

ARTICLE V

Subsidiary arrangements concluded in accordance with Article III of this Agreement shall, unless the text thereof expressly states the contrary, be considered to be administrative arrangements only and not formal agreements binding in international law. Differences or disputes arising in the implementation of such arrangements or the interpretation of the provisions of the memoranda embodying them shall be settled by negotiation between the two Governments or in such other manner as may be agreed upon from time to time by the two Governments.

ARTICLE VI

The present Agreement may be amended by agreement of the Contracting Parties, through an Exchange of Notes.

ARTICLE VII

This Agreement shall enter into force on the date of its signature: it shall remain in force for five years and shall continue in force for further periods of five years unless one of the Contracting Parties gives written notice of termination at least six months prior to the end of any such five-year period.
