Cheap Farming Lands

In another column the Norfolk & Western Railway offers an exceedingly attractive proposition relative to productive farming lands, well located near thriving towns on their line, having good social, church and school advantages, and excellent shipping facilities to the large markets of the Atlantic Seaboard. This railway company is making strenuous efforts to develop these old Virginia farms and plantations, which have fallen into neglect since the War, and have already succeeded in inducing a large number of northern and western farmers to come down and locate. If you will write Mr. F. H. La Baume, Agricultural and Industrial Agent, N. & W. Ry., Box 744, Roanoke, Va., he will take pleasure in sending you a full assortment of attractive literature setting forth the many advantages of that section of the country, with testimonials from farmers already located.
