

WANT, SALE AND EXCHANGE

All advertisements under this heading will be charged for at the rate of 10c. per word per insertion; no insertion given for the price of five.

This department will be made a special feature of THE GUIDE from now on, and is designed to better serve the interests of our subscribers by furnishing space where they may make known their wants and get in touch with prospective buyers at a nominal cost. Under this heading will be inserted all miscellaneous advertising, such as Farms for Sale, or Wanted, Machinery, Help Wanted, Articles Wanted and For Sale, Auction Sales, etc.

In this column, as in every part of THE GUIDE, no advertisement of a false or questionable character will be accepted, but the space will be confined exclusively to the use of legitimate advertisers who seek help, or wish to buy, sell or exchange "Stock, Machinery, etc." A condensed advertisement in THE GRAIN GROWERS' GUIDE should be a business getter for you. Try it and be convinced.

PROMPT ACTION FOLLOWED

A member of the peace committee saw two youths fighting. He pushed through the crowd and appealed to the combatants to desist.

"My good young fellows, settle your disputes by arbitration. Each of you choose half a dozen friends to arbitrate."

"Hurrah!" yelled the crowd. "Do as the gentleman says."

Having seen the twelve arbitrators selected to the satisfaction of both sides, the man of peace went on his way rejoicing.

Half an hour later he returned that way and found the whole street in an uproar.

"Good gracious!" asked the peace-maker. "What is the matter now?"

"Shure, sor," said a bystander, "the arbitrators are at work."

The new Washington postcards have George's picture on one half and his wife's picture on the return card, thus recognizing woman's right to the last word.

Young Husband (helping himself a second time): Bertha, where did you learn to scramble eggs like this?

Young Wife: Oh, George, that's a shrimp salad.

Loved to Death

"Did you ever know a girl to die for love?"

"Yes."

"Did she just fade away and die because some man deserted her?"

"No; she just took in washing and worked herself to death because the man she loved married her."

Quercus: Who is the happier, a man who has $100,000 or one who has seven daughters?

Rabbi: The latter.

Quercus: Why?

Rabbi: The man with the $100,000 wants more; the other doesn't.

The late Judge Silas Bryan, the father of William J. Bryan, once had several hams stolen from his smokehouse. He missed them at once, but said nothing about it to anyone. A few days later a neighbor came to him.

"Say, Judge," he said, "I heard yew had some hams stole t'other night."

"Yes," replied the Judge, very confidently, "but don't tell anyone. You and I are the only ones who know it."

QUESTION DRAWER

This department of the Guide is open to all readers, and it is hoped that they will take advantage of it. All questions relating to the problems of the farmer of Western Canada will be answered in this department. Write questions on one side of the paper only, and send only one question on one sheet of paper. John is making this department of the greatest value.

MUST HAVE NAMES

Questions sent in without the name of the sender attached will not be answered. The name will not be used if not desired, but it must be sent as a guarantee of good faith.

HERD LAW

Old Subscriber, Melfort, Sask.—Please tell me where the herd law exists; how many months it is in force, and what are those months.

Ans.—There is no herd law at present in force in the vicinity of Melfort.

ESTRAY ANIMALS

Old Subscriber, Melfort, Sask.—A stray calf came to my place last fall. I advertised it in the local paper but have found no owner as yet. What steps must I now take?

Ans.—The procedure to be observed at the present date is to take up estrays and deal with them according to the provisions of the Stray Animals Ordinance. Clause four of this ordinance states: "Any person who finds he has on his premises any stray animal (other than a stallion or a bull) the owner of which is unknown to him which cannot be driven away from such premises shall at once forward to the department of agriculture a notice to the effect that such animal is on his premises, which notice shall contain the name, location and post office address of the finder and a full description of the animal with all its marks (natural or artificial), color and probable age, with any other remark which may lead to its identification, and such notice shall be published for two consecutive insertions in the official Gazette, and a copy of each issue containing such notice shall be forwarded to every post office, and every post of the Northwest Mounted Police in the Territories, and a copy of the same shall be forwarded with every copy of the said Gazette."

In addition to the notice forwarded for insertion in the said Gazette, the finder of any such animal as is described in the front sub-section to this section, may cause a copy of the notice to be inserted in three successive weekly issues of the nearest newspaper, and any expenditure (not exceeding the sum of one dollar) made for such advertising shall be re-imbursed to the finder by the owner when the animal is claimed, or, if not claimed, by the justice after the sale of such animal upon proof of such expenditure having been made.

The owner of any such stray animal shall be entitled to recover the same from any person in whose possession it may be upon tender of the amount of the expenses incurred up to the time of such tender, from the day on which notice was given of the finding of the animal.

Such expenses shall consist of the sums prescribed by this ordinance and no other. In case the owner of the animal and the finder are unable to agree as to the amount of such expenses any justice of the peace may determine the amount of the expenses payable. In default of the payment of the expenses so determined the justice shall post notices of sale in the nearest post office, and in at least two other conspicuous places in the neighborhood for at least eight days, and shall then sell or cause such animal to be sold by public auction, and out of the proceeds of such sale shall first pay the expense of sale, and advertising and justice's fees, and then the costs of keeping to the finder and the balance to the owner, (if known), otherwise to the minister.

If such stray animal is not claimed within four months after the date of the first publication of the notice provided for in section 4, the finder within sixty days thereafter shall make application to a justice, and the said justice may proceed to sell the animal, and deal with the proceeds as before mentioned, that is, by paying the finder the costs of keeping, and sending the balance to the minister.

For the care and sustenance of any head of cattle during the period from the fifteenth day of November in any year to the fifteenth day of April next following, the finder shall be allowed seven cents per day from the date of mailing of notice to the owner or to the official Gazette, but not exceeding in all the sum of $7.

PICKLING WHEAT

Subscriber, Holland, Man.—I am sowing wheat that was taken off of new land last fall. Last spring before sowing this wheat, I pickled it well with formalin. Is it necessary that I should pickle this wheat again this year as a prevention against smut?

Ans.—Yes, you should pickle the seed with formalin this spring immediately before sowing.

BREEDERS' DIRECTORY

Cards under this heading will be inserted weekly at the rate of $4.00 per line, per year. No card accepted for less than six months, or less space than two lines.

Under this heading should appear the names of every breeder of Live Stock in the West. Buyers and breeders everywhere, as you are well aware, are constantly on the look-out for additions to their herds or the exchange of some particular animal, and as THE GUIDE is now recognized as the best market authority, and in every way the most reliable journal working in the interests of the West, nothing is more natural than for you to seek in its columns for the names of reliable men to deal with when buying stock.

Consider the smallness of the cost of carrying a card in this column compared with the results that are sure to follow, and make up your mind to send us your card today.
