knife and opened his own oyster. It was a shell game.

Star Want Ads.
Bring Sure and Quick Returns.
Cost Little--Accomplish Much.
1 cent a word each insertion.
Situation and Help Wanted Ads. free.

HELP WANTED, MALE.

Advertisements under this head: Two words for one cent each time, or five cents a word for ten times. Payable in advance.

COACHMAN WANTED--Must be experienced and steady, and thoroughly understand the care of horses. Apply to Mrs. W. C. LEBLANC, 25 Mecklenburg street.

WANTED--At once--Two Cookmakers; highest wages paid to competent workmen. Apply to C. B. FIDOREN, Indian town.

WANTED--First-class waiter wanted. ROYAL HOTEL.

GENERAL AGENTS WANTED in each town for special, accident, sickness, indemnity, fire, and general insurance business. Liberal terms to reliable men. Write box 226, Montreal.

MONEY TO LOAN.

Advertisements under this head: Two words for one cent each time, or five cents a word for ten times. Payable in advance.

MONEY--Advanced on mortgage in large or small sums. Apply to Chas. MacDonald, 25 Mecklenburg street.

On Freehold and Leasehold Property, repayable by monthly instalments of either way. Apply to CHAPMAN & TILLEY, 25 Mecklenburg street.

GRAND DIVISION S. OF T.

The session was resumed at 2:30 p. m. The report of the committee on the state of the order was read, and after discussion a resolution was adopted. A resolution relating to the work of the late Sister Mary was passed, and the Grand Scribe ordered an ad hoc copy to be relative and friends.

The delegates to the National Division, which meets next July in Boston, were appointed as follows: P. G. W. P. C. D. Everett, Hon. Geo. E. Foster, Hon. H. A. McKeown, E. B. Woodburn, J. E. Woodburn, G. N. Vroom, Rev. J. D. Murray, Robt. Bell, Rev. G. W. Fisher, R. T. Maxwell, Rev. J. Kirby, E. P. D. Tully, P. W. G. A. S. John Rankine, R. C. Webster, J. D. Finlay, E. H. H. Trueshan, H. J. Evans, W. C. Whitford, Daniel McGowan, P. McGowan, J. J. Kierstead, J. Wesley Foster, Grand Scribe A. J. Armstrong, members at large, G. M. W. Sullivan, H. A. Everett, H. W. Baiding.

Three hundred copies of the journal were ordered and re-ordered by Rev. J. J. Kierstead. A committee consisting of J. I. Kierstead, C. A. Everett and Rev. G. Wood was appointed to draw up constitutions and regulations for the formation of Bands of Hope.

It was decided to hold the next annual session at St. John in October, 1912, and the semi-annual session in Montreal in May next. The G. W. P. appointed the standing committees for the year as follows:

Propagation--G. W. P. L. E. D. Tully, Rev. G. W. Fisher, C. A. Everett, J. E. Woodburn, J. D. Robertson, Robt. Maxwell, Rev. John Shenton, A. J. Armstrong, T. H. Lawrence, E. B. Woodburn, W. C. Whitaker, J. C. Thomas, Wm. Kerr, J. I. Kierstead, Jas. Sullivan, H. W. Baiding, J. W. Foster, E. A. Everett, Jas. Falconer, J. Stark.

State of order--Robt. Maxwell, Rev. Geo. E. Foster, W. J. Kirby, E. A. Everett, C. P. B. Rowe, H. McKeown, H. P. Dole.

By-laws--A. A. Belyea, W. H. Patterson, H. A. Everett, R. Woodburn, Hon. H. A. McKeown, H. H. Pickett.

Statistics--John Rankine, E. T. Whitehead, H. H. Evans.

Hall--R. McCarthy and C. F. B. Rowe.

The report of the enrollment committee was then received, and with the reading of the minutes, Grand Division closed its 6th annual session.

Last night an open meeting was held, at which speeches dealing with the work of the order were given by G. W. P. Tully, H. W. P. Everett, P. W. P. Woodburn, G. H. Armstrong and others.

FREDERICTON.

FREDERICTON, Oct. 21--The home of Mrs. Robert Davies, Brunswick street, was last evening the scene of a charming nuptial event, when their niece, Helen McNally, youngest daughter of Dr. McNally of St. John, was united in marriage to James Taylor Wilson of this city. The happy event was witnessed by about thirty guests, several of whom were from St. John. The bride and groom were accompanied by the marriage ceremony was performed at 8 o'clock by Rev. Dr. Chapman, pastor of the Methodist church, assisted by Rev. J. J. Teasdale, the bride and groom kneeling upon a bank of white blossoms an arch of evergreen and red berries in the bow window of the drawing room. The bride was prettily gowned in pale blue embroidered silk, and carried a bouquet of pink and white roses. She was attended by Miss Edith Wilson, who wore white organdy over pink silk, her bouquet being of pink carnations. Little Miss Ethel Boyd, who looked charming in white with blue trimmings, was maid of honor, and carried a basket of white carnations. W. K. C. Parlee supported the groom.

Dr. W. H. Steeves has in his possession an interesting picture and one of considerable value. It is a photograph of the fathers of Confederation, taken when they were assembled in convention at Charlottetown on September 1st, 1864. There are probably but few copies