

CONSECRATION SERVICE.

This is the generation of | them that | seek Him : even of them that | seek thy | face O | Jacob.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye ever |
lasting | doors; and the King of | Glory | shall come | in.

Who is the | King of | Glory? It is the Lord strong and mighty, even the | Lord | mighty in | battle.

Lift up your heads, O ye gates, and be ye lift up, ye ever- |
lasting doors; and the King of | Glory | shall come | in.

*Who is the | King of | Glory? Even the Lord of Hosts, |
He is the | King of | Glory.*

Glory be to the Father, and | to the | Son, and | to the |
Holy | Ghost;

*As it was in the beginning, is now, and | ever | shall be,
world | without | end. A | men.*

The Bishop, standing on the North side of the Holy Table and turning to the Congregation, will say:

EARLY BELOVED in the Lord, Forasmuch as devout and holy men, as well under the Law as under the Gospel, moved either by the secret interpretation of the blessed Spirit, or by express command of God, or by their own reason and sense of the naturall decency of things, have erected houses for the publick worship of God, and have separated them from all profane and common uses, in order to fill men's minds with greater reverence for His glorious Majesty, and affect their hearts with more devotion and humility in His service; which pious works our heavenly Father hath vouchsafed to approve and accept; let us not doubt but he will also graciously approve this our godly purpose of setting apart this place in solemn manner to religious worship, and let us faithfully and devoutly beg His blessing on this undertaking, and say,

Then (all kneeling) the Bishop will say the Prayer following.

O ETERNAL GOD, mighty in power, of majesty incomprehensible, whom the heaven of heavens cannot contain, much less the walls of temples made with hands, and who yet has been graciously pleased to promise thy especial presence in whatsoever place even two or three of thy faithful
