Candidates for admission must be able to give references as to good moral character by written documents from their clergymen or some well known respectable lady or gentleman with whon they have lived. The Matron is authorized to receive applicants without certificate for a single day, then refer such cases to the President or the Lady Visitors for the month. $1.50 per week is charged for board.

EDITORIAL NOTES &c.

VILLE, N. B.—A series of appropriate Anniversary Exercises to finish the current Academic Year at Mount Allison is, ac-cording to the programme, which we have been publishing for the last two or three pett of Fairville. been publishing for the last two or three

At Brootlyn, New York, on the 15th inst., by weeks, to begin to-morrow morning, and to the Rev. Henry Ward Beecher, Wm. Herbert Sin close on Tuesday, the 28th inst.

The more public exercises in connection with these Anniversaries were, from the opening of the Institution in 1843, always sufficiently attractive to draw crowds to the appointed place of assemblage from all parts of the country lying around the head of the Bay of Fundy; and since the facilities for approach to Sackville have been increased numbers increasing each year from more distant places have mingled in the crowds. And we have every reason to suppose that as there is nowhere else in these Maritime Provinces an Annual Literary Festival with exercises so varied and interesting as this Anniversary occa sion at Sackville, its drawing influence will year by year increase in power, and extend more widely through all these Provin-
