

THE line also passes through the Algonquin National Park, a reserve of over 2,000 square miles.

From 90° to 94° long, the entire line would be water, and it is estimated there are about 1,000 lakes within its boundaries.