

GENERAL ELECTION OF 1917
32315 - NORTH YORK ✓

Newmarket, December 12, 1917.

Mr. Duncan McCallum,
R. M. D.,
Lloydton, Ont.

Dear Mr. McCallum:

I was sorry not to have a chance to see you and your wife and daughters while in the vicinity of Lloydton, to urge upon you all to make sure that both Mrs. McCallum and your daughters would be out to vote on Monday. As you will remember the day I was in Schomberg was pretty stormy, and I was prevented from making a number of calls on account of being short in my time. This note is just to explain why I did not call, and to thank you in advance for the support which I know I will receive from you and from your family on Monday.

With kind regards, Believe me,

Yours sincerely,

W. L. MACKENZIE KING
