The River Steamer
 The river steamer Champlain arrived at Indiantown yesterday afternoon after having made a successful trip up the river as far as Hatfield's Point on the Belleisle, which she reached on Sunday evening at 6 o'clock. Capt. Wasson reported that there was a great deal of ice on the Belleisle route but that he experienced no difficulty in getting through.

The Majestic went up as far as Upper Gagetown on Saturday morning with the intention of keeping on to Fredericton, but when that point was reached it was found that the ice was running in heavy masses on the upper reaches of the river and Capt. Day thought it best to stay at Upper Gagetown until yesterday, when he continued on to the capital city. The Majestic is expected at Indiantown this afternoon.

The river at Indiantown is steadily rising and the water is now about three feet below the top of the wharves. Those who are accustomed to the tricks which the river plays in the spring, expect that the water will soon raise over the wharves. It is also expected that this freshet will be one of the largest in years.

Everything in life is relative. To a man who drives motor even a stern who seems to be stubborn.

STEAMERS PLYING TO CANADA PROTECTED

Steamship Officials Can Hardly Credit Report that Canadian Government will Make Inspection.

In regard to the dispatch from Ottawa that the marine department was about to institute an inspection of all steamers running to Canadian ports, local officials of the steamship lines say that all the trans-Atlantic lines coming here are inspected by the officials of the British Board of Trade, and that many of the boats are provided with even better life-saving equipment than is required by the Board of Trade regulation.

One official said he did not credit the report that the Canadian government would inspect the trans-Atlantic boats. Ships, he added, registered in Great Britain and running from British ports, have to pass an inspection there every year; they comply with the Board of Trade regulations, and so long as they do that it is none of the Canadian government's business how many life boats they carry.

"The Canadian government has jurisdiction over ships of Canadian register. Its officials also inspect annually British ships trading between Canada and foreign ports."

"Possibly the Canadian government has a right to say under what conditions English or other ships shall take aboard passengers in a Canadian port, but it is hardly likely to attempt to do so, as that would be interference with the British Board of Trade. The Canadian regulations in regard to the equipment of passenger boats are practically the same as those of the British Board of Trade, just as the Canadian examinations for masters and mates seagoing are the same as those of the British Board of Trade."

Another steamship official stated that for the smaller class of steamships the Board of Trade regulations provided for sufficient lifeboats to accommodate practically all the passengers carried. It had been some time since the Board of Trade regulations had been revised, and they never contemplated making provision for ships of the size which have been put in service in recent years.

Most of the ships engaged in the trade between England and Canada were, he thought, well provided with lifeboats, though probably they did not carry enough anchors to handle them properly.

It is said that the marine department may discover some need of amplifying the regulations in regard to the life-saving equipment of small steamers engaged in the coasting trade of Canada, as some of them are not equipped with boats of a type that would be much good in a heavy sea. On this class of vessel, boat drill is an infrequent occurrence.

THESE OLD PEOPLE OWE THEIR HEALTH

 "For more than 10 years, I suffered with Constipation and Piles. I tried many remedies, but none did me good. After taking four boxes of 'Fruit-Active,' I am well, I am now over 50 years of age."

Mr. Wm. Pitt, general store-keeper at Shanly, Ont., writes:—I am 67 years of age and long suffered from Piles, due to Stomach Troubles. I was advised to try 'Fruit-Active.' I did so and they completely cured me."

Mr. Wm. Parsons of Otterville, Ont., says:—I am 73 years old and a great believer in 'Fruit-Active.' I take a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or from Fruit-Active Limited, Ottawa.

THE AMOUNT REALIZED BY TAG DAY SATURDAY

Free Kindergarten will Benefit to Extent of $1141 Through Activities of Taggers and Citizens.

That the tag day held last Saturday by the Free Kindergarten Association was an unqualified success, is proved by the fact that the sum of $1141 was collected by the tag ones. While this is not the largest sum realized in 1912 it amounted to $1200 and in 1911, $1000. The results of last Saturday's raid on the public purse show an increase of $141 over last year, and this, together with the $500 granted to the organization by the city government will be enough to run the schools for the coming year.

Mrs. H. H. Pickett, the president of the Free Kindergarten Association said last evening that while the result was extremely satisfactory she had hoped a larger amount would be raised as it was becoming necessary to open more schools. She said in the Portland street school numbers were being turned away, while another school was needed in Lower Cove.

THE CHANCES AGAINST YOU

"Oh, I will be all right in a few days," says the person who is tired out and has to drag himself to his daily work because the nervous system is exhausted.

Unfortunately nervous diseases do not fight themselves and the waiting process which has brought you to this condition keeps right on until there is a complete breakdown.

You must break the waiting process started, so that, instead of being a little weaker at the end of each day, you will find your balance on the other side and know that you are gradually getting strong and well.

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food will help you wonderfully if you only give it a reasonable chance. As the system is built up you will find such symptoms as headache, sleeplessness and indigestion leaving you. You will find the old energy coming back. The mind and body will better serve you and you will see a new pleasure in life.

SKIN PEELING NATURE'S AID TO NEW COMPLEXION

(From Woman's Tribune.)
 Mercolized wax is a natural beautifier. By flaking off the dehydrated surface skin, it merely hastens Nature's work. The second skin layer, brought gradually to view, exhibits the healthy youthful color produced by capillary circulation. This because the capillaries are thus brought nearer the surface; also because the new skin is unsoiled by dirt and dirt. This wax, to be had at any drug store (once used) will do it up on nightly like cold cream; washed off mornings with warm water. Its work usually is completed in from seven to ten days, long enough not to show too marked results from day to day, or cause pain or detention indoors.

A face bath to remove wrinkles, made by dissolving an ounce of wax in a half pint with hazel, is another natural beautifier, since its astringent and tonic effects smooth out the wrinkles in accordance with Nature's own process.
