Ottawa, 14th October, 1905.

I have the honour to enclose herewith for taxation Mr Louis F. Heyd's account amounting to $1,059.48 for professional services rendered in connection with the case of the King versus Joseph Bennett.

I think it well also to send you a copy of Mr Heyd's letter of the 11th instant, in respect to this case. You will observe that he says - "I certainly recommend that further steps be taken on behalf of the accused for either a new trial or to have sentence commuted." I shall be glad to have your opinion in the matter.

Your obedient servant.

L. Stewart
