SCHOOL.

The School re-opened on 16th September. There has been a gratifying accession of new boys, the number on the roll being now 85 as against 50 on commencing in September 1901.

ST. ALBAN'S S. S. TEACHERS.

It is desirable, as a matter of historical interest, that a list of the Sunday School teachers should be printed once in each year. The following are the present teachers:—Messrs. M. E. Matthews, Arthur A. Adams, David Orr, Misses May Klingner, Georgina Lewis, Alice Turner, Edith Tocque, Dagmar Chown, Madge Holt, Caroline Hamilton, Kate Robertson, Gertrude S. Johnston, Florence Hamilton, Elsie Gray, Charlotte Sarge, Lillian Benson, Edith Sweatman, —Bliss, Kate Cross; Infant Class, Miss Playter.

The names of the officers appear on the front page.

ST. ALBAN'S RIFLE CLUB.

A Rifle Club has been organized with its head quarters at the School House, meetings for the purpose having been held on 17th and 26th of September. There have been 44 members enrolled. The following are the officers:—Captain, J. W. G. Andras; Lieutenant, Charles W. Ricketts; Committee, W. H. Garrett, W. T. Fell; Auditors, E. M. Chadwick, R. E. Pack; Secretary-Treasurer, A. G. Robertson.
