THE MURDER OF MRS. SMITH
by THE LITTLE MAG

1. WE'RE GOING TO A WEEK-LONG PARTY AT MRS. SMITH'S HOUSE - TRY TO ACT LIKE A GENTLE MAN -
YOU SAID IT WHEN YOU CALLED IT - A WEEK END -

2. SO GLAD YOU CAME - WELL ALL GO TO CHURCH IN THE MORNING!
YA-AS - I'LL TAKE YOU TO THE CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL IN THE AFTERNOON -
I'VE GOT FINE PROSPECTS -

3. REMEMBER - GET UP EARLY FOR CHURCH - DON'T KEEP THEM WAITING - I'LL TAKE YOUR CLOTHES SO YOU CAN'T GET AWAY -
WOULD YOUSE MIND LEAVIN' ME SOME MATCHES?

4. NO WONDER THIS TOWN HAS SUCH A LARGE CEMETERY!

5. SAY - DINTY - COME OVER IN A MACHINE AND BRING ME SOME CLOTHES - I MUST GIT OUT OF HERE -

6. HERE COMES SOME ONE - I'LL HIDE UNDER THE TABLE -

7. HELLO - JONES - MEET US IN THE GARAGE - WE'RE GOING TO HAVE A LITTLE GAME - DON'T LET ANYONE SEE YOU -

8. SOME ONE IS COMING - I MUST GET OUT OF HERE - BY GOLLY - HE NEARLY STEPPED ON ME HAND -

9. HELLO - JIM - COME ON OVER AND BRING LIZZIE - WE'RE GOING TO HAVE A DANCE IN THE CELLAR - THE HIGH-BROWS HAVE GONE TO BED -
THIS ISN'T A BAD PLACE AFTER ALL -

10. SAY DINTY - NEVER MIND COMIN' OVER - I'M GOIN' TO STAY HERE -

11. LET ME IN - I'M MR. JIGGS - I WANNA GIT IN THE GAME -
OH! HELLO - YOU LOOK LIKE A REGULAR FELLOW - COME RIGHT IN -

Dempsie, the new sensation, is a sure-thing in just the same battered box of Fulton's tactics, but among the great he other days he would have been a sure-thing, but among the present rules he stands alone. He has no sense, and he has about with Fulton was no few rounds, for then he demonstrated a more important quality than strength. There is something still about Dempsie a Ketchel and Terry McDaniel, and he has the stories of those two westerns. Dempsie has been them. Perhaps he is not a good fighter, but he has approach to them that has happened since their day. Dempsie figured to become a champion, but he said he is primarily a fighter, and he has a national merit, but straight tactics are his forte. He has a good sense of ton his toughest battles, against a man who ended him. Fulton invariably may have been tried a crashing attack to was suffered.

Hoamer, now hailed at race-horse in training was lucky by Woodford Clay. The year-old he didn't amount was reportedly beaten by him in 1915. He told him that he sold the H. Andrew Miller for $2.50, a sale probably was the grover made by the astute horseman. Brought to him by the owner of the stallion since trained by Jack Goss he won more than $120,000 and purses.

As a three-year-old he won several times his purchases and he was a great horse that he reached the zenith of his career. In that the undisputed king of the won classic after classic season landed as one of the great horses that ever American turf.

In 1915 he came back strong, if not stronger, and again ran on with the crowd in 1916. He ran brilliantly, and has made return to the track this
