Being organized by offic-ers of "C" Co. 132nd Bat-talion and Wireless Sta-tion.

Newcastle, Feb. 2.—Eight recruits have joined C Co. of the 132nd in the last six days as follows:—Andrew en and John Russell McDonald,

Recous River.

H. R. Stewart's resignation as secretary of the Fund, which office he has held since the organization of the Fund sixteen months ago, was accepted at the meeting.

Newcastle District Patriotic Fund to date has raised $9,667.45.

A Military Ball is being organized by the officers of C Company, 132nd Battalion and Wireless Station, for February 18th; to be held in the Town Hall.

The following committee met last Saturday afternoon to organize it: Major Cameron, Capt. Barry, Lieut.
Mowatt, Lieut. Love, Messrs. J. Colton
J. Morris, and J. Creaghan.

The proceeds will go to the Red Cross Society.

ROY MORRELL KILLED.

Mrs. Gordon Morrell, of Kars, Kings County, received word from Ottawa on Wednesday that her son, Roy Morrell, of the 26th Battalion, had been killed.
No particulars were sent. He had been employed with Jones Bros., of Apohaqui, for three years and was 23 years of age.

FOOD SOURING IN STOMACH CAUSES INDIGESTION, GAS

"Pape's Diapepsin" ends all stomach distress in five minutes.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gassy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach. It's so unnecessary.

BULGARIANS BEATEN BACK AFTER CLASH WITH ALLIES ON THE GREEK FRONTIER

Germany Admits Turks Forced To Retreat Before Russians South Of Erzerum.

London, Feb. 3.—Reuters Athens correspondent says he has received a report from a good source that an encounter between Bulgarians and the Entente Allied troops took place Tuesday on the Greco-Bulgarian frontier. The Bulgarians fired on French detachments reconnoitering at the point where the Greek-Serbian-Bulgarian frontiers meet, but the Allies repelling the Bulgarians.

German sources admit the failure of the Turkish campaign in the Caucasus, says a Central News despatch from Amsterdam. There has been heavy fighting ten miles off Erzerum, where the Turks sent reinforcements from Trebizond, according to the despatch. The Turks are declared to have fought stubbornly but were compelled to retreat.

Eighty wounded Turkish officers and five thousand wounded men have arrived at Trebizond, the message adds.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS IN COMMONS

Sir Sam Hughes replies to many querries regarding Militia matters—Why La-vergne retains rank.

Ottawa, Feb. 3, via leased wire.— The reason why Col. Armand Lavergne is allowed to retain his rank in the active militia was furnished to Dr. Edwards, of Frontenac, in the House today by the Minister of Militia and Defence. A number of other questions bearing on militia matters were also asked and much information furnished in connection therewith.

The government's answer to the question whether Col. Lavergne still retained his rank was that such was the case, he being commander of the 61st Montmagny Regiment of Canadian militia. As to the question whether it intended to allow Col.
Lavergne to retain his rank, the following answer was given:

"The government's course in this matter is governed by the provisions of the Militia Act, the relevant section of which is as follows: The Army Act for the time being in force in the United Kingdom, the King's regulations and all other laws applicable to His Majesty's troops in Canada, and not inconsistent with this act or the regulations made thereunder, shall have force and effect, as if they had been enacted by the parliament of Canada for the government of the militia.

"Every officer and man of the militia shall be subject to such acts, regulations and laws.

"(a) From the time of being called out for active service.

"(B) During the period of annual drill or training under the provisions of this act.

"(C) At any time while upon military duty or in the uniform of his corps, or within any range or any armory or other place where arms, guns, ammunition or other military stores are kept, or, within any drill shed or other building or place for militia purposes.

"(D) During any drill or parade of his corps at which he is present in the ranks.

"(E) When going to or from the place of drill or parade.

"(F) At any drill or parade of his corps at which he is present as a spectator whether, in uniform or not.

"(G) Officers and men of the permanent forces and members of the permanent staff of the militia shall, at all times, be subject to military law."

Mr. J. H. Sinclair, of Guysboro, was informed that $1,661,273 had been received by the government from private sources for machine guns. A large number of such guns had been ordered and a considerable number—it was not considered advisable to state just how many—had been delivered. It was the government's intention to apply the money distributed for machine guns for the purpose intended.

Mr. Sinclair was also informed that letters from soldiers on active service, arriving in Canada free of postage had to be stamped by the Post Office Department before being forwarded to their destination, to comply with the international postal laws.

Sir Max Aitkins Giving Services Free.

Hon. Charles Murphy was told that Sir Max Aitken was acting as general representative for Canada at the front.
He received no remuneration for himself, and only travelling and office expenses for his staff.

That the British Remount Commission in Canada, which bought horses in this country up to November last, is not purchasing any at present was disappeared. Two or three applications will destroy every bit of dandruff; stop scalp itching and falling hair.

ment, however, is buying horses here for military purposes. There was no agreement on the subject, but both governments had been urged by the Canadian authorities to purchase horses as largely as possible in Canada, the prime minister having, in August last, secured arrangement by which the French government was permitted to purchase horses for military purposes here.

No Politics in Naming Munitions Inspectors.

Sir Sam Hughes informed Mr. E. M.
MacDonald that four inspectors of munitions had been appointed on militia contracts since the war began.
They had been appointed by the minister of militia, on the recommendation of the chief inspector of arms and ammunition, and had either some previous knowledge of the work, or were mechanical engineers. No appointments had ever been made on the recommendation of the person having the political patronage in the district where the inspector was employed, and in all cases he had been selected for technical qualifications only."

Hon. Frank Oliver was assured that all infantry battalions of the Canadian expeditionary forces in France or Flanders were fully supplied with travelling field kitchens.

The minister of militia told Mr.
Edmond Proulx that Major-General Lessard, inspector-general of Eastern Canada, of whose services the minister was availing himself in conjunction with overseas expeditionary forces was going to Europe for purposes of instruction.

A statement as to the procedure followed in obtaining supplies for the troops at local headquarters was furnished by General Sir Sam Hughes to Mr. Hughes, of Kings. It was stated that where time permitted tenders were usually called by public advertisement, if the time were too short a circular letter or telegram from Ottawa was addressed to dealers whose names were furnished by the war purchasing commission. In some cases where urgency was necessary the officer commanding the district was ordered to procure tenders, transmitting them to Ottawa for approval. The lowest tenders were in all cases accepted.

A press statement that Canadian soldiers were to be paid by check in future, to avoid paymasters charging up a higher rate of subsistence allowance than was received by the men, was stated by the minister of militia to be greatly exaggerated.

He said there had been no loss to the department or the public, as all cases of such nature were adjusted and refunds made. In no case had fraud been proven. In every case where subsistence had been charged at a lower amount than allowed by the regulations the differences had been absorbed and accredited to regimental funds. In no case was the money appropriated to personal use.
The statement that payment was to be made by check was, however, correct.

Hon. Chas. Murphy was informed by Hon. J. D. Hazen that upon the purchase of Canada's two submarines torpedoes they were immediately shipped from Halifax and were received and installed on August 14, 1914.
Torpedo equipment on the boats had been installed by the builders, and the cost included in the price paid for the boats. It was not known by whom the equipment was supplied.

Mr. Copp, of Westmorland, who inquired as to purchase of contracts entered into by the Agricultural Department, acting as agents for the British government in the purchase of hay in Nova Scotia, was informed that it was considered undesirable in the public interest to give information on such matters at the present time.

STEAMER FLYING ITALIAN FLAG WAR PRIZE OF ENEMY

Was formerly North German Lloyd Liner cap-tured by British — Had 300 Serbian Refugees aboard.

Berlin, Feb. 3, via wireless to Say-ville—The steamer Koenig Albert, flying the Italian flag, and with 300 Serbian refugees on board, has been captured by Austrian aircraft in the Adriatic, it was announced today by the Overseas News Agency.

The agency's announcement says:
"An Austro-Hungarian submarine stopped the former North-German Lloyd steamer Koenig Albert in the Adriatic. The steamer had been captured by the British at the beginning of the war, and afterwards put at the disposal of the Italians.

"The steamer, which flew the Italian flag, carried 300 Serbian refugees. The submarine, after stopping the steamer, called a destroyer which towed the prize to Bocche Di Cattaro, Albania."

The Koenig Albert has not figured despatches since early in the war, the last available record of her being under a London date on August 8, 1914, embodying a report from Milan that the Italian authorities at Genoa seized the Koenig Albert, together with the Moltke, of the Hamburg-American line, the action being taken, it was stated, when the captain demanded a supply

COLLIER SUNK BY ZEPP WHICH RAIDED ENGLAND

Thirteen of crew lost lives —Cold blooded murder— Vessel was riding at an-chor when bombed.

London, Feb. 3.—The collier Frans Fischer, which left Hartlepool Monday afternoon, was sunk at sea by one of the raiding Zeppelins which visited England. Thirteen of the crew, including the captain, were drowned.

Three men were saved, Chief Engineer Birch, Steward Taylor and Charles Hillier. The Frans Fischer was a captured enemy vessel, employed as a coasting collier.

Hillier, who was a native of Newfoundland, described the disaster as follows:

"About 10.30 o'clock Tuesday night we heard a noise overhead, such as we had never heard before. Presently a Zeppelin came right on top of us and dropped a bomb which fell near the engine room. A tremendous explosion followed, the vessel remaining afloat only two minutes.

"There was no time to launch life-boats. We all went under with the ship. When I came up again I caught hold of a lifebelt. After swimming for some time I came across the chief engineer and the steward, who had also managed to get hold of lifebelts. By their aid we kept afloat for an hour.

"It was pitiful to hear the cries of some of the other men, who had come to the surface after the disappearance of the vessel, but soon their cries ceased and we concluded all were drowned. Meanwhile we shouted for help. When we were almost exhausted, a Belgian steamer heard us, lowered a boat and picked us up. Subsequently we were transferred to a mine sweeper and landed."

Asked how the Zeppelin managed to locate the vessel in the dark, Hillier said the collier was riding at anchor, and her anchor lights must have been seen by the men in the Zeppelin.
As the vessel was stationary it was easy to drop a bomb on her.

ECLIPSE IN FRANCE.

Paris, Feb. 3.—The Paris observatory reports that the eclipse of the sun took place at 4.33 p. m. or fifteen minutes before sunset. The sun was too close to the horizon for any observations to be made. It also was shrouded in a mist.

A Certified Cure Of Bilious Headache

Chronic Liver Trouble Was Entirely Cured by the Use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills—En-dorsement by Justice of the Peace.

Many people are habitually bilious Mode of life tends to make car mic a torpid condition of the liver. The result is spells of biliousness with sick headache, stomach derangements and much irritability and depression of spirits.

Too many neglect to take active means of curing biliousness. The bad spells passes over and for a time they are all right. But an unusually hearty menu upsets the liver and consequently the usual discomfort and suffering.

The writer of this letter has broken up this habit of biliousness and is now enjoying the best of health. Her experience should prove of value to many who, like her, have suffered for years from bilious spells and sick headaches

Miss Cora Cochran, Salisbury, N. B., writes:—"I was nearly always troubled with headache, and every two or three weeks would have to lose a day or two from school with bilious sick headache. I have taken doctor's medicine and other preparations which did little good.

"When I had the sick headache I would vomit a lot and could keep nothing on my stomach. My mother got Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and I was soon improved, and continued the treatment until entirely cured. My condition generally was greatly benefited, and I am now in the best of health."

Mr. J. J. Keohan, J. P., writes:— "This is to certify that I am personally acquainted with Miss Cora Cochran and believe her statement in regard to Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills to be true and correct."

Keep the liver active by the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills and you will prevent a multitude of petty
