Applewood no angels in win

Applewood Angels were no angels as far as White Rose Nurseries were concerned. Angels walloped White Rose 22-6 in Applewood South Girls Softball Association play.

Maryanne Giancoulas was deadly at bat, connecting for four homers. Her teammates, Jill Natuck and Christine Pollitt each accounted for a homer.

Natuck also pitched four innings before she was relieved by Giancoulas. Cherrie McDonald registered a homer and was outstanding at shortstop. Anne Hudson hit a triple and Laurie Coughlin had two hits for Hair Lovers.

In a real barnburner, Brazeau Transport nipped Fraser Upholtery 7-6.

Kathy Brown went the distance for the win.

Cheryl Clark and Laurie Hall each pitched three innings for Fraser. Karen Dynama and Wendy Well connected for triples.

Susan Richards had an unassisted double play for White Rose, while Alanna Barkley, Heather Mauvins and Diane Harvey each had two hits.

Fraser Upholtery defeated Brazeau Transport 18-13 in their contest.

Laurie Hall, Cheryl Clark and Karen Dynan shared pitching duties, while Judy Fraser connected for a triple and Susanna Romaniuk played outstandingly at the plate.

Kathy Brown pitched five innings for the losers and her teammate, Shannon Tonkin, registered a double.

Despite Colleen McDonald's all-round playing efforts, Hair Lovers were defeated 19-14 by Camilla Community School.

Pacing Camilla to the win was Kathryn O'Hara who played a standout game as catcher and who stole home twice and connected for several key hits. Jo-Anne Hirkley walloped a homer.
