The selling steeplechase brought out a field of eight and it proved a very intersting race over the sticks. There was only one mishap. Racille ran right into the first jump and fell in a heap. Hayes, the colored rider, was struck by another horse and his head was badly cut. All the others went over the obstacles, but the two Medler horses in the race—Mercury and Mix Up— were pulled up in the stretch. Mercury, who performed satisfactorily in his first race; on Tues—

Four stakes which closed on Monday to be run at the Brighton Beach fall meeting have been declared off, and owners who made entries for stakes at the summer meeting are being asked to cancel them in order that the conditions may be revised. New York, June 18.—Fine weather and a good card drew a big crowd to the races yesterday. The usual conditions of police surveillance which have prevailed since the new racing laws went into effect were still in force and betting was sharply prohibited. One arrest only resulted, that of George Lichenstein, brother of Sol. Lichenstein, the well known bookmaker, who was charged by deputy sheriffs with making bets.

BARTL'S MANAGER'S

EXPLANATION.

Pittsburg, June 18.—E. C. Finley, a successful manager of wrestling, and who will hold the proposed weekly shows in Pittsburg, beginning next Friday, anent the fake wreetlers in town at present writes as follows from Youngstown: "I noticed your article in the Gazette Times this morning and would like to say a notice your article in the observe limits this morning and would like to say a word or two in regard to the matter. In the first place I sent Al. has a great record as Ackerman and has never been defeated by a man his weight, and that is the reason I picked him to go when Barti couldn't. It was impossible for me to go to Pittsburg
after Bartl was injured, as there is no one here to take charge of him except me, and I supposed everything world be all right by sending Ackerman. As far as Olsen is concerned, he has never even seen Ackerman, but has wrestled Barti.

I expect to be there in a few days and will bring all of the best men in the country if Pittsburg wants to see them.

"Bartl is improving every day, but is not out of danger. It won't be able to wrestle all summer."

Bradley, the Yanks' pose artist, had the visitors at his mercy throughout, allowing them but four scattered hits, and fanning 12. Muir worked well against the home club, but the Yanks bunched on him in the tenth.

LONDON WON TWO.

LONDON WON TWO.

London, June 18.—Although they have been perilously near it at times and have been tied for premier honors in the International League, it was not until 5.20 last night that the Beavers ensconced themselves firmly on the top. They are there now by a margin that is none too big, to be sure, but they are there.

This pleasing state of affairs was brought to pass by the fact that London won two games from St. Thomas yesterday, the first a nine-inning affair, with

As a contrast, Toronto, with one-fourth of the territorially tributary population, gives several, not merely one, stake races daily. The result is constant and lively interest and bushels of money flowing in. They had seen Major McComb work his five furiongs in 1.02 and felt sure that Claude's half-brother would surely win the second race, in which he started favorite at Hamilton yesterday, but such was not the case, and when the three-year-old was brought back to the stable there were many long faces. Not so with the fourth assistant, who looked at the result from a humorous as well as a practical standpoint. "Why, that Dave Nicol never tried a lick. He done took the Majah up again the outside rail going full three-quarters instead of five and one-half furlongs, and the horse never took a long breaff. It was one of them races where the jock gets $15 for a hard ride and $300 for an easy one. I guess Dave knows what he's doin."

that sterling heaver, "Fat" Payne, doing his duty to the extent of a shutout by a 3 to 0 score. This was just about the finest game of ball that has been played in London this year, and consumed one hour and tea minutes exactly.

It was a brilliant fielding and pitching game, the Beavers getting their runs in the first of the seventh, and they were all of the earned variety, negotiated by clean hitting, in which Abby Johnson drove in two runs. They were the three runs, and that is all there was to the game, except that it was pure baseball, and mighty fast. The feature was a running catch by Staub, a new outfielder of John Murray's, in centre, of Keenan's sure two-bagger. Scores:

KNOCKING LONGBOAT

KNOCKING LONOBOAT.

The Americans are kicking up a great fuss over Longboat competing in the Olympic Marathon. The C.A. A.U. made a most searching investigation of his record, and absolutely nothing of any sort was found reflecting on his standing as an amateur. Longboat has been endorsed by the C. A. A. U. and the Canadian Olympic Committee, and will positively be a starter, health permitting, no matter what the Americans say.

A New York despatch says.—The Americans positively will not compete against Longboat, nor against any athletes with whom the Indian competes. Indeed, according to those in close touch with the situation, it is possible that the American team may be withdrawn if Longboat is recognized as an amateur by the British authorities.
