

others keep them in pickle all their lives. These women serve them with tongue sauce.

Now it is not to be supposed that husbands will be tender and good if treated in this way, but they are, on the contrary, very delicious when managed as follows: Get a large jar, called the jar of carefulness, place your husband in it, and put him near the fire of conjugal love; let the fire be pretty hot, especially let it be clear; above all, let the heat be constant. Cover him with affections, garnish him with the spices of pleasantry, and if you add kisses and other confections, let them be accompanied with sufficient portion of secrecy, mixed with prudence and moderation."
