MRS. W. D. FULLERTON

The passing away of Mrs. W. D. Fullerton, daughter of the late George and Abbie Trenholm of Grand Pre, on Thursday, Feb. 5, after an illness of a week's duration, came as a great shock, not only to the immediate family but to the community as well. The deceased was an estimable lady of a most lovable and cheerful disposition and dearly beloved by all who knew her, and an adherent of the Methodist church. She is survived by a sorrowing husband, three sons, Laurie, of St. John, N.B.; Gordon, of Winthrop, Mass.; Everett at home, and one daughter Hilda, also at home; one son Cecil having predeceased her a number of years. She is also survived by two sisters, Alice (Mrs. Charles Fuller) of Los Angeles, and Della (Mrs. Capt. Lawrence) of Hantsport, who have the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

The funeral services, which were largely attended were held from her late residence Saturday afternoon, conducted by the Rev. A. B. Higgins, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Outerbridge and Rev. J. W. Prestwood, B.D. The choir of the Methodist church furnished the music. The pall bearers were D. W. Murray, E. R. Gertridge, A. E. Cornwall, and J. Reid. The floral tributes were profuse and beautiful. She was laid to rest in River Bank Cemetery beneath a bed of flowers.

PRESENTATION TO CHOIR MEMBER

Mrs. H. L. Smith, Main street, was "at home" to the Baptist choir members on their last regular night for rehearsal, the guests of honor being Miss Lottie Boyd and Wilfred Trefry whose nuptials were celebrated Tuesday. During the evening the bride elect, who is a valued member of the choir, was presented with a silver casserole dish as a small token of esteem from her associates in the choir, the presentation being made by Miss Marguerite Lawrence, vice president, who made a very happy little speech.

Supper was served by Mrs. Smith who is always a popular hostess.

FUNERAL OF OLD TIME RESIDENT

The funeral of the late Judson M. Card, a former well known and highly esteemed resident of Hantsport, whose death occurred last week at his home in Woodville, Kings county, took place from the home of his niece, Mrs. J. E. Borden, on Friday afternoon last. Rev. Z. L. Fash, pastor of the Baptist church, conducted the service, which was simple and appropriate. The music included "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep", a favorite of the deceased. Interment was in the "River Bank Cemetery", beside his wife who predeceased him a little over four years ago. Old friends of the deceased, Capt. Charles Davison, Messrs. Leon-

DIARY OF MARGARET D. MICHENER

July 12th, 1850. I went over to Mrs. G. Davidson's last evening to a sing; quite a company were there and I enjoyed myself well. I had a delightful ramble tonight, looking out a spot to have a picnic with my scholars.

Monday evening, 15th. I went to Conference meeting on Saturday and from there up to father's. When I returned home at sunset Sister Ann came part way with me and carried a pitcher of strawberries. Mother gave me, the boys having just picked two bucketsful of beautiful ones. Sunday was very warm but I went to church. Rev. Vaughan preached; then I went up home expecting to go out to Brooklyn to the funeral of Mr. Hall's daughter, but none of them went so I stayed and read a while, then took a walk to one of my favorite spots on the hill near Mr. Davidson's. I went to a class meeting in the evening. Today when school was out I went down to Olivia's, and Adah came back with me and will stay all night.

17th. Last night I went up home to a sing. This morning early I took a ride with the boys and Ann up to the mill to get our wool. We took a walk around and about the mill, went in bathing and then took a row in the gundalow on the mill pond. Got back to father's at 7 o'clock, ate breakfast, then came down for school and found some of the scholars waiting for admission.

18th. We arose early this morning hoping it would be a fine day for our picnic, so we were all much pleased to see such a beautiful morning. The scholars assembled as usual, except they had on their Sunday dresses. They brought as many roses and other flowers as they could get. We went through with the morning lessons. Marianne Davidson and Ann came down and I set them to making wreaths of the flowers. Susannah Davidson was chosen as the prettiest girl and we decorated her to represent "Flora". Between eleven and twelve o'clock we started to march down near the shore. We marched by couples, "Flora" and I leading the way. We soon arrived at the spot I had chosen under some trees in Mr. Davidson's pasture. We took our dinner seated on the ground, after which the children played around for a while, then recited some hymns they had learned. They sang some pieces beautifully, then Ann played some for them on the accordeon. We also gave each of them a present with which they seemed much pleased. We took a walk along the beach and up to the top of the bank, where we sat for a while to rest. Louisa joined us there and then we marched back home quite well pleased with the day's enjoyment, and they asked when we could have another picnic. Marianne and Ann stayed to supper and in the evening my brothers and Albert came. We sang and played the accordeon.

an. 20th. Maria came home this morning from Parrsboro, accompanied by Louisa Gabriel. I spent the afternoon with them. After supper we took a walk down to the shore. Saw J. Davidson who had just come up from Halifax, the "Wanderer", having arrived the day before. I am to spend the night with Elmira.

21st. I went to S. School as usual but only three of my class were there. After meeting I went up to father's and in the afternoon Ann and I went to Mt. Denison to meeting. The walking is quite wet as it rained last night. In the evening we went to Capt. R. Davidson's, at Albert's request, to a sing.

23rd. This has been a lovely day. Mrs. Wilson had a daughter last night. I was washing this a.m. when Elmira came to the window and said she had good news for me, as there were letters for Maria and I at the office, so I told her to tell Maria to go and get them. She soon returned with them. They all were well when they wrote but Curry had been sick and Simeon had sprained his ankle. He gave some account of their travels, which were truly delightful. They found friends all along the way. We have much to be thankful for, as many have lost their lives this season on the lakes from steamboat accidents.

24th. Maria stopped with me last night as we wished to talk over the contents of our letters. Many of our friends rejoice with us upon the good news we received. Rebecca Elder called to bid me adieu, as she is going to Falmouth to make a visit.
