VYE ADMITTED HE STOLE THE PASSES

Dr. Murray on Stand at Investigation Says former I.C.R. Chief Clerk Told Him of Taking Them.

Moncton, Aug. 16.—At the I. C. R. pass inquiry this morning Dr. Charles A. Murray was a witness. His examination was conducted by George W. Fowler, M.P., At one o'clock Mr. Fowler said he was going away and asked that the witness be stood aside until his return. He suggested that other witnesses be called in the meantime.

Dr. Murray was questioned regarding the money Ray Vye obtained from him at the time he left town in November, 1909. Vye asked him twice for money. He said he as first refused Vye, but later loaned him $270. Witness said Vye told him that he (Vye) had taken passes from the Transcript office; that he went into the office with Elmer Ferguson; that he saw passes lying on a table in the basement and took some of them home and found they were incomplete. He came back and let Ferguson into his secret. Ferguson did not know about it at first. They came back afterwards and numbered the passes in the Transcript building.

Vye told witness of this about the first of November. The railway management at that time was investigating the matter. This was a considerable time after the witness came back from the coast. About the middle of August Vye gave witnesses five or six passes, saying "Here, you can use these on your trip to Montreal." Vye had given witness passes on previous occasions. When Vye was appointed chief clerk in the mechanical department of the I. C. R., he told witness that whenever he wanted to go anywhere he would arrange transportation. Some times the passes were filled out and some times they were blank. He used some himself and gave some to others. Vye told witness he had authority to issue them.

He did not know how often he asked Vye for passes. Mr. Fowler questioned witness regarding contracts between the I. C. R. and the N. B. Wire Fence Company, of which witness was formerly president, and asked the witness to bring the contracts to the inquiry. Witness would not swear that he had supplied curlers with passes or that he had not. If any were given they came from the same source.

Mr. Fowler read a clause from the contract between the N. B. Wire Fence Company during 1908 and 1909 that "contractor will be required to pay usual current rates for transportation of himself and his men."

Dr. Murray said he had never had "books" of passes or duplex tickets in his possession. He did not remember selling any passes.

Men Who Don't Exercise

Snffer From Indigestion, Headaches, Poor Appetite, Sleeplessness

Nothing so Sure to "Set Up" a Man Make Him Feel Brisk and Vigorous, as Dr. Hamilton's Pills.

Lack of exercise and overwork were the causes that combined to almost kill Samuel S. Stephens, Jr., one of the best known citizens in Woodstock. In his convincing letter, Mr. Stephens says:

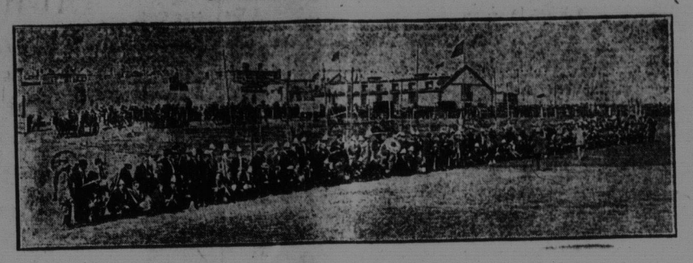
"A year ago I returned home after a long trip completely worn out. I was so badly affected by chronic biliousness, so much overcome by constant headaches, dizziness, that I despaired of ever getting well.

"It was a blessing that I used Dr. Hamilton's Pills. In one week I felt like a new man. The feeling of weight and nausea in my stomach disappeared. My eyes looked brighter, color grew better, and, best of all, I began to enjoy my meals. The dizziness, langour and feeling of depression passed away, and I fast regained my old-time vigor and spirits. Today I am well—thanks to Dr. Hamilton's Pills."

For health, strength, comfort and good spirits there is no medicine like Dr. Hamilton's Pills. 25c. per box, five boxes for $1.00, at all druggists and storekeepers, or by mail from The Catarrhozone Co., Buffalo, N. Y., and Kingston, Canada.

COMMERCIAL TRAVELLERS WILL HAVE BUSY DAY AT THE EXHIBITION



The commercial travellers of the Maritime Provinces are evidently going to make their day at the Greater St. John Exhibition an unqualified success, judging from the thorough manner in which they are making preparations. The day set apart is Friday, September 6th, and no supersitions about that mystic Friday are being entertained for a minute.

It is expected upwards of 400 trunk-dwellers will make merry on this occasion, the bluenoses acting as hosts to those who come from the other sections of Canada, United States or as far away as the Old World. In fact the "older" the world the better, for the boys have a few stunts in hostmanship they want to put over that will take away one's breath, or at least modify it a bit—something that only the newest world like Canada and the Nickel Theatre people have placed the social suite of their building at the disposal of the travellers and later in the evening the auditorium upstairs will be utilized for a display of undiscovered talent that it is expected will discount a grand opera try-out. In fact the Keith house is to be headquarters, hindquarters and the general rendevouz of the visitors during the day.

Commencing at 9 o'clock in the morning the travellers will meet at the Nickel and after enrolling will be labelled with a badge that carries with it immunity from police interference. At sharp 10.15 automobiles will range up in front of the theatre and take the men out to Courtenay Bay operations, which mean so much to hustling salesmen when St. John gets into her longer commercial stride. Here the scheme of making the most modern shipping centre in America will be let out of the bag by Manager Geo. E. Palmer and assisting engineers.

Early after lunch the travellers will take a steamer at Indiantown for Carter's Point where one of those renowned St. John clambakes will be demonstrated. The elaborateness with which the details of this function are being entered into suggests a feast of Lucullus. And then of course there's the Rhine of America as an extra delight. The return to the city will be made by 7.30.

Cars will be awaiting at Indiantown to take the knights of the grip to the Exhibition, where they will be received with a fanfare of trumpets and a flight of skyrockets. The big show will be done to a rich cinnamon brown and then comes the grand wind-up at the Nickel.

The finale to the day's fun is to take the form of a smoker and cafe chantant performance. The theatre interior will be rid of its crowds at this time (10.30) and with the orchestra still on the job, the stage ready for all sorts of scenic "sets" and the man in the operating box at back and call of the travellers' stage manager, a prime bill of entertainment is contemplated.

The Entertainment Committee who have the day's pleasure in hands is, believe us, some committee. First, there's Andy Burns, then R. C. Kaye, aided and abetted by Al. Massie and Ned McColough. J. Pope Barnes is the efficient chairman of this quintette of dynamos and they're staying awake nights planning new things to squeeze into that merry fifteen hours.

The affair is not to be confined to Maritime Provincial travellers at all, nor to Canadians, but as stated above there will be a big fat welcoming hand out all day for the itinerent salesman whoever he may be or wherever he may come from. Last exhibition—the 1910 show—the boys got together nicely and had quite a little time down on the grounds, but this year the plans are more definite and extensive. The accompanying illustration represents the charter membership of the St. John Exhibition Commercial Travellers' Pot Pourl. This time the numbers will be greatly augmented.

"THE RED ROSE" AGAIN SCORES A GREAT HIT

Best Attraction of Kind Seen Here in Years Verdict of Last Night's Opera House Audience.

An audience even larger than that of Thursday evening, and equally as pronounced in its approval of the production, witnessed The Red Rose in the Opera House last evening. There were curtain calls after each act, and the verdict of the very large audience was that the attraction was the finest of its kind which has ever visited St. John. Particularly good were the different dancing numbers, while the large handsome and sprightly chorus was again greeted with hearty applause. Miss Zoe Barnett won new laurels in her splendid presentation of the part of Lola, the artist's model, around whom thet story of the piece revolves, and who is the bright particular star of the production.

The comedians were as funny as ever, and made new friends, while the whistleable airs in the choice collection of musical numbers awakened a responsive chord in the audience, and their rendition was the signal for manifestations of approval. The last two productions of The Red Rose will be given this afternoon and evening, and from present indications there will be a very large audience at both, as the production has caught on in St. John to an extent that will always make Miss Barnett and her talented associates welcome visitors to the city..

FROGS THAT CROAK HAVE STAGE FRIGHT

Under the clustering grape vines or among the brown branches of a shade tree one may hear in the gray weather or in the early evening the croak of the tree frog, which later in the year and continuing until teh first frost, will be changed to a succession of monotonous trills that are almost musical. It is not at all easy to locate the tree frog by his note, says the Indianapolis News. As you approach his covert the music is likely to cease and if you place your hand on the trunk of the tree where he is ambushed he will at once become silent, and no matter how still you may remain, he will not resume his chant until you have removed to a distance.

The common tree frog of the United States, called also tree toad, is found westward as far as Kansas, but is quite at his best in Indiana. This four-footed batarachian attains a length of only two inches, and is green, gray or brown above, with irregular dark blotches and yellow below. His toes are more or less dilated at the tips into sticky pads, enabling him to hold to the branches of the tree in which he lives. A yet smaller tree frog is only one inch long and is yellowish brown or fawn color. This is called Pickering's tree frog, and is peculiar to the Eastern States. A strange variety, called the Antillian tree frog, is found in Martinique and other West Indian islands. It is remarkable in carrying its young, or tadpoles, a dozen or more, attached to its back.

When night approached she departed from the usual custom of her tribe of sleeping on the water. She took to a tree and roosted on a branch well up from the ground. It was apparent that she had her suspicions. These were probably aroused when Chief Keeper Snyder of the menagerie tried to catch her to put her on exhibition with the other big birds in the flying cage. Snyder went out in the boat with the caretaker and tried to lure her in his net. The heron was too quick for him and got away. After that she would not let the boat approach her within netting distance. She was such a handsome specimen of her kind that the chief keeper was greatly disappointed in not adding her to his collection.

Two weeks ago another blue heron dropped down upon the reservoir. The park observers saw by its markings that the newcomer was a male and speculated whether it was a deserted husband pursuing a recreant spouse or a persistent wooer braving the dangers of a big city for the object of his devotion.

No explanation was forthcoming, but that afternoon the two left the water and took wing, their long legs stretched out behind and their heads pointed northward.

It was with regret that Mrs. Blue Heron fled the park and now her friends are rejoicing over her return and hope she will remain.

Aunt Sally's Advice To Beauty-Seekers

W. C. D. says: "My elbows are so thick-skinned, gooseplmply and muddy, I can't wear short sleeves. How can this condition be overcome?" Don't use elbows as props. The treatment recommended to Minnie L. will make your elbows quite presentable.

Ellen B. asks: "What should I do for deep lines under my eyes and across my forehead?" Such lines, and at winkles, are best obliterated by bathing affected portions in a good astringent and tonic lotion, which strengthens and draws in the relaxed tissue. Here's a reliable forfula: 1 ounce powdered saxolite, 1-2 pint witch hazel; mix and use daily until entirely relieved.

Minnie L.: The undue redness, as well as the pimples, may easily be removed by using ordinary mercolized wax. Apply nightly like cold cream and erase mornings with warm water. Soon you'll have a beautifully white, clear, soft and velvety complexion. Mercolized wax, sold by all druggists, is better than cosmetics for any complexion trouble. One ounce suffices for most conditions.—Woman's Realm.
