RIGHT ROYALLY CELEBRATED

Great Doings Characterized Emancipation Day Anniversary Yesterday.

Big Ball in the Evening—Addresses
Delivered by Prominent Citizens.

The great Emancipation celebration ended last evening with a grand ball and happy one. The dancing was provided by the orchestra from the Oddfellows' band of Detroit, was excellent. The floor was beautifully waxed for the occasion and it was full of dancers all the time. Some of the costumes worn by the lady dancers were quite elaborate and tasty and the scene presented was a most animated and happy one. The dancing was kept up until a very early hour this morning, and the participants will not, for a long while, forget this year's celebration of the First of August.

Yesterday afternoon after the parade the crowd assembled on Tecumseh Park in front of the band stand where they were addressed by H. S. Clements, the conservative candidate for the Dominion House, M. Houston and Dr. A. W. Thornton. The addresses were excellent and much enjoyed by the large audience. Each speaker was loudly and enthusiastically applauded as he resumed his seat. Bishop Wilmore presided over the speaking.

Then came the sports, the most important of which was the baseball game between a colored nine from London and the Keystone baseball team of Chatham, Ben Talbot captain. The game was easily won by the Keystone, the final score being 21-10. It was not decided without considerable disputing and several mixups were recorded. The foot races all passed off successfully. There were numerous entries and the competition was spirited and close. Possibly the race in which most of the interest was centered was the fat man's race. John W. White, barkeeper, of this city, enjoys an extensive reputation as a speedy foot runner in fact man's races and it is understood that he has been laying wide for this race determined not to drop in the estimation of the public as a foot runner. Ray eggs have been disappearing fast and the spectators were surprised to see Mr. White appear for the race in his common street clothes. Mr. White knew, however, that if he came out in his racing suit no one would run against him and so he ran as above described. He had no difficulty in winning out, in fact it looked as if there was just one man running.

One lamentable feature of the celebration was the rowdiness displayed by some of the people. There were several fights which should never have been allowed, especially in a celebration of this kind. However, the celebration as a whole was a grand success and immensely enjoyed.

EVERYBODY SHOULD TAKE A VACATION.

A few days among the pines and cedars, if not able to take time for longer rest, will do you good and enable you to do better work. Charming Muskoka, the Lake of Bays, Georgian Bay, Lake Simcoe, Kawartha Lakes, the Mackinaw or Duluth trip, or the seaside resorts, all are reached via the Grand Trunk Railway System, the tourist route of America. Call at city ticket office, 115 King street, for information.

Defeat Russians in Two Separate Battles—Capture Important Pass

(Special to The Planet).

Tokio, Aug. 2.—After two days' fighting Gen. Kuroki has defeated the Russian forces in two separate actions fought at Yushuliku and the Yangse Pass.

The Yangse Pass, or Yangse Pass, is situated 30 miles east of Liao Yang. The Russian army engaged there is generally known as the eastern army and was commanded by the late Lieut. Gen. Count Keller, who was killed by the explosion of a shell.

Yushuliku is possibly a village near Simoucheng, 15 miles south southeast of Hsicheng, at the junction of the Feng-wang-cheng-Siuyen roads, where the Russian forces have apparently sustained a defeat.

SAY THEY'RE CHAMPS

There was a great game of bowling on Tecumseh Park green yesterday.

"You see," remarked City Treasurer Fleming this morning, "we Garner House Eaters, that's J. E. Thomas, Judge Gosnell, J. S. Black and myself, are all expert bowlers. In fact we have a real reputation in addition to diamond pins and all that sort of thing. Why, we've won so many trophies that we have our rooms full of bric-a-brac. As always, there were those who envied us our skill, and being jealous, they began to knock us and our ability. We promptly challenged those knockers, and they came out to meet us yesterday. Why, that crowd just made a good meal for the Garner House Eaters. It was easier putting them away than it is to put away Alex. L. Eberts' ice cream. In consequence, we are having another bar added to our championship medals. We're going to put another bar on to-morrow. Not content with the way we trimmed the knockers, there is another bunch who are not satisfied with the lesson we have given. They are the Butters Inn. They have challenged us, but they'll find out their mistake, and we'll add another bar to-morrow."

The Fire Eaters, J. E. Thomas, Judge Gosnell, J. S. Black, R. G. Fleming—skip—22. The Knockers, W. E. Merritt, J. McGregor, G. J. Pearce, A. H. VonGuten—skip—16. The team that will represent the Butters Inn will be G. K. Atkinson, Joe Mitton, D. A. Hutchison and A. E. Jewett—skip.

TROTTERS BURNED

Montreal, July 31.—The valuable race-horses, the brown mare Maggie L., valued at $1,500, and the property of J. Brady, Chatham, and the brown stallion Billy Hamilton, valued at $800 and owned by J. Gilkes, Toronto, were burned to death early this morning, in the C. P. R. yards, Hochelaga. The horses had been racing at Delorainier Park, and were in a car preparatory to leaving for Quebec. In shunting, a lamp in the car was overturned, and set fire to the car, which was destroyed, and the horses burned to death.

Joe Brady left Chatham five weeks ago for Montreal to enter Maggie L. in the races there and follow the races at Listowel and other points coming east. News of the burning of Maggie L. was received in Chatham this morning.

A CHARMING WOMAN.

The Qualities That Figure in Making This Envious Being.

"When is a woman most charming? That is a question I am trying to answer from one year's end to another and one which I would put in the following words: A woman is most charming when she is tender and sympathetic. She may dazzle when she is merry, but when she is gentle and full of sympathy she enhances a man's heart. When her voice takes a softened tone and her eyes look words that her lips hesitate to speak, then, if she only knew her power, it would be a bad time for the world at large, for she could do what she chose, only she never does know it. Probably woman charms most when she is unconscious of it.

A woman is most charming when she is animated and bright. A tear may prove pity, but it is a smile that commands admiration. But she must not be forever sparkling. She must have her sober moments if only to throw into higher relief the moments when she is gay.

A woman is most charming when she is good natured. Bad temper never charms. Good temper is an attraction even in a plain woman. When a woman has that in addition to her qualities, when she is natural in her manners, unconscious, animated, tender and gentle, then indeed is she charming to all the world.—American Queen.

OLD RAG CARPET.

How It May Be Utilized as a Substitute For Linoleum.

A discovery that saves the price of a linoleum and utilizes rag carpet after it is no longer good to look upon, yet too good to throw away, may be as acceptable to others as it was to me.

After sewing the breadths evenly and tacking in place, size the carpet with flour starch made of the consistency and as carefully free from lumps as if to be used for starching clothes. Apply it with a whitewash brush liberally enough to allow for the soaking into the carpet and yet cover the surface. If when dry the interstices are not filled sufficiently to make it smooth, give it another covering of starch.

When thoroughly dry, paint it with any good floor paint just as you would treat a board floor, one or two coats, as it seems to require, and of any color preferred. Gray green and drab show dust less than darker colors and harmonize well with most surroundings.

It may be washed up with any oilcloth, using the same care not to put on too much water and to wipe it dry. It will last as long, look as well and is warmer.

A plain painted border or stenciled pattern may easily be added in contrasting colors if desired.—Table Talk.
