Entertainment Was Greatly Enjoyed

C. G. I. T. Girls of Main St. Baptist Church Presented Pageant, "Every Girl" to Large Audience.

The C. G. I. T. girls of the Main street Baptist Church gave a very successful entertainment last evening, presenting the pageant "Every Girl" before an audience which taxed the capacity of the vestry.

The camp scene, showing the girls at play, was especially good. The evening singing around the fire before retiring made a big hit.

The character of the story, however, is of paramount importance to the prospective customers. In this respect, Mr. Creary makes a clean-cut declaration of policy, which carries with it the assurance that men and women who buy at Creary's will be well satisfied with the transactions in which they take part.

His widow, Charlotte D., was sworn as executor of the last will of Wm. J. Macdonald, worth $600 and personalty $2,500. Dr. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., was proctor.

His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor and Mrs. Pugsley, accompanied by Lieut.-Colonel Alex. McMillan, J. E. G. A. D. C., will leave on Monday for Ottawa to attend the opening of the Federal Parliament.

CREARY'S

Is a Specialty Shop for Men, and Women Who Shop for Men.

After a week's bustling activity in installing new fixtures, unpacking innumerable cases, pricing and arranging suits, overcoats, hats, shirts, ties, and the multitude of articles which with "mere man" suits himself, George T. Creary, this morning, opens his new men's store at 87 Charlotte street.

The character of the store, however, is of paramount importance to the prospective customers. In this respect, Mr. Creary makes a clean-cut declaration of policy, which carries with it the assurance that men and women who buy at Creary's will be well satisfied with the transactions in which they take part.
