The death is announced of the Rev. Willial Russell, the most aged clergyman in the diocese of London, although there is one who, two or three years younger, was ordained before him. Mr. Russell was educated at Clare College, Cambridge, where he took his B.A. degree in 1814, when he was seventh junior optime in the mathematical tripos. Having received ordination from Dr. Brownlow North, Bishop of Winchester, he was presented in 1817 to the family living of Shepperton, near Chertsey, which he held until the time of his death, a period of 53 years. This living, which is worth about £500. a year, appears by the Clergy List to have passed into the patronage of the Rev. Those who are interested in the progress of the work, whether members of the English church or of other societies, will be glad to learn that the health of the venerable chairman is so far restored as to give ground for hoping that he will be able to exercise an active and watchful superintendence throughout its furthur progress. > -An interesting incident is related in connexion with the Archbishop of Canterbury's ordination at Croydon. Two of the gentlemen ordained (the Rev. H. C. Squires, B.A., of Wadham College, Oxford, and the Rev. R. A. Squires, B.A., of St. John's College, Cambridge) were twin brothers. Born together, affections and sympathies and their future destiny seem to run together. Their features are so much alike that it is difficult to distinguish them. The thoughts of both were directed to the ministry, and both have sought for missionary work. In the Archbishop's examination they both showed themselves excellent scholars, one of them (Mr. R. A. Squires) being placed first in the examination, and selected, consequently, to read the Gospel in the Ordination Service. As their affection will not allow them to be separated, they will both proceed to India, and their labours among the heathen will be conducted within a few miles of each other. They will work in connection with the Church Missionary Society.
