

From the Literature Department

44 Bloor St. West, (Side Entrance)

Hours 9.30-1 a.m., 2-5 p.m.

Telephone number N. 8577 E.

We hope with these lengthened hours for business that we are able to render better service, and assure you a welcome and our best endeavour whether you call by mail, by telephone or personally.

For Easter we have for Circles and Y. W.:

An Easter in Africa (story) 3c.

Easter message (3c).

For you and for many, (story) 2c.

Easter Tidings, (a pretty poem, prettily gotten up) 2c.

Go tell He is risen (story) 3c.—The five for 10c.

The Living Christ, (2c), is a beautiful responsive service (in scripture) texts classified, and with suitable hymns. Every Circle and Band will find this helpful.

The Challenge of the Cross (25c) is a beautiful and reverent call to service in the form of a drama.

The Master is Calling, (3c), is an exercise for Bands, over 8 characters required. Simple and effective.

Little Brown Bull, (1c), Typed exercise for 2 small children.

An Eastertide Evening, (5c). A programme for Bands.

The Voices of the Women, (15c). This pageant has been revised with an Easter touch added, and would make a splendid programme for this season. It requires 10 or more girls or women and about 30 or 35 minutes.

OUR LIFE MEMBERSHIP PINS—We now have both Circle and Band Life membership pins, (75c and 85c with 10c additional by mail). This would be a good way to honour a worthy member of your Band or Circle at this season.
