Sir,-

I beg to advise you that Mr. Inspector McGibbon, who investigated the claim of Thomas Queenie to fifteen acres now occupied by Samuel Taylor which he acquired in pursuance of a conveyance from the late Mary Queenie, has forwarded to the Department the evidence taken in this matter and finds that the said conveyance to Samuel Taylor should be upheld. The Department concurs in this view and you will be good enough to advise the parties accordingly.

Your obedient servant,

L. M. Lean
