MISS GIRDWOOD'S DEPARTURE. MISS GIRDWOOD'S DEPARTURE.

We omitted to mention the departure for Winnipeg on Saturday last of Miss A. R. Girdwood. She remains there for some time, and will pilivate her studies and continue her literary work. Miss Girdwood, formerly one of the public school teachers, was most highly esteemed in the community, and, with her sister, took a great interest in the work for the colored people. She is a bright and most readable writer, and under the nom de plume of Kate Conway has already gained an enviable reputation by her stories and sketches.

DEATH OF DR. M'NAUG DEATH OF DR. MYNAUGE
Dr. McNaughton, one of the oldest residents of Erin village, passed away last night, after an illness of about 2 months, at the age of 67 years and 4 morths. Dr. McNaughton, having passed through the Franco-Prusslan War, and the war between the Northern and Southern States, obtained quite a knowledge of surgery, and therefore bore a reputation in surgery beyond his contemporaries. He was also successful in medicine and, therefore, was for many years the only doctor of Erin and the vicinity. He took an active part in everything that took to the welfare of the village and comunity, public and private. He was conserved in principles, ar his servative in principles, ar his streets of the village.
