The king asked him how port by William Peddie. long he would be gone and when he would return, and when Nehemiah set a time it pleased the king to send him (verse 6). If the queen sitting by the king was Esther, as is probable, it will help us to understand many things. This does not seem to me to indicate any less faith on the part of Nehemiah than on the part of Ezra, but Ezra had said something very strongly about God's care of His own without human aid, and he felt that he had to prove it, and he did, and the Lord honored his trust. Nehemiah was just as much a man of God as Ezra, but he as much a man of God as Ezra, but he local months in the control of the contro as much a man of God as Ezra, but he ers. $5.70 to $13.50; stockers and feed-had made no boast that he felt compelled to prove.

Then he laid before the rulers the reproachful condition of things, told them of the good hand of God upon him and of the king's commission and provision. So they said, "Let us rise up and build," and they strengthened their hands for the work (verses 17, 18). As in the story of Ezra, there are always some outsiders who seem to want a share in a good work and if not allowed to now we have the Horonite, the Am-
