PERSONAL TASTES AND CHARACTERISTICS 269

CAIRNS AND OTHER MEMORIALS.

esteem for John Brown by directing that the rooms which he used at Windsor Castle are to be kept sacred to his memory. Her Majesty has a great objection to embalming, and has prohibited it with regard to royal persons, unless the circumstances are very exceptional. After the sad death of the

A

Majesty ic joys servance has a iative of of her consort's ence. y dwelt vn up a f royal cted to family, nembers by one ge died d be in red few left uth and sty was buried l as to leceased locked e been years. ne, and re, also special

v