V. Be it further enacted, that whoever shall quarrel or insult by abusive words, or otherwise, an Officer or Serjeant, being in the execution of his office, shall suffer punishment according to the nature of the offence, by sentence of the board of Field Officers, not exceeding however a fine of forty shillings and fifteen days imprisonment.

VI. Be it also enacted, that the Serjeants of the Towns, Suburbs, and Precincts, shall not be compelled to serve in the offices of Jurors or Constables, as long as they continue to be Serjeants.

VII. Be it also enacted by the same authority, that it shall be lawful for the Governor or Commander in Chief for the time being to make from time to time, and issue under his hand, such regulations as he shall think necessary for the better discipline of the Militia. Provided nevertheless that the offenders against such Regulations shall not be liable to a higher fine than that of forty shillings, and to an Imprisonment of more than eight days.

VIII. And be it also enacted by the same authority, that in the Regulations so to be issued for the better discipline of the Militia, either of the fines and penalties in the said Act mentioned, may be lessened as the Governor, or Commander in Chief for the time being, shall in his discretion be pleased to ordain in manner aforesaid, and that in all levies of the same by Warrant of distress or otherwise, the cost and charges attending the levy, shall be also recoverable. Provided always that such costs do not altogether exceed the sum of five shillings, with a mileage fee in addition thereto of one shilling for every league in the services, to be computed from the place of the receipt of the Warrant to the place of the execution thereof, and in that proportion for a smaller distance.
