CAINSVILLE.

A village and station of the Buffalo and Lake Huron Railway, situated on lot 2, South Hamilton Road, township of Brantford, three miles from Brantford. The village was laid out in 1847, by the Grand River Navigation Company, and the Post Office was established in 1854. There are two churches in the village, Episcopal, Rev. Wm. Clotworthy, and Wesleyan Methodist, Rev. George Cornish. The manufactories, consist of grist mills—a flax mill, paper mill, distillery, cheese factory and potashery.
