

We speak for those who cannot speak for themselves.

THE CHECK-REIN.

Reasons Why it Should be Abolished.

The Humane Society earnestly hopes that each person in Toronto will consider it his or her duty to promptly report cases of cruelty to children and animals. Communications are kept strictly private and confidential when secrecy is enjoined, but correspondents are particularly desired to give their names, as neglect of this caution sometimes prevents proper investigation of complaints.

THE TORONTO HUMANE SOCIETY,

103 BAY STREET, TORONTO,

In the hope of influencing drivers and owners of horses against this cruel custom.
