ACCURACY
Absolute accuracy in dispensing your Physician's Prescription is of the first importance. We appreciate this fully and consequently a duly qualified and experienced Chemist is always in charge of our dispensing department. No prescription leaves our store without being thoroughly checked by him. Likewise the drugs prescribed are always of the best, in fact of standard quality and purity. Greater care, better drugs, more skilled knowledge could not possibly be employed. This, no doubt, accounts for the large increase in our Prescription Department, and the confidence which the public place in us.

the person of Mr. Jas. Scott. Since early last winter, when his health began to fail, his friends and relatives have been hoping against hope that some means might be provided to ward off the threatened blow, and everything that love or skill could suggest was done toward this end, but death came off conqueror. Jim, as he was familiarly called, was just in the prime of manhood, being a little over thirty years of age, and of a character and disposition that was simply exemplary. His life was without spot or blemish of any kind, and the love and esteem in which he was held was made manifest in the tears and sense of personal loss so many people showed, who had known him any length of time. No one was ever heard who had one word of blame for Jim and in his death one is gone who could hardly be spared.

Only a little over a year ago he was married to Miss Maggie Earle of Lyndhurst, and to her, who is scarcely more than a bride, our hearts go out in the tenderest of human sympathy, in that our condolences followed so quickly on our congratulations. To his parents also, this blow seems almost more than they can bear, as it is only a short time since they laid to rest, within a year of each other, their two daughters, sweet young girls just budding into womanhood. They have now left only one son, Mr. Frank, of Mathers, Manitoba.

Their only comfort now must be in the assurance that, ere this, Jim has heard the words he certainly earned, "Well done, thou good and faithful servant; thou hast been faithful over a few things, I will make thee ruler over many things. Enter thou into the joy of thy Lord."

The funeral, which took place to St. John's church, Leeds, was very large and the floral tributes exceptionally fine. He was buried under the auspices of the L.O.L., of which he was a faithful and consistent member.
