

THINGS TO FORGET

"I said in a previous speech that I would be glad to forget something."—Hon. G. W. Ross, in his speech at the Temple Building, Toronto, on Dec. 30th, 1904.

"Public responsibility is not new to me. As County Councillor, Member of the Legislature and Justice of the Peace I have enjoyed the Public for many years. I have reluctantly come to the conclusion that public honor in Canada has steadily declined."—Police Magistrate Wood, at Belleville, Dec. 9th, 1904.

"That the declared number of votes for Mr. McNish largely exceeded the number of bona fide votes cast for him."—Confession signed by D. Macneish at the trial in St. Thomas, in June, 1899, and put in by Mr. Aylesworth.

"Here is Mr. Jackson, a lawyer, an Ingersoll, who has associated with men of the lowest possible character. It is evident he must have desired evidence to be made to procure the proving of the charges in this petition. There is no doubt of it. Nothing was ever heard in my experience before like it. It is impossible to trace out all these underground influences."—Mr. Justice Street at the trial in South Oxford, 1902.

"The matter is important, the charges serious, and the evidence all one way, that is to say, there is no contradiction. There was no regard to the law in a cluster of offences included in that company. We find the active members of the party, or those in responsible positions, or who had influence to bring about results, all active. McClurg is the officer who is employed, Sutherland is with him. Sutherland and McClurg both go after midnight or about 2 p.m., to Curie's house, where he is in bed. Sutherland, who was the general of the whole campaign, and the chief officer in charge."—The Chancellor, at the trial at Sault Ste. Marie, on the Minnie M. charges.

"Instead of taking legal voters, Kennedy chose to collect together a lot of rascals who were prepared to commit this crime. I think the conclusion is irresistible that Kennedy was in charge of these men with the knowledge and authority of Sutherland, and that the knowledge and authority of Sutherland was such as to make the respondent responsible for what was done under the authority and by the connivance and direction of Kennedy."—Mr. Justice Teetzel, at the trial at Sault Ste. Marie, on the Minnie M. charges.

"We find the case involved in the Minnie M. charges to be proven, and we find agency proven through Sutherland, Coyne, Ferguson or Kennedy and Galvin."—The Chancellor, at the trial at Sault Ste. Marie.

"Definitely and positively, I will not be the candidate. I couldn't if I would and I wouldn't if I could. What use would it be to me to go down to the Legislature and sit on some back bench in opposition? And what use would it be to my constituents to have me there? I think the Ross Government is a goner. They have been there altogether too long. The whole thing is corrupt and rotten and I believe they should be turned out. No I tell you honestly, I wouldn't be their candidate if I could."—Mr. McCoig, Liberal candidate for West Kent.

A CHURCHMAN'S VIEW

The Parliament of Ontario has been dissolved, and an appeal made to the electors to ascertain their will in regard to the government of that Province for the next five years. The conditions that have necessitated this appeal are as grave as any that could possibly confront a free people. A party has been in power for upwards of thirty years without interruption, and its desire for a further lease of life seems to border on a passion. For several years the most serious charges have been brought against the administration of provincial affairs, and if official judgments have not always been secured in support of these charges the nature of the evidence has been perfectly conclusive to the lay mind that all has not been right. Let us recall a few instances. The member elect for South Oxford is to be unseated at all costs. A man enters into negotiations with the friends of the member-elect to secure evidence, "true or false, it matters not," as he cynically declares. A band of criminals is lined up in court to support the charges preferred, but the attempt fails. The judge upon the bench declares the conspiracy to be one of the most disgraceful in history. The man responsible for this perfidy is a government agent in England to-day.

Again a charge is made against Government supporters that the will of a free people is being thwarted by the use of ballot boxes specially constructed for the purpose. The charge is, of course, denied with vehement indignation. In a few days, however, the most marvellous revelations are made. Among other things, those implicated state that these boxes were sent to the bottom of a certain lake, and a search party goes straight to the spot and finds the incriminating articles. There are the very instruments of crime before our eyes. These are samples of the methods that are found to prevail in the old Province of Ontario; a Province occupied in the early days by gallant United Empire Loyalists, a Province of churches and schools, a Province of such vaunted material and intellectual progress. It is surely a time for men to do some serious thinking.

What a spectacle to find men who have been in the seats of authority for a third of a century, who have had the appointment of every provincial affair during these long years, who have command of the machinery of justice in their fingers, proclaiming their helplessness in the face of a crisis, the gravity of which probably cannot be duplicated anywhere else in the world! Spectator has absolutely no interest, direct or indirect, in either party in Ontario, except that of a citizen of Canada who desires to see a higher conception of public duty prevail. He is much mistaken if one elector in five hundred, who will record their votes in this election, has any favors to ask

HIS DIABETES IS ALL GONE NOW

Donat Lafamme Found a Cure in Dodd's Kidney Pills.

They Always Cure all Forms of Kidney Disease from Backache to Bright's Disease.

Sto. Marguerite, Dorchester County, Que., Jan. 15.—(Special).—That the most serious forms of Kidney Disease cannot stand before Dodd's Kidney Pills is being daily proved in Quebec, and one of the most convincing proofs is given right here in Sto. Marguerite. Donat Lafamme, whom everybody knows had Diabetes. This is one of the extreme stages of Kidney Disease and it baffles ordinary medical skill. Consequently it is not surprising that the doctor who attended Donat Lafamme could not help him. But let Mr. Lafamme tell the most wonderful part of his story himself.

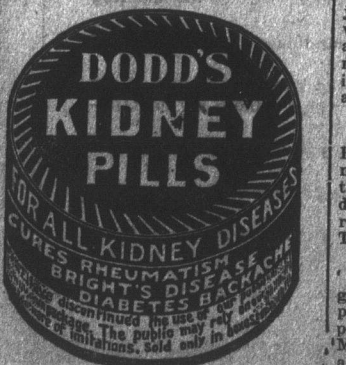

"Two boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills cured me," he says. "My Diabetes is all gone and I recommend Dodd's Kidney Pills to all my friends and to all those who suffer."

Dodd's Kidney Pills cure all Kidney Disease from Backache to Bright's Disease.

"BURNED" BY COLD.

Intense cold, as is well known, burns if we may use the term—like heat. If a "drop" of air at a temperature of 180 degrees below zero were placed upon the hand it would have the same effect as would the same quantity of molten steel or lead. Everyone who has the care of horses ought to know the pain inflicted by placing a frosted bit in a horse's mouth. It burns like hot iron.

When a man is short he sometimes does some tall thinking.

NO SUBSTITUTE

has yet been found for cod liver oil. There are so-called extracts, wines and cordials of cod liver oil that are said to contain the active principles but not the oil itself. This is absurd on its face. You might as well extract the active principles of wheat and make bread with them. The best form of cod liver oil, that can be digested and assimilated most easily, is Scott's Emulsion.

We'll send you a sample free. SCOTT & BOWNE, Chemists, Toronto, Ont.

SATCHEL OF THE SATELLITE

And Ned Clarke is coming. Well, I just reckon that I'll hear Ned Clarke.

"Vote for James Clancy," says the organette. Of course we will.

You saw the reception that Mr. Clancy got up at the B. M. E. Hall.

A vote for Clancy means that West Kent will have a representative in the Government.

Ten years for burglary is enough perhaps to deter ordinary criminals from visiting this city.

The Library Board is in the peculiar position of having a real and an imitation chairman.

It was actually cruel of that smart Alec young newsboy to get his gags off on the poor little Newsievitich.

We've waited a long time for a chance to govern Ontario, but everything comes to him who waits.

No, honestly I didn't expect the B. Mistake to be able to distinguish between a quack "ad" and an editorial.

The Banner is brazenly maligning the reputation of citizens because they don't care what happens. They have nothing at all.

Now if the B. Mistake were to say anything about the London Free Press I would remark that the Grits had come to the rescue.

Electing J. W. Humphrey chairman was as bad as making E. E. Parrott believe that he was going to get the nomination for East Kent.

Naughty, naughty newsboy! It isn't clever to stuff the poor little Newsievitich. It's too easy altogether. It's imposing on innocence.

These days I don't notice the B. Mistake having anything to say about that splendid Tory paper, the London Free Press. (Banner please copy)

Whom the gods wish to destroy they first make mad. You perhaps have noticed the madness of the B. Mistake during the past few days.

"Down with the party which has nothing but insults to offer," yells the organette. I rather fancied it was going to knife itself and its few friends before the campaign ended.

Hugh Blain's "ad." in the Mail and Empire that so excited the poor Newsievitich, was after all just another of those weak men advertisements so frequent in the papers.

And to think that the naughty newsboy sprang his yarns about the Mail-Empire and The Planet when all the time it was the London Free Press that the poor Banner publisher was so worried over.

There are about twelve hundred and twenty-five good, sound, hundred-cents-a-dollar reasons why the Newsievitich shouldn't be imposed on or taken too seriously these sad, sad days.

Some Roosters haven't sufficient intelligence to distinguish between a good sound political opinion of an up-to-date party organ like the Mail and Empire and a quack advertisement.

And then for that naughty newsboy to get out and brag about stuffing the poor worried Newsievitich publisher. He ought to be ashamed of himself.

Artemus Ward had to label his jokes so that the English people would understand them. The Mail and Empire has to label its "weak men advertisements" so that the Roosters can distinguish between an "ad" and an editorial.

It was all right for the Library Board to elect Mr. Humphrey chairman for the balance of the year if they wanted to, but they couldn't do so until Mr. Sheldrick had either resigned or been voted out of office.

This is the legal aspect of the case.

"Don't let a bunch of incompetents get hold of Ontario's magnificent surplus," says the popgun exponent of puppy dog politics. Messrs. Grahame, Mackay et al. to whom this remark alludes will not realize it when they discover how absolutely inconsequential the organette's "influence" is.

It's a darn shame, but I've been sealed with seven seals.

YOU BET.

"Remember always that the other fellows are working, too." The Organette. Better bet your money on that than on Archie.

TEN YEARS AT HARD LABOR.

"We have got to work, gentlemen," sighs the organette. He knows what will befall the corruptionists when Whitney wins.

SETTLED MONTHS AGO.

"Even the report of the Conservative organ of Mr. Whitney's speech contained no mention of Mr. Clancy as Cabinet Minister, you'll notice," grunts the popgun Newsievitich. If you'll only read the newspapers, little fellow, you'd have known that was all settled months ago. Try to be not more than a month behind.

THE MULE IS WAITING.

A very novel election bet took place one day recently which, if carried out on the evening of election day, should be a drawing card. The gentlemen making the bet are both prominent business men of the town who generally do as they agree and we certainly expect they will in this case. Loser of the bet is to ride Dan Gilbert's mule from the Molson's Bank to the market and return. No time limit has been imposed in the conditions. Performance takes place immediately after the returns are in for the county. His "muleship" has never been ridden—Highgate Monitor.

THE ILLS OF THE AGED

Mrs. Stacy, of Hamilton, tells how they may be lessened.

Mrs. Elizabeth Stacy, of 172 Hunter Street West, Hamilton, says:

"I was very much troubled with headache, dizziness and constipation. I am in my eighty-first year, and I grew worse and worse till I was weak and faint that I could hardly keep from falling.

"Since using Dr. Leonard's Anti-Pill I am very much better; in fact, I may say I am very well compared to what I was before using Anti-Pill.

"I am so thankful for the improvement at my advanced age that I think I should write and tell you about it. I will always recommend Dr. Leonard's Anti-Pill to any one suffering as I was."

Anti-Pill is positively the best medicine for aged men and women. All druggists sell Anti-Pill, 50c. for a month's treatment.
