We are pleased to learn that David Dowley, the champion auctioneer of Frontville, is rapidly recovering from his recent severe sickness.

Ross and Earl expect to employ about a dozen hands and several teams at their brick yard this summer. They have the contract to supply the brick for the House of Industry.

Correspondence will be accepted from readers of the Reporter provided they send us their names as a guarantee of the genuineness of the article. Anonymous correspondence will be consigned to the waste basket.

Business at Hickey's Colliers is booming this spring. The Hickey Fire Brick and Roof Tiles Manufacturing Co., which has been shut down during the winter, will re-open in a few days with a full staff of hands. Young's blacksmith and repair shop have their hands busily employed.
W. E. Brown has opened up a general paint shop over Young's shop, the Marble Works of A. E. McLean are getting in shape to turn out a large amount of work. The bakery of P. P. Slack is working day and night to keep up the supply of "The Staff of Life" for the citizens, and the grocery stores of John A. Rappell, T. W. Earl and P. P. Slack are each doing a fair share of trade. The corners and suburbs are lighted with four large tubular street lamps and all they need is the way of local improvements it is a large task on the corner for fire protection. This we hope to report to be well under way in a short time.

South Leads Return Convention.

The Liberals of South Leads met in convention at Delta on Tuesday last for the purpose of electing officers for the Reform association and deciding as to the advisability of putting a candidate in the field for the coming Dominion election. Owing to the announcement made a few days before that there would be another session before a general election, many thought it was not wise to move in the matter of selecting a candidate at present, consequently the attendance was not as large as it would have been. However, every municipality was represented and Gananogue and Front of Yonge and Escott had their full quotas of delegates. Supt. Mooney of the B. & W. kindly placed a special train at the service of the delegates, which was very highly appreciated. On an assembling in the town hall, President O. D. Cowan of Gananogue took the chair, the Secretary, Wm. P. Dalry, reported, also being present. The first item on the order of business was the opening of the meeting, which was done by a reading of the address of the late Liberal of South Leads to the present juncture in the affairs of the Dominion. He was glad, too, that for the first time in his life he had made an all rail trip to Delta and felt better after the trip than he would have been driven the distance as in former years.

The first business of the convention, the election of officers, was then proceeded with. Messrs. W. G. Pugh and M. A. Everts were appointed tellers and the list of delegates was read by the secretary, O. D. Cowan. Dr. Bowen and Rich. G. Murphy were nominated for the office of president. Mr. Murphy declined and a ballot resulted in Mr. Cowan being elected. Rich. G. Murphy was elected vice-president and W. P. Daley, secretary.

W. J. Webster moved that the President, Vice President and Secretary now appointed to the executive committee and that each municipality appoint its own President, Secretary and Treasurer. Considerable discussion followed and it was finally decided to appoint delegates for the different municipalities at once.

The following were the appointments for vice president:

Athens, I. C. Algimer.
Bastard & Burgess, T. K. Scovill.
North Crosby, H. W. Lockwood.
Yonge & Escott (front) D. S. Malory.
Kearney, Dr. Bowen.
Rear Leads & Lansdowne (west) W. J. Burns.
Rear Leads & Lansdowne (east) Ed Johnston.
Newboro, J. A. Shaver.
Crosby (south) Chas. E. Johnston.
Mr. Connelly moved, seconded by W. J. Webster, that the Executive of this association be requested to visit each municipality as soon as convenient and organize a Liberal club in each.

The next business in order was the selection of a candidate for the Dominion election.
Dr. Lane, that we proceed to nominate a candidate for this riding in the approaching election.
Mr. Connelly said he was in favor of moving cautiously in this matter. He was sorry that there was not a larger delegation present from the different municipalities. There was a man already in the field, whose platform was nearly identical with that of the Liberal party and we should weigh this matter over carefully and decide whether it was best under the circumstances to place a Liberal candidate in the field or not. It was better to accept a half loaf than to run the chance of getting no loaf.

John K. Thompson was in favor of putting a man in the field.
Jas. Judd strongly favored putting a candidate in the field at once.
Chas. E. Britton also favored putting a candidate before the electors at once and while he had no aspirations as a candidate he would consent the riding himself rather than allow the election to go by default.

M. A. Everts did not agree with some of the speakers as he could not see why the Liberals should favor the Patrons. They had nothing in common with the Liberal party who they thought they could gain an advantage for themselves.
W. H. Freudenburgh asked the convention to consider whether it was best to remain neutral and allow Geo. Taylor to beat the Patron candidate, who had only a following of less than 800 Patrons or run a straight Liberal who was certain of at least 2000 Reform votes.

Arch. James had no sympathy with the Patrons, as they had no guarantee that they would do more for the Liberal than Conservative party, if elected.

The motion to place a candidate in the field was then voted upon and carried unanimously.
T. K. Scovill, seconded by Jas. Judd, nominated W. H. Freudenburgh as the Liberal candidate. There being no other candidate nominated, Mr. Freudenburgh was declared the candidate by a rising vote, which was unanimous.

Mr. Freudenburgh on rising to respond was received with cheers. He said he accepted the nomination on condition that his private affairs would allow him to enter the contest. He had been often defeated but never discouraged and he felt at this time that all things considered the chance of redeeming South Leads was never better. There was a feeling of unrest among the large number of Conservatives who felt the tide seemed to be turning in favor of a change from the present middle at Ottawa. Personally he would have preferred that the selection of a candidate had been deferred until after the session but he accepted the will of the delegates and would work for the party as best he could. He thanked the Liberal party for the confidence heretofore reposed in him and expected that all would work energetically to secure his election.

Mr. Judd then moved the following resolution, seconded by Dr. Lane, that this convention, looking towards the cohesion of the Reform party in this county and in view of the dissemination of political truth and the intellectual development of younger members of society coming within the arena of political activity, deem it advisable that annual political demonstrations be held in this county, where the leaders of the Reform party may be invited and advanced political thought be more firmly impressed, and that the first of such demonstrations be held in or near the village of Delta on May 24th inst., and that the Hon. Wilfred Laurier and Hon. G. W. Ross be invited to attend the same, and for such purposes proper committees be now formed and arrangements made.— Carried.

We regret to hear of the serious illness of Mr. Ed. T. Tennant.

Quite a number of the Athens cheese makers have left for their respective fields of labor.

We understand that O. Clarendon Brock, contractors for carrying the mails between Brockville and Westport, will put on a new wagon drawn by two horses between Brockville and Delta. The new express goods carried by the B. & W. stage wagon are a fine one for horse to handle and as the business is increasing the placing of a double rig on the route has become a necessity.

His charges will be found very reasonable and as he has had the very best of success in carrying out his business he can safely guarantee prompt returns of all business entrusted to him.

A False Report.
Last week we republished a paragraph from the Newboro Standard stating that Mr. Albert Brown, of Philadelphia, had departed this life. We are pleased to say that the report started by the Standard is altogether untrue. Mr. Brown is enjoying his usual health and has not the faintest notion of saying farewell to this sublunary sphere.

To All Whom It May Concern.
One of the consequences of the general depression in all kinds of business in this village and locality is, that the Reporter will be compelled to reduce from the grandly philanthropic position it has hitherto held. It has advertised and pulled everything going on in the village and surrounding country, it has contributed its wealth to publish everything from a church organ to a second hand organ and melodeon for a cent each.
