TO-DAY'S MESSAGES.

RIOTING RENEWED.

BELFAST, June 13.

Notwithstanding patrolling of vicinity, rioting was renewed in the neighborhood of York Street this forenoon. The Sinn Fein side had marksmen engaged in sniping, virtually all the morning. When the police appeared within range they were fired upon, but returned the fire, and later an armored car arrived in the district. Two persons were wounded and sent to hospitals. Throughout the afternoon the feeling in the district continued tense.

RAISED TO THE PURPLE.

ROME, June 13.

Three Italian Cardinals were added to the Sacred College to-day, when Pope Benedict, in secret consistory, raised to the purple, Monsignor Giovanni Tacci Porcelli, Papal Major Domo; Monsignor Camillo Laurenti, Secretary of the Congregation of the Propaganda, and Monsignor Achille Ratti, Papal Nuncio to Poland.

AGITATOR ON TRIAL.

BERLIN, June 13.

Max Hoelz, the Communist Leader, who last year incited a reign of terror in Plauen Region, during which murder and arson were rampant, was arraigned before a special court here today, on charges of murder, high treason and disturbing public order. Unusual circumstances attended the trial. All those entering the court room had to submit to being searched. The prisoner was escorted to the dock by four soldiers and several policemen. In reply to questions put by the President of the Court, Hoelz made a rambling statement, in which he refused to regard himself as a person accused of crime. On the contrary he asserted that he was the complainant "against that Bourgeoise Society which wou represent." The prisoner declined to divulge anything about his associates, and denied that rebellion had been fomented by the Communists, or that it was headed by persons from Russia. On the contrary, he declared it had been provoked by the authorities. Hoelz also refused to answer questions relating to his private life.

BELFANST IN A FERMENT.

BELFAST, June 14.

Rioting, accompanied by heavy revolver and rifle fire, was renewed in the Clifton Street area of this city early this morning. In authoritative circles it was asserted that this rioting was organized by republicans for the purpose of preventing the visit of King George to Belfast on June 22, for the purpose of attending the State opening of the Ulster Parliament. Top hatted merchants dodged about mid flying bullets, and one newspaperman had a very narrow escape as a lamp post behind which he had sought shelter, was struck by bullets. Stenographers fled screaming from the battle zone, and tramcars, with their passengers lying flat on 'ie floors, dashed past at record speed.

An Important Matter.

A largely attended meeting was held in the Board of Trade Rooms this forenoon, when a proposed amendment to the Warehouse Receipts Act was considered. The matter is of great importance to the business community and there was considerable discussion. The meeting adjourned at 1 p.m. until this evening, when the matter will be further dealt with.
