Invitation from Congregation of South Third Street Synagogue Was Unanimous and It Was Accepted at Once--Dr. Rabinowitz a Favorite Preacher in the Big City

BROOKLYN, N. Y., June 4.—At a meeting of the officers and trustees of the Congregation Ahawath Scholom Beth Jacob, held Sunday afternoon in the synagogue in this city a unanimous call was extended to the Rev. Dr. S. Rabinowitz, rabbi of one of the largest synagogues in St. John, N. B.

Rabbi Rabinowitz has occupied the pulpit in the South Third street synagogue on several occasions, and when he lectured last Saturday and Sunday morning on Probation, he made such an impression with the members of the congregation that when the minister concluded his remarks it was decided that Rabbi Rabinowitz would be the right man in the right place if he became the spiritual adviser of Beth Jacob.

DR. RABINOWITZ

A meeting of the directors and trustees was called today. After due consideration it was decided to extend a call. The minister was called into the meeting room, and when he was asked if he would consider a call, replied that he would accept. The officers of the congregation immediately drew up a three years' contract and Rabbi Rabinowitz will be duly installed in a few weeks. Under the personal supervision of the newly elected rabbi, the services of the congregation will be organized in the near future. The daily school, which is attached to the syna-

NARROW ESCAPE OF CHATHAM FAMILY

House Caught Fire While They Were Asleep and Were Awakened by Accidental Discharge of Gun

CHATHAM, N. B., June 4.—The escape of Charles Bremner and his family from the fire which destroyed their home on Wednesday appears to have been a closer one than first reported. The Bremner family had the house on the corner of the street, which Jack Blakeley is the caretaker, and it was the latter's son, Charles, who first discovered the fire. He was returning home that evening about 10 p. m. when he noticed the Bremner house on fire, the flames breaking through the roof. He at once hurried over to give the alarm, as he suspected the place he heard the report of a gun, set off within the house. This had been discharged by the flames and was the first notification Mr. Bremner had of the fire. He awakened to find the house full of smoke and the flames rapidly licking up everything.

He sprang up and at once saw that there was no hope of saving the house and with young Blakeley, who had arrived by that time, he rescued his wife and children. The latter being small, it was necessary to carry them in their night attire, and of the house, furniture and fittings only one trunk and a bureau were saved. The trunk contained $200 in cash.

There was no insurance and the loss will be very heavy, as the only building saved was the barn. How the fire started is not known, but a defective fuse is supposed to have been the cause. Had it not been for the accidental discharge of the gun it is doubtful if Blakeley would have reached the house in time to save all.

THE WRONG THINGS CHEAP

I remember the despairing cry of a woman looking helplessly through her wardrobe. "I should have been a better woman if I had been born with feathers." How well I knew just what she meant! She was examining disconsolately a shabby white satin dress—the kind of satin that betrays its cheapness by its sheen. "I wish I were a guinea hen with respectable speckled feathers!" she cried as she gave a discouraged glance to the wardrobe door.

HAWK ORCHARD CON HIS GRUESOM

Yesterdays Evidence Regarding a Long Series of Murders Had Many Weak Points Which Will be Further Explained Today

BOISE, Idaho, June 5.—H. Orchard, the self-confessed murderer of four men, Governor Stevenson went on the stand today to give testimony in the case against Wm. D. Haywood. He was brought into Boise last evening from the Idaho penitentiary. For some hours he was closeted with the attorneys for the prosecution. This is the first time that Orchard has been out of the penitentiary since he was brought there immediately after the assassination of the former governor. Orchard said Monday morning that he had killed Haywood, the "Vindicator" mine and kill McCormick and Beck.

"Haywood told me the blowing up of the mine was a fine piece of work and they were much pleased with it. I talked to Haywood, Moyer and Eastley about the matter. They said that there would be nothing for me but night work for a while. Haywood said he would have to clean those fellows up at Cripple Creek."

"Moyer gave me $200, and Haywood, Moyer and Eastley gave me $300 for blowing up the mine. I returned to Cripple Creek in 1903 and since then I have not done any night work. Haywood and Moyer both told me they would not go to jail. I could not go to jail, and after a brief tour of the continent they will return to Woodstock in about two months and occupy their new residence, now under erection."
