THE ROYAL TOUR OF IRELAND

King Was Deeply Touched by Visit to the Emerald Isle.

James Address to "My Irish People" on Reaching Isle of Wight—At Cork His Majesty Was Widely Cheered, the Streets of the City Being Highly Decorated and Filled With Jubilant Sightseers.

Cork, Ireland, Aug. 8.—The fring of royal salutes and enthusiastic cheering welcomed King Edward, Queen Alexandra and the royal party on their arrival at Cork Saturday morning on board the royal yacht Victoria and Albert from Berhaven. The port was bright with bunting, the town was well decorated and the streets were filled with jubilant sightseers.

The Lord Mayor and corporation of Cork welcomed the visitors when they landed. Their Majesties drove through the decorated streets, which were lined with troops and blue jackets, to the race course, where the King presented colors to two Irish regiments.

During the afternoon Their Majesties visited the exposition. Addresses were presented by several local bodies, to which the King jointly replied, expressing his great interest in the welfare of Ireland.

Their Majesties subsequently returned to Queenstown, where they received further addresses. The King in his farewell reply said that the people could rest assured that he had the interest of Ireland at heart.

When Their Majesties embarked on the royal yacht for Cowes the strains of "Come Back to Erin" mingled with the salute of guns.

The royal yacht Victoria and Albert, having on board King Edward and Queen Alexandra, sailed for Cowes at 7.40 p.m.

To "My Irish People."

Cowes, Isle of Wight, Aug. 8.—The royal yacht Victoria and Albert were here last evening, and King Edward immediately issued the following address: "To my Irish People: 'I desire on leaving Ireland to express to my Irish people how deeply I have been touched by the kindness with which they have shown to the Queen and myself. Our experience on previous visits had indeed prepared us for a traditional welcome of a warm-hearted race, but our expectations have been exceeded. Wherever we have gone, in town or country, we have seen the loyalty and affection, professed by every section of the community have made an enduring impression upon our hearts. For a country so attractive and a people so gifted, and it is expected, therefore, with supreme satisfaction, that I have so often during our stay, heard the hope expressed that a brighter day is dawning upon Ireland. I shall eagerly await the fulfilment of this hope. Its realization will, under divine Providence, depend upon the steady development of self-reliance and co-operation upon better and more practical education, upon the growth of industrial and commercial enterprise and upon that increase of mutual respect which the responsibility of my Irish people now employ in the public administration of their local affairs, is well fitted to teach. It is my earnest prayer that those and other means of national well-being may multiply from year to year in Ireland, and that the blessings of peace, contentment and prosperity may be abundantly vouchsafed to her. (Signed) 'Edward R. and I.'"

August 1, 1908. Copies of the address will be posted throughout Ireland to-day.

THE MACEDONIANS.

Turkish Patrol Fell Into Ambush Laid by Bulgarians.

Constantinople, Aug. 3.—Isolated conflicts continue to occur in Macedonia. Last Friday a Turkish patrol which was pursuing the authors of a dynamite outrage, fell into an ambush laid by the Bulgarians near Drama, which is close to the famous plain of Philippi, where Brutus and Cassius were defeated, and seven Turks and three Bulgarians were killed. The Porte, however, announces that before long the thousand troops now in Macedonia will be disbanded.

It is stated that as a result of enquiry by Austrian and Russian consuls into the recent events at Salonica, Austria and Russia will demand the dismissal of the chief of police of Salonica. Reports from Armenia tell of the serious disturbances, similar to those which preceded the trouble at 1894. Several conflicts have occurred between Turks and armed Kurds on one side and Armenians on the other, resulting in losses on both sides.

Coughing

"I was given up to die with quick consumption. I then began to use Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I improved at once, and am now in perfect health."—Chas. E. Hartman, Gibbstown, N. Y.

It's too risky, playing with your cough. The first thing you know it will be down deep in your lungs and the play will be over. Begin early with Ayer's Cherry Pectoral and stop the cough.

There should be enough for an ordinary case, but a large bottle is most economical for chronic cough. Price 25 cents. J. C. Ayer & Co., Lowell, Mass.
