

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THIRD PAGE. Municipality of York. John Black

LOCAL NEWS.

SEWERAGE.—The old sewer on York street having been in a crew of men have been busy at work taking out the old planks and replacing them with new ones. It is intended to construct a new sewer as far as Queen street.

THE STORES.—In view of the approach of old father Xmas, the stores in the city are beginning to show signs of the merry season, and the windows are beginning to look gay. Competitions are announced at business in the move.

A CONCERT.—Miss Sharp and party of Woodstock will give a concert of vocal and instrumental music in this city early in December. A thoroughly classical program will be provided and an enjoyable evening may be looked for.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY.—The committee of the St. Andrew's society have decided to hold another meeting on Monday Dec. 1st when important business will be transacted to wind up with an oyster supper. It is requested that all members of the order be in attendance.

SEWING DEALS.—As navigation is expected to close a few days the owners of the woodlands have put their vessels into their winter quarters. Mr. Gibson having a large number of deals has been obliged to hire a number of saws. The deals came from the Blackville mill.

LOCAL COMPOSERS.—The R. S. I. band have been practicing a new march composed by their band master. A trial is intended in the composition arranged from Prof. Cadwallader's patriotic air "My Own Canadian Home." This new military march is springing rapidly into favor.

THE EQUITY COURT.—The Carleton railway case occupied the attention of Judge Fraser this week. Messrs. Weldon and Blair addressed the court in the interests of the plaintiff. Geo. F. Gregory appeared for the defence. The Judge has taken time to consider, and may prepare his judgment during his vacation.

THE CITY COUNCIL.—An informal meeting of the city council took place on Tuesday last. The annual accounts of the treasurer and the various reports from the different departments were submitted, read, and passed. The statements were then delivered to the city printers to be by them published in the usual form.

TO LECTURE AT CHATHAM.—At the morning session at St. Luke's church, Chatham, the Rev. Job Shenton of this city, will occupy the pulpit, and will address the annual missionary meeting in the evening. On Monday the reverend gentleman will deliver his interesting lecture entitled "Paddle your own canoe."

A FASHIONABLE PAPER.—The Delineator, a journal of fashion, culture, and the fine arts, has been received in this office. It contains a great deal of interesting information, is neatly printed, and its fashion cuts are very clear and fine. The family department is a distinct feature. It is published monthly in Toronto.

THE LUMBER WORKS.—A crew of men hired by Robert Alkens left this city for the Newburg on Tuesday. John Kilburn sent his last complement of men to Quebec on Monday, and S. W. Stevens sent off a large crew on Thursday to complete St. John. J. A. Morrison hopes to complete all the arrangements for men and teams this week.

A TOUR OF INSPECTION.—Inspector Bridges arrived in town on Wednesday, after a tour of four weeks' inspection in Carleton county. He found the schools in a high state of efficiency, the teaching was thorough and earnest, and the results about the average. The inspector is very well satisfied with the progress made in Carleton County.

WORK AT THE BOONS.—The work done this year by the boom company has been the largest on record, nearly one hundred and seventy million feet of lumber has been got out, and rafted down river. The average number of joints rafted each week has been about one thousand at the Mitchell, one thousand at the Douglas, and nine hundred at the Sterling boons.

A CALL.—The call received in the press as extended by the Episcopalian minister at Montreal to the Rev. A. J. Mowatt, it will have to pass the Montreal presbytery after which, Mr. Mowatt will receive due notification from that body. The reports as to his acceptance of the office are therefore incorrect and premature.

A MINEGATE RAID.—Joseph Francis, of Kingslear, slaughtered a pig a few days ago, and hung the carcass up in the shed. On Friday, the 14th inst., the shed was entered by some persons of unknown name, and the carcass stolen. The same party, not content with a valuable haul, entered the premises of Ram Murray, aged of Kingslear, and stole the occupants of the hen roost, taking about one dozen birds.

ON A VISIT.—J. Norman Hallett, of Douglas, has been visiting Moncton in the interests of the agricultural society of Douglas. As success he purchased a very handsome Yorkshire bull, and at Petticoat another valuable animal was selected. He is now in Sackville on the look out for stock. He is accompanied by Thomas Colter, M. P. for York county, who is on a visit to his daughter at Mount Allison college.

DIED IN THE WEST.—Intelligence has been received in this city of the death of William D. Hanson, brother of Edgar Hanson of Gibson, which occurred at the residence of his daughter Mrs. D. A. Barry, Roy, Wash. on Friday Oct. 31st. The funeral at Roy, was largely attended by friends and acquaintances of the deceased. He was a member of the Pierce mill and lumber company at Roy, and was highly respected.

YORK DISTRICT LOUSE.—The quarterly meeting of the York district lodge, No. 5, I. O. G. T., at Upper Hayesville on the 20th inst., was well attended. The principal speakers were—C. J. Colter, J. D. Estey, J. H. Meritt, G. M. Jones and L. W. Nason. The district chief, J. D. Estey, presented his report which showed great improvement, the order is strongly advancing, and a large amount of earnest temperance work has been done. The next session will take place on the 26th January, 1891.

FIRE AT WOODSTOCK.—On Wednesday evening last about 12.30, an extensive fire broke out in premises occupied by Forester McLean situated at the corner of Main and Queen streets. The upper part of the premises, in which were situated Miss Cannon's millinery store, Captain Brown's warehouse, the Misses Murray's dressmaking shop, and R. McLean's dwelling rooms, were completely gutted by fire. All losses were fairly covered by insurance excepting those of the Misses Murray and R. McLean. The insurance on the premises is $2,500.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.—The Revs. D. Chapman and Mowatt addressed the missionary service held in the Methodist church on Sunday evening last. The Rev. J. Shenton made a brief report of the work of the Methodist missions. The Canadian branch of that church has 623 missionaries, teachers and helpers at work in 507 stations. Last year's income was $229,028.43, this city contributing $238. Mrs. Akersley and the Misses Wedhall, Sampson, Perley, Segge, Logan, Vandine and Cliff were appointed collectors, and will canvass the town on behalf of the fund.

LIGHTING UP THE CITY.

A Short Account of a Visit Paid to the Carleton Street Works.

In these days of hustle bustle, experimental science, and general improvement, a short visit to the gas and electric light company works on Carleton street, may afford the brain fagged traveler a pleasurable topic for a half hour's chat.

The engine and dynamo room with its busy noise and whirr will first occupy the attention of the visitor. This department (90 x 35) is fitted up with two powerful engines, one from the celebrated firm of Gordon & McCullough, Galt, Ont. (125 h p) and the other from the Providence, R. I. establishment of Armstrong & Sims (150 h p). There are two dynamos, Ball's, having a capacity of 65 lights, and two Waterhouse arc dynamos with a capacity of 65 lights. The most interesting however, are the pair of Edison incandescent dynamos, which have a capacity of 700 incandescent lights. They are unrivalled workmanship and display all the latest improvements in electrical science. They will be in use next spring, when the proper contracts for wiring will be completed with the Edison Co.

The Waterhouse machine has an automatic regulation and is accounted one of the most successful of dynamos known. It is a three year old invention. It runs a 2000 candle power arc lamp five-eighths of a horse power, which is the finest record yet accomplished. The Waterhouse will run on a full load with a short circuit without any injury to itself. They are made in Hartford, Conn. by the Waterhouse company.

The stairs is the testing room for lamps, and at the rear of the building is the boiler room (33x60). There is also a large cased at the rear. W. H. McGinn is the electrical engineer, John Hersey is the fireman, and Albert Sterling the lineman.

The work done by the gas company this season in addition to the above important additions and improvements, has been the laying of eight inch pipes from the foot of John corner of George street, up George to St. John corner Brunswick, connecting with the mains of the town. Next season these eight inch pipes will be continued up Queen street.

The introduction of the incandescent light system into the city next spring will occupy the attention of the company, the plant is all stored for next season's operation, and it is to be hoped the celestial city will then be one of the best lighted in the province.

Foot Ball.

The return match between the university vs. St. John team took place on the grounds of the latter on Saturday last. Mowatt, Street, Campbell, forwards; Lemont, Harrison, Ruel, half backs; Day McCullough, backs; and McLeod goal.

The R. S. I. team practised the game on the officers square on Monday afternoon last, when some very lively scrimmages took place. The team intend to issue a challenge shortly.

The Salvation Army.

The fifth anniversary of the Salvation Army in this city was celebrated on Monday night by a banquet, and a monster torchlight procession. The banquet was served in the evening from 5 to 8 o'clock; there was a large attendance, and the Hallejujah lasses made things lively.

About 8 p. m., a procession headed by Lieut. Wood in a white uniform, beaver hat and a grey overcoat, led a large number of the boys who followed a large number of the boys who followed the army to the barracks, bestowing liberal portions of snow balls on the unfortunate lieutenant. At the barracks the Rev. Mr. Gerow presided over the service, and at the conclusion of each narrative, a hymn was sung.

The R. S. I. team practised the game on the officers square on Monday afternoon last, when some very lively scrimmages took place. The team intend to issue a challenge shortly.

Police Intelligence.

Last Friday week the suspicious behaviour of two strangers, who had driven into town with a horse and carriage, excited some attention among the keepers of the city streets. On their return they were ordered their team to George Gunter for a trifling sum, saying they had no further use for it. Mr. Gerow, distrustful of their eagerness to be refused to purchase, so a team was held by Mr. Gerow for the paltry sum of five dollars. The disappearance of the two strangers the next morning convinced Mr. Gerow something was wrong, and he at once communicated with the police.

Enquiries were made and a case of horse stealing by two men at Moncton seemed to answer the description of the men and the horse. Sergeant Vandine telegraphed his information to the owner of the team a Mr. Stevens, who had been looking for the men at Chatham and Newcastle without success. The rig was worth two hundred dollars.

On Tuesday H. S. Stevens of Moncton on returning to that city from the North found sergeant Vandine's telegram awaiting him. He immediately took the train for this city, arriving here on Wednesday, when the horse and rig were handed over to him. No trace of the fugitives has as yet been discovered. Mr. Stevens has lost about fifty dollars by the proceeding.

Progress in Temperance Work.

N. W. Brown, of Southampton, gave an interesting discourse at the Gospel temperance meeting on Sunday evening last. He compared the present situation of the past, and referred to the construction of the Erie canal when the contractor bought liquor and hired a boy to carry it to the men while they worked. Now-a-days, business men would not employ the drinker. Physicians were not so willing now as in the past to prescribe intoxicants as a medicine. The Rev. Mr. Brown was next introduced upon, and a bill of refreshments supplied to the clergy during a convention held, which contained terms for liquors of different kinds. The old custom of treating in houses was rapidly disappearing. Public sentiment was growing fast, and soon the evil would be entirely wiped out. The address was listened to by a large and appreciative audience, the subject was well treated, and was full of variety.

To Help The Voice.

At one of those pleasant little choir gatherings over the river, on Thursday night last, the question cropped up, as such questions will do, as to what was necessary to strengthen the vocal organs. Just then the refreshments were being passed round, and the tenor said he would prefer a doughnut as it might aid a step in his voice. The bass was somewhat discouraged but remarked that after such an open remark he would follow his friend's example. Passed and carried unanimously.

Wedding Belle.

The marriage has been announced of Julius L. Morrison, son of John A. Morrison of this city. The groom is well known here, and all his friends wish him happiness.

On Thursday evening last, Samuel McFarlane, of Nashwaakias, was married to Miss J. Cameron, daughter of N. Cameron, of this city. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's father, and was performed by the Rev. A. J. Mowatt. A large number of relatives and friends attended.

R. J. Morgan of Lewiston Me., was united in marriage to Miss E. Hoyt, daughter of W. E. Hoyt of Blissville, on Wednesday evening last. The ceremony took place at Herry, and was performed by the Rev. W. H. Perry in the presence of a large number of guests. The happy couple will spend their honeymoon at Lewiston.

Morris F. MacKinnon was married on Wednesday last to Miss Beatrice Cropley, daughter of Major Cropley of Prince Edward Island. The ceremony took place at the cathedral at Boston, Mass. The happy couple arrived home at Gibson on Thursday last, and a reception was given at evening to a large number of invited guests.

There was a quiet but interesting event at St. Dunstan's church on Wednesday morning last at six o'clock, when Wm. H. Carlin head clerk in Davis & Staples drug store, was united in marriage to Miss Maggie McManley of this city. The groom was supported by Wm. Perks, and Miss Emma McManley acted as bridesmaid. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father McDevitt, only the immediate relatives and friends being present. The happy couple took the early train for Boston, where their honeymoon will be spent.

An interesting ceremony took place at St. Andrew's on Wednesday evening last at the Presbyterian church, when Stening H. Lingley son of J. E. Lingley of St. John, and nephew to Wm. Richards of this city, was united in marriage to Miss Ethel A. Mott daughter of W. Mott of St. John. The church was beautifully decorated for the occasion by the St. Andrew's school children. The bride who is of high estimation at St. Andrew's was the recipient of many beautiful presents. The happy couple received many congratulations before starting for an extended tour to the west.

Don't You Dare Speak.

Two Colored Persons go in Search of a Bonanza.

About a fortnight ago an up town colored man employed at one of the stores in this city, conceived a brilliant idea, and conveyed the result of his vivid imagination to a friend, likewise of the colored persuasion. Accordingly the two left town, carrying with them two pickaxes, two shovels, a family bible, a half dozen candles, and a piece of whalebone.

Their destination was Onabog, their object gold. Unfortunately for them a party of the boys, attracted no doubt by their mysterious movements, followed the two worthies, and this was what they beheld. The couple had arrived at the place where the gold discovery was expected to be made, the up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

The up-town man lit a candle, cried "Halt!" and exclaimed to his comrade: "Don't you dare speak or you will break the chain!"

A PEANUT PARTY.

A Novel Entertainment Given at the Church Hall.

The peanut party given by the girls' mission band of the church of England at the hall on Tuesday evening last was an unqualified success, and considering the disagreeable state of the weather, the attendance was good. Most of the audience present were wondering what the programme, previously prepared, meant. They could see the proper provisions passed, the popular pop, the pleasant peanut; but what was the promiscuous pleasant pastime. They did not long to wait, for punctuality, promptness, and precision W. K. Allen presented himself on the platform, and announced that the evening was a polyglot puff of the pleasures presented at a peanut party. He said: peanut parties were all the rage in the States. The word peanut originated from the mystical popocapatlan, and was peculiar to the state of Gorge-hera. There in all their natural or unnatural beauty 500,000 bushels were annually bushed, about four good wine needed no bush. They were given in great numbers in elegant radiant clubs, and were peculiarly pleasant to the palate. They form the chief stock of trade in such localities as Broadway, Queen street, Parliament buildings, and circuses. Indeed the habitual votaries of the merry circus know that the festive peanut is the chief stock in trade there.

Mr. Allen after a few more diversions wound up his polyglot speech by announcing the next performance, which would be a piano piece for professional performer. This was a pleasant prelude executed by Miss Thompson. The next item was the reciting of Peter Piper by master Eddie Winslow, a plain piece proclaimed by a petit person. The piece puckered prof. Sherman, accompanied on the piano by Miss Tibbitts. This was a decided novelty, and the siffing was good. The Misses Tibbitts, Misses Sherman, Misses Allen, and Bolford, mandolinists accompanied by Mrs. F. Tibbitts gave a Spanish selection. The next items were a pizzicato polka rendered by Miss Sherman; a solo by Mrs. Black; a solo by Mrs. Schell; and popular plantation melodies by Mrs. Black, assisted by a chorus of ladies and gentlemen. The latter were encored. A ballad "Ould Nick" by Mrs. Lagrange and a peanut chorus, wound up a pleasant evening's entertainment. The distribution of bags of peanuts concluded this very successful peanut party.

PERSONAL.

Concerning People Known to Most Readers.

Miss Lucy Anderson of this city leaves for Boston Monday.

Postmaster Hill and his wife have returned home from England.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Vanwart have arrived home from England.

Mr. Jones has returned to the Merchants Bank of Halifax, was at the Queen on Wednesday.

W. B. Winslow, son of E. B. Winslow, has been transferred from the bank of Montreal head office to an agency at Regina, N. W. T.

D. R. Forgan, late of the bank of Nova Scotia, has obtained a lucrative position in the Dominion Bank, and removes there in a few weeks time.

D. J. Stockford intends wintering in Boston, and leaves for that city to-day. His carter is Prespey Lee; John J. Milroy will be the driver, and the horse will be driven entirely by the character of the season. If the weather keeps mild they will not go very soon.

Among the early arrivals at the Queen this week were: The Hon. Archibald Harrison, D. McLeod, Vice of Woodstock; A. Cameron of the Dunveach Ins. Co.; S. W. Stevens of Prespey Lee; John J. Milroy of the Millerton roofing Co.; J. S. Stanton of the St. John marble works; R. A. Belyea and wife of St. John; and J. A. Hood, a former Frederictonian, and wife of Aberdeen W. T., who are visiting relatives and friends here.

The Old Reliable.

Every day adds testimony in favor of the view that all people in all lands are growing more and more in favor of that which is absolutely reliable. Whether dealing with men or things to wear well, so that they will last a long time, it is this inherent tendency that creates such a universal demand for that great and reliable weekly newspaper, the Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal. It is safe to say that it is rarely that any enterprise in any quarter of the globe meets with such magnificent success as the Family Herald and Weekly Star. It counts its readers by hundreds of thousands and it is a recognized authority upon all matters of public interest. Those who have the Family Herald and Weekly Star have a treasure, those who have not get it do not know what they are missing.

Christmas Music.

The Baptist church choir are busily preparing for their annual service of song. The cantata "The Ringing of the Bells" consisting of solos, duets, trios, quartets, and choruses, under the conductorship of H. G. Estey, is the principal item on the programme. The choir will be assisted by Miss Maggie Hayland, Mrs. J. W. Spurdin, Mrs. H. G. Estey, and Messrs. H. G. Estey, J. Fred Richards, F. Cooper, and W. Cresswell are the principal soloists. The service will be held in the evening at 7 o'clock.

The Kewick boys have resolved to have a foresters' lodge instituted, and have invited A. P. Sherwood, the travelling organizer to attend at an early date and form a lodge. The work of fitting up the lodge is now in the post office was begun this week. It is being done by a foreign firm, and as a consequence has excited some comment here.

Mayor Allen it is said will not be a candidate for the mayoralty in January next. Report says that Aldermen McCreedy, Beckwith, and Farrell will be prominent candidates for the office.

Chapter of Accidents.

Angus McLean of the covered bridge Nashwaak, while loading iron on the cars a few days ago, had the thumb of his right hand crushed by a piece of falling metal.

On Saturday evening last a workman, Polley, while trying to jump on the cars while in motion at Marysville station, fell between the rails and the platform. Fortunately he was untouched by the train, there being space enough for him to avoid the cars. It was however a very narrow escape.

On Monday last some boys playing on the track between Harvey and West turned the switch, but did not get the train coming, they became frightened and fled. The train running backwards the cars fell the rails, but the engine being brought to a stop, this prevented what might have proved a serious accident.

Chas. W. Spencer of Boiestown, while engaged in felling trees in the woods, met with a bad accident a short time ago. A tree which had been felled but down a small fire and while cutting the latter, one of the small limbs suddenly flew up, and breaking off, struck him a severe blow on the back of the left hand, where it remained imbedded in the flesh. The piece was taken out by Dr. Couthard, and the patient is now doing well.

Another case of a crushed hand, done while coupling, has occurred to one of our local brakemen. Harry Brown of Gibson while at work at Fredericton Junction Tuesday afternoon last had his thumb and three fingers of his left hand badly crushed. Dr. Murray was called in and found it necessary to amputate the thumb. Mr. Brown is now home at Gibson and will be some time before he will be able to resume his vocation.

A Pleasant Evening.

There was a very happy gathering of the youth of both sexes at the old Kirk on York street last evening, when a free social was given by the working band. The musical entertainment, consisting of vocal and instrumental pieces, was a thoroughly enjoyable one, and the college students gave their chorus in first class style. Refreshments were served during the evening, and all declared they had a good time.

The Trunk.

Stamboul beat his record Friday at Stockton, Cal., making a mile in 2:14. The first quarter was made in 32 seconds, and the half in 1:03.

Elston is said to be a most promising trotter. James Kehoe remarked the other day that if everything goes right with him, he would become the fastest horse down the next year, not barring Elston. It is Mr. Todd's intention to give Elston a start in the stud, and start him in the N. B. circuit next year.

THE MATRIMONIAL MARKET.—The highest price this year has been paid for a bridegrocer will join the army of benefactors next week.

Some Legal Matters.

Mrs. Hugh Nealla formerly Miss Nicholson of this city, lately made application to the Judge in equity to have her rights under her mother's will declared. It was contended that she received the estate left by her mother absolutely, the devise being in the Alien Jack in trust for Mrs. Nealla for life, and to her heirs after her death. Judge Palmer decided that this gave Mrs. Nealla the right to the whole estate without reference to her children; but he held that the trust was continued until the death of her husband's lifetime. If Mrs. Nealla should survive her husband the estate will become her absolutely. The amount in the hands of the trustee is $3,000.

Application has been made by the children of the late John W. Nicholson, of St. John, to remove J. Magregor Grant from the trusteeship of their father's estate. Ordinarily a trustee could execute only a passing order, but much talk has been caused by the publication in connection with the case of an extraordinary letter written by Mr. Grant to Mrs. Mary MacLaren, one of the daughters of Mr. Nicholson.

The letter is as follows:— Confidential. Sr. Jour, 22nd Sept., 1890. "My Dear Olie: When I perused the joint letter of yourself and sisters dated 1st Sept., and addressed to the trustees collectively, I could not help being shocked at its contents. It was not only a threatening letter, but also a cowardly and insulting one such as you ought never, under any circumstances, have sent to your uncle whom you have so repeatedly acknowledged as a true and faithful and valuable friend to yourself and sisters, and to whom you all pretended to be so affectionately attached. Furthermore it was a gross insult to your father, and to his threatened injury to your own first cousin, the chief mourner at your father's and mother's funerals, the playmate of your childhood, who never did you the slightest injury or ever said an unkind word to you. Furthermore your conduct was neither honorable nor dignified in seeking information on estate matters in an underhand way from Mrs. Jones, a friend of your father's, whom I repeatedly told you that the estate books were always open for your inspection. I have known every movement of yours in this matter, as the very people from whom you were seeking information were disgusted at the fimsy way in which you disguised your object. If I chose to retaliate, as you richly deserve, I could put the dominion government in possession of information which would justify them either now or at any time within 50 years in seizing the books and property of the estate, and leaving you all simply paupers with the reputation of the family irretrievably ruined, and the public astonished with a revelation of 20 years of most successful fraud not only on the government but on themselves as customers. The question has often been put to me, how has Mr. Nicholson accumulated such a large fortune when other liquor dealers could not? and four others in St. John could answer that question and tell how night after night the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the copper hatches of the "Customs Banded Warehouse" the doors opened and cash rolled out, one fourth of their contents transferred to empty casks made by Mr. Jones in the night, the shutters of the store would be put up, the door carefully locked and barred, all lights extinguished except on the lower story, all chimneys in the cellar covered with mud, the nuts and bolts of the