The Y. P. A. of S. James' church, who give the Mother Goose Market in the city hall on January 16th and 17th, will complete their programme this week, and from the extent of the performance they will give an entertainment that for magnitude and variety will be equal with, if not ahead, of the same thing given in Toronto recently, and which was such a sutcess on account of its novelty. Full particulars will be found in these columns next week.

Mr. Jas. Boyle, assistant engineer at the O.A. College, met with an agcident on Tueeday evening. He was on the top of a boiler fixing a tap when he came in contact with a hot pipe, sliped and fell twelve feet to the ground, receiving a bad shaking up. The left ankle is badly swollen, but it is not known as yet if any bones are broken. Mr. Boyle in any case will be confined to his bed for a time.

Dr. Herod sustained a bad fall last night, while coming from the residence of Mr. Wm. Tytler. The pathway from the thouse is very slippery and the doctor bed in footing, falling sideways. In endeavoring to save filmself, he put out has left arm. The thumb at the second joint was injured, and it is not known yet whether a bone is broken or not, it is so badly swollen. MISS GIRDWOOD'S DEPARTURE. MISS GIRDWOOD'S DEFARTURE.

We omitted to mention the departure for Winnipeg on Saturday last of Miss A. R. Girdwood. She remains there for some time, and will pitisue her studies and continue her literary work. Miss Girdwood, formerly one of the public school teachers, was most highly esteemed in the community, and, with her sister, took a great interest in the work for the colored people. She is a bright and most readable writer, and under the nom de plume of Kate Conway has already gained an enviable reputation by her etories and sketches.

DEATH OF DR. M'NAUG'
Dr. McNaughton, one of the oldest residents of Erin village, passed away last; night, after an liness of about 2 months, at the age of 67 years and 4 months. Dr. McNaughton, having passed through the Franco-Prusslan War, and the war between the Northern and Southern States, obtained quite a knowledge of surgery, and therefore bore a reputation in surgery beyond his contemporaries. He was also successful in medicine and, therefore, was for many years the only doctor of Erin and the vicinity. He took an active part in everything that tende to the welfare of the village and comunity, public and private. He was nown figure will be reets of the village
