CANADIANS SHOWED 'EM ALL THE WAY

A sensational race against time, Uhlau, owned and driven by C. K. G. Billings, came under the wire at the Randall race track, near Cleveland, O., after completing a mile in 2:01, thereby smashing his own world's record of 2:02 3/4 for a gelding trotting a mile to wagon.

Woodstock Pitcher Receives Offer to Go West for Two Weeks—Offer for Neptune, Too.

Woodstock, N. B., Aug. 13.—That this town has made a far-reaching reputation through the medium of her fast ball team is shown in the following telegram received here today:

Saskatoon, Sask., Aug. 13, '10. "Owen Kelley, Woodstock, N. B.—Chief of Police, Woodstock, N. B.—Please loan us Peasley for two weeks. Set your own price. To win Western pennant. Answer within an hour.

FRANK SULLIVAN, The following reply was sent: Woodstock, N. B., Aug. 13, '10. "Frank Sullivan,

Saskatoon, Sask.—Peasley signed for try-out with Detroit. Must leave here Sept. 4. OWEN KELLEY. Frank Sullivan is a Woodstock boy, who up to three years ago conducted a grocery business in this town, when he went to Saskatoon.

After the game with Waterville Joe Neptune received an offer from a man who claimed to own a team in Virginia. The stranger was a witness to the game played with Waterville in Houlton.

On Monday Woodstock plays two games at home with Mars Hill. On Wednesday the local team goes to Calais where they play the third game with Calais on Thursday. This game is expected to be a hummer. Many Woodstock people will accompany the team on the trip.

On Friday Woodstock will play one game with St. Stephen, returning to Woodstock Friday night. The management of the Millinocket team is after Woodstock for an attraction in the Maine town on Labor Day.

Miles McLeod, who is just now a farmer, but who may be slated for pugilistic laurels.

In comparison with Johnson, McLeod shows more of the perfect man. He is 3 1/2 inches taller, has the advantage of 9 1/2 inches in reach, and is broader across the shoulders and deeper of chest. Johnson is bulkier than the Missourian in arms and limbs. The following figures will show where McLeod has the advantage over the negro:

Table comparing Miles McLeod and Johnson across various physical attributes like Age, Height, Reach, Chest, etc.

Here's a man who can whip Jack in Chicago, when the latter's brother, Walter, pointed him out to Corbett.

At least Jim Corbett says so, and it is generally admitted that few followers of the scrap sport are in a better position to know than Corbett, who stood up as best man and chief mourner to Jim Jeffries at the Reno slugging.

McLeod's parents are of Scotch descent. They are of the sober, industrious and law-abiding type, and they don't take very kindly to their son's pugilistic aspirations. But McLeod is firm in his purpose and is willing to wrest the "white man's burden" and vote back the supremacy of his color whenever Corbett gives the word.

Now take a good, long look at McLeod's picture. He appears to have a rather self-conscious and awkward pose, but that is because he is not used to facing the camera without his clothes. He will get over that, of course. But when it comes to size, looks and general proportions you've got to admit that he looks mighty good. In fact, there is something about him—perhaps it's the firm, steady light in his eyes—that makes you feel he will be right there if he is ever turned loose in the squared ring with Johnson.

Anyway, keep him well in mind, because he is almost sure to bob up on page one of the newspapers some day.

CLIPPERS WON IN BOTH GAMES

They Are Now on Even Terms With the St. Johns --Saturday's Double-Header Proved Awful Exhibition of Kindergarten Baseball --Donnelly's Good Work a Feature.

Those Clippers and Saints did a double drill at the ball park Saturday. Playing brisk ball all the way through, the Clippers romped away with the long end of the score in both sessions, climbing up to the same rung of the ladder as the saintly ones. They annexed the first event by the figures of 13-1 and the second by the more conservative count of 6-5.

Mr. Brogan, late of Marysville, brought down his entire repertoire for the first event, and had the pleas aggregation completely mystified. He heaved up all kind of throws, and throughout the nine sessions allowed but three puny bingles. His backing, too, at times, was of the sensational brand. Donnelly's work at first base was the feature of the game throughout. He accepted all kinds of throws with comparative ease, and his one handed catch of a difficult fly away back of the first sack, brought the stand to its feet.

The Tillyites played poor ball all through. They batted like novices and threw the ball about the field like a college team usually does.

Mr. Gero Blew Up. The high salaried Mr. Gero, was knocked off the mound in the fourth, and was succeeded by Tilly's understudy, the youthful Mr. Humphrey. This youth silenced the bombardment for some time, but also took the aviation mode of travelling in the seventh, the Clippers falling upon him in a wicked manner and buffeting his offering all over the grass, and when the diamond dust had settled down in that awful stanza the big score board on the club house had registered five runs. Mr. Humphrey's fate, however, was mild in comparison to what was administered to the Hon. Gero. From the tap of the gong, McBrine's stick-smiths went at him in a highly vengeful manner. Every man up either broke a stitch in the ball, or playfully tapped it to a saint, just to see if he could make an error.

It was a bad day for Hon. Gero. His usual serene and placid countenance was clouded with sorrow, as with every smashing crack of the enemy's willow he had visions of a panting locomotive and a trip back to whence he came.

In the fourth section of the fray he was replaced by the versatile Humphrey, and basking in the sunshine, he was allowed to warm the bench for the remainder of the proceedings.

Big Attendance. Such a band of taxpayers and suffragettes never before congregated to see the perspiring efforts of our demon athletes. Every available seat in the commodious stand was filled long before the ump gave the word go, and hundreds were unable to gain admission to the high priced seats, no matter how much of their loose change, they were willing to be separated from.

A new umpire D. Connolly appeared in our midst, and was as autocratic as the Czar of Russia. The prospect of trampling over each other, to get at that post series coin has made the men on Tilly's and McBrine's payroll a vinegary lot of individuals. Instead of looking cheerful and sharing their tobacco with Tillyites blew up entirely. Without the semblance of a hit error succeeded error, the ball was thrown around the lot, and when matters had finally settled down the Clippers had scored the winning run. Following are the details of both games:

THE LID ON CLEVELAND RACE TRACK

Authorities Shut Down on Betting at North Randall Track and Track May be Closed as Result.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 13.—Acting under peremptory instructions from Governor Harmon, the county authorities clamped down the "lid" today on the betting ring at North Randall track, three hours before the close of the Grand Circuit race meetings. As a result it is predicted that the track may be permanently closed. Sheriff A. J. Hirsztus retired from the raid with his pockets, his hat and front of his shirt stuffed with currency and tonight a swarm of aggrieved betters are looking through the town streets for the bookmakers armed with tickets that have not been redeemed. Mysteriously the bookmakers learned at noon that a raid was scheduled. Bondsmen were on hand to provide bail in case arrests should be made. Nevertheless at 2:30 o'clock when the sheriff with his deputies appeared the bookmakers were in full voice, and a string of contented winners was warping past the little stands engaged in cashing in.

RACES AT SARATOGA.

Saratoga, N. Y., Aug. 13.—Before a crowd of 15,000 persons, and amid rousing cheers, S. C. Hildreth's Dalmatin, admirably ridden by Shilling, carried off the $5,000 Travers stakes, 1:14 miles here today. Dalmatin, carrying top weight, 125 pounds, conceded weight to his entire field and at no stage of the race was in danger. Dalmatin and his stablemate Hampton Court, were always the favorites at odds. The officers army service cup race was hotly contested and resulted in a victory for Sequence, ridden by Major Roberts.

American Oarsmen No Match for Ottawa and Toronto Eight in Potomac Regatta--Ottawa Crew Won.

Washington, Aug. 13.—Winners a week ago of the senior eight-oar championship of Canada the same eight from Ottawa won the championship of all North America today. They took first honors in the prime event of the closing day of the thirty eighth annual regatta of the National association of amateur oarsmen in a spectacular "meeting. Scarcely less important in the eyes of the aquatic world was the victory of William Melihoff of the New York Nassaus in the senior single sculls. His victory over the mighty Fred Sheppard, was measured by one second for the entire mile and a quarter course.

The race of the senior eights was an international event. Two Canadian crews the Ottawa and the Argonauts of Toronto, were entered for the Dominion and the Potomacs of Washington; the Vespers of Philadelphia and the New York Athletics for the United States.

The American oarsmen were no match for their rivals from across the border. The real contest was between the Ottawas and the Argonauts, and as at St. Catherine's last week, the former crew crossed the line less than a length ahead of the latter.

The Summary. Association singles sculls: (Senior) S. F. Gordon, of Vespers, Philadelphia, won; Fred Fuessell of Harlem Club, New York, second and Butler of the Toronto Club, third. Time 8:23.
