

A TERRIBLE EXPERIENCE.

Eight Long years of Pain and Suffering.

A Well Known Godefrich Lady Restored to Health and Strength.

The marvellous change which has taken place in the physical condition of Mrs. Culloden Fraser, Britannia street, during the past twelve months has been the chief topic of conversation among her many friends and acquaintances of late, and to all who know of the terrible manner in which she has been afflicted, her lifting up appears to have been like that of a miracle.

It is now over eight years since one morning as I was performing ablutions, and when passing my hand over my face, I experienced a pain on the cheek similar to that which is felt when a thorn which has penetrated the flesh is touched.

Time has scattered the snowy flakes on her brow, plucked deep furrows on her cheek—but is she not sweet and beautiful now? The lips which have kissed many a hot tear from the childish cheek are the sweetest lips in all the world, says the Bygle Call.

The eye is dim, yet it glows with the radiant radiance of a holy love which can never fade. Oh, yes, she is a dear old mother. Her sands of time are nearly run out, but feeble as she is, yet will go further and reach down lower for you than any other on earth.

You cannot walk into midnight where she cannot see you; you cannot enter a prison whose bars shall keep her out; you can never mount a scaffold too high for her to reach that she may kiss and bless you.

In evidence of her deathless love when the world shall despise and forsake you—when it leaves you by the wayside it will be unnoted—the dear old mother will gather you up in her feeble arms, carry you home and tell you all your virtues, until you almost forget that your soul is disfigured by vice.

Love her tenderly, and cheer her declining years with holy devotion. How to Roll Your Umbrella.

"If half the citizens of the world," said a young woman who works on umbrellas covers, "only knew such a simple thing as how to roll up an umbrella, most of the umbrellas brought to the dealers to be mended would never have needed repairs."

The right way to roll your umbrella is to take hold of the end of the ribs and the stick with the same hand and hold them tightly enough to prevent their being twisted while the covering is being twisted around with the other hand.

Then your umbrella will be as nicely closed as when you bought it; and the only wear and tear will be on the cloth. "It is twisting the ribs out of shape around the stick and fastening them there that spoils most of the umbrellas. Never hold the umbrella by the handle alone when you roll it up and you will find it lasts longer and costs less for repairs."

His Case. Courts of law are now and then enlightened by the unintentional coincidences which will occasionally crop up even in the most serious cases. In a certain lunacy case, tried in the Court of Queen's Bench, the last witness called by Mr. Montague Chambers, leading counsel for the plaintiff, was a doctor, who, at the close of his evidence, described a case of delirium tremens treated by him, in which the patient recovered in a single night.

Scraps for Odd Moments.

No man and his wife ever agreed on the money question.

Minard's Liniment for Rheumatism.

Minard's Liniment is the best. Clara—I wish I could get something for my face. Minard—Why don't you try a mask? Garfield Tea cures sick-headache.

Student—Young Herman has a suit of clothes for every day in the week. Studentum—I never see him wear but one. Studentus—Yes; that's the suit! Garfield Tea is sold by all druggists.

A lady having remarked in company that she thought there should be a tax on the "single state." Yes, madam, on an obstinate bachelor, as on all other luxuries!

For all practical purposes, ejaculated the barber, clipping the gold watch into one pocket and the silver spoons into another, I am considerable of a bimetalist myself.

Fortify yourself for the diseases peculiar to warm weather, by taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

Practice and preaching—Call it to minister's wife—is that not your husband's voice I hear? Wife—Yes; he is in his study practicing what he is going to preach.

To retain an abundant head of hair of a natural color to a good old age, the hygiene of the scalp must be observed. Apply Hall's Hair Renewer.

They were discussing woman suffrage, and most of them appeared to be against it. Are you an anti? I was asked of one, a comparative stranger. No; I'm a mother, she answered.

If you do not know how good a remedy Garfield Tea really is for constipation and sick headache, send a postal card to D. Denmore & Co., 271 Queen Street, East, Toronto, for a free, trial package.

Carry any life insurance? Yes—$10,000 in favor of my wife. Should think you'd be ashamed to look her in the face.

What's that for? For living. What excuse do you give her?

Don't Wait for the Sick Room. The experience of physicians and the public proves that taking Scott's Emulsion produces an immediate increase in flesh. It is therefore the highest value in Wasting Diseases and Consumption.

"I'm sorry to hear, John, that you've lost your wife. But is it true you had no doctor?"

"Aye. It came about this way; a fortnight since, I was ill and glad I had the doctor. He gave me a bottle, but when I was home I was better, so I didn't use it. When the wife took sick, I gave her the draught, and she died by mornin'! Isn't it a mercy I didn't take it myself?"

A Distressing Situation.—What a dreadful thing it is to wake-up in the middle of the night suffering from cholera—the nearest doctor a mile away and no one to send for him. Imagine a more distressing domestic situation, if you can; and yet cases of this kind are very common. The trouble, however, would never have become serious if the man of the house had a bottle of EMMER'S PAIN EXPELLER at hand, for it is a remedy that never fails to cure cholera, cramps, diarrhoea, or dysentery. All druggists keep it. 25c. for large New Size.

The gentleman from Boston was stepping with a farmer, and a new great arriving he was much impressed by the conversation of the Bostonian. Later, in talking with the landlord, he remarked: By the way, that gentleman has an extensive vocabulary, hasn't he?

The landlord was greatly pleased. Well, he responded, you'd ought to see it when he first came; I wasn't nothing to speak of; he's only been boarding with me two weeks, and he's had to hit his wai'stan' out four times.

Monday in 1894. Monday is the prominent day in 1894; Monday holds the record. The year begins and finishes on a Monday; hence there are 53. The great Scotch removal term, May 23th, is on a Monday; grouse all over on Monday's and of course Hogmanay, 1894, is on a Monday. It is an article of faith in some rural districts that when the year opens on a Monday there will be a severe and confused winter, a good spring, windy summer, and a useful year, in which there will be much sickness. The year 1855 of the Jewish era commences on Monday, 15th October, 1894, and all the bank holidays are on Mondays.
