

P

10. Bills originating in Commons—based on a Petition not already reported on, are taken into consideration and reported upon after the first reading by the Committee on Standing Orders, 56.

Prorogation of Parliament—Tickets of admission are required at the, 2.

Protests—must be entered and signed in the Clerk's Book, with or without reasons, before the rising of the Senate, at the next sitting, 34. They are subject to the control of the Senate, 35. Absent Senators are not allowed to protest, 35.

Q

Quarrels—The Senate interferes in quarrels between Senators, 28.

Questions—A Senator must speak to the question, 21. And only once, except in explanation or reply, or in Committee of the Whole, 22. May require the question to be read, 23. Not allowed to speak after the question has been entirely put, 33. What motions are received when a question is under debate, 24.

Quorum—consists of fifteen Senators, including the Speaker, 5. The Speaker adjourns for want of a quorum thirty minutes after the time of meeting, 5. The names of the Senators present are to be taken down, 5. And Senators in the adjoining rooms are summoned, 6.

R

Reconsideration of a Clause—allowed at any time before the passing of a Bill, 44.

Reply in Debate—allowed to a Senator who has made a substantive motion, 22.

Reports—by Select Committees, 96, 97. On Private Bills—See Private Bills.

Royal Instructions—to be printed with the Rules, 111.