At a great public meeting held June 21, 1824, it was declared by the executive power of the Mexican Government, that "Mr. Humboldt's Political Essays on New Spain contained the most complete and most accurate picture of the natural riches of the country, and that the reading of this great work has not a little contributed to reanimate the active industry of the nation and to inspire it with confidence in its own powers."

grants, religious exiles, political rebels, serving men sold for a term of years, apprentices, maidens pressed and others who went from Great Britain to the American plantations, 1600-1700, with their ages, the localities where they formerly lived in the mother country, the names of the ships in which they embarked, and other interesting particulars, from MSS. preserved in the State Paper Department of Her Majesty's Public Record Office, England, edited by John Camden Hotten. First edition, 4to, cl, clean copy, uncut, scarce, 5.75. Lon. 74. 3

A beautiful book. Contains a list of passengers in the Mayflower.
