MAINLY ABOUT WOMEN

Mrs. George R. Pirie is visiting in Regina.

Mr. A. McKewen has returned from Edmonton.

Mr. R. Stead of High River is a guest in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Van Wart have gone to Spokane for a month's visit.

Miss Amy and Gertrude McGill, of Stratford, are visiting Mrs. T. J. Hopcroft, Hillhurst.

Mrs. E. Small, of Maple Creek, is visiting Mrs. C. S. Talbair, 619 Twenty-third avenue west.

Miss Pindley, of Hamilton, Ont., will sing at the evening service in the First Baptist church on Sunday evening.

Mrs. E. T. M. White and Miss White, of Ottawa, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Loei V. White, of Leland Park.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Harris, Suite 2, Devonish apartments, are rejoicing upon the arrival of a little daughter on Wednesday morning, Sept. 25th.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clarke announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Miss Ada Mary, to Mr. Stephen Edward Beveridge of Calgary. The marriage will take place early in October.

The annual social evening of the Central Methodist Adult Bible class, which is under the direction of Mrs. S. E. Marshall, was held at the church parlors last night. A pleasing program was arranged, and all members thoroughly enjoyed the "annual tea."

Mrs. R. Percy Barnes entertained at a luncheon of six covers yesterday at the Corona for Mrs. Colin Campbell of Winnipeg. The table was covered with a shower of valley lilies, the favors being corsage bouquets of the same flowers. The guests were: Mrs. Colin Campbell, Mrs. Pardee, Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Kerr (University campus), and Mrs. Dickins.—Edmonton Journal.

PRESBYTERIAN WOMEN GIVE "AT HOME" FOR RUTHENIANS

Sum of $82.85 Raised at Tea Given at the Home of Mrs. Wm. Carson Yesterday

The tea in aid of the Ruthenian girls' home, given by the Presbyterian women at the home of Mrs. Carson yesterday afternoon, was a decided success. The sum realized, $82.85, far exceeded the anticipation of the patrons of the cause. Thronges of ladies came and went, old-timers and new enjoying the opportunity of friendly intercourse. The table decorations, consisting of gladioli and trailing vines of green, were particularly pretty, and many comments were made upon them.

The cause is a national one, and appeals to the gratitude and patriotism which possess the women of Calgary. To do something for the Ruthenian girl is to raise the standard of womanhood among these new Canadians, whose mothers are but just emerging from a condition of servitude and have little to bequeath their daughters. To help these upward is to save our own boys and girls of British descent from being dragged down in the scale of civilization.

A "500" Party.

Complimentary to Mrs. J. H. Greene, of Winnipeg, who leaves on Monday for her home, Miss Edna Sinclair gave a jolly "500" party. The majority of the guests were representatives from some of the "old-time" families of Calgary. They were Miss D. Skinner, Miss Mabel Skinner, Mrs. Donald Carter, Miss Alva Brown, Miss M. Jameson, Miss E. Sinclair, Miss Elsie Lane, Miss O. Turner, Miss M. Turner, Miss Florence Jones, Mrs. Walter Jones, and Messrs. J. McKenna, J. Jameson, T. Skinner, W. Skinner, T. Owens, W. Wilson, C. Sinclair, D. Carter, Graham, G. Puffer, W. Jones, and A. McKewen.

Mrs. Carter Entertains

Mrs. Donald Carter, of the Houlton Apartments, brought together a number of young people at a tea hour yesterday afternoon, complimentary to Mrs. J. H. Greene of Winnipeg.

The drawing room with its cozy grate fire, was further brightened by bowls of fluffy pink and white asters. The tea table was laden with a cut glass basket of American Beauty roses, placed on a Mexican lace centre. The hostess was a dainty figure in a toilette of white serge, the bodice being of crepe de chine embellished with soft shadow lace designed in peplum mode, while the guest of honor also chose a costume of white, the bodice elaborated with lace.

Mrs. W. H. Lee's Reception.

Mrs. W. H. Lee was "at home" to her many friends in the city yesterday for the first time this season and a number of visitors called to see the hostess and her two daughters, Mrs. Burton Atkinson, who has recently returned to the city after a two years' sojourn abroad, and Miss Nellie Lee, who is an October bride-elect.

Mrs. Lee was modestly gowned in black silk velvet. Mrs. Atkinson wore a chic gown of pale blue flannel with a pretty designed border of salmon pink. A hand-embroidered bodice on the bodice and skirt of Miss Lee chose a dainty frock of mauve silk. Mrs. M. Carr, in a navy blue costume with large picture hat, presided over the tea. Miss Miller and Miss V. Ruse served.

A meeting will be held in the evening in the First Baptist church, to which all interested men and women are invited.

Many each day find the Wants replete. The Wants point to opportunity.

CUPID'S KNOTS

JENKINS-MACKAY.

On Thursday night, at 7:30 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Mackay, 1514, Fifth street east, the marriage of Mr. Thomas Mackay and Miss Elsie Christina Mackay took place. Rev. M. L. Lorrain officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins will live in Calgary.

KELESO-HASLETT.

A quick wedding was solemnized at the Central Methodist parsonage last night when Mr. Malcolm Kelso, of Calgary, and Miss Mary Haslett, of Regina, were united in marriage by Rev. S. E. Marshall. The bride wore a large white dress with a train, and the groom wore a tuxedo. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of guests.

TURNBULL-CUNNINGHAM.

A quick wedding was solemnized at the Presbyterian manse at 9:45 p.m. Wednesday, when Mr. William N. Turnbull and Miss Margaret Cunningham, recently of Winnipeg, were united in marriage by Rev. J. A. Clark. The bride wore a smart tailored suit of navy serge with a large black velvet hat with white ostrich plumes; while her attendant, Miss C. N. Colgrove, was simply gowned in biscuit-colored silk.

Mr. and Mrs. Turnbull left for Edmonton, where they will make their home.

MACK-FREEMAN.

In the private apartments of the Astoria Hotel, High River, the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Freeman, a very pleasing event occurred on Wednesday of this week, when their second daughter, Lillian, was united in marriage to Mr. Edward B. Mack of Carmanagoc, and of Mr. George T. Mack of High River. The ceremony was celebrated at 4:30 p.m. by Rev. D. A. Dalgleish, only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties being present. The parlor was prettily decorated for the occasion with amaranth and white roses. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude, while the groom was supported by Mr. Thomas A. Merriam. The bride looked very charming in a charming gown of net over white, duchesse satin trimmed with rose applique, and she carried a bouquet of large roses, lily of the valley and pink orchids. After a dainty luncheon, Mr. and Mrs. Mack left for the southbound train. The bride is travelling in a suit of green broadcloth and white lace. The young couple carry with them the best wishes of a host of friends.

DINING CAR DEPARTMENT OF C. P. R. ENTERTAINS

Sixty Women Look Over New Kitchen and Witness Demonstration of Good Cooking

About sixty women were guests of the C. P. R. dining car department yesterday afternoon, when the new kitchen was opened to the public for inspection, and a demonstration of scientific cooking was given by the staff.

Supervising Chef R. Taylor and a staff of four assistants conducted the visitors over the building and explained the uses and construction of the various apparatus in the kitchen, shop, dairy and bakery. The demonstration was a revelation of many valuable secrets of the cuisine. Chef Hold and Chef Cooper, who prepared several bubbling of Saratoga chips in the kitchen, explained to a number of interested women the fine points of the process, laying especial stress on the necessity of thoroughly chilling the slices of potato before cooking, to prevent toughness. Head Baker Elmer the German expert who presides over the imported Dutch oven, presented the recipe for French and raisin breads, on request, and demonstrated his success with rolls. In the pastry department, Baker Cochrane and his assistant gave lessons in pie and sauce making, and whispered to a favored few that crumbs sprinkled under the crust prevented "sloshing."

Superintendent Kolb, of the dining car department, has detailed a larger staff of assistants for the entertainment of guests today, and the kitchen will be open to visitors again this afternoon.

BROWNING CLUB ELECTS OFFICERS FOR SEASON

Membership List Limited to Forty; Club May be Undenominational

With a view to broadening and extending the work of the club and making it more distinctly a literary study organization, the Browning Club of Central church has been re-organized with the following officers:

Honorary president, Mr. A. Calhoun, M. A., librarian, public library; president, Mr. G. Wray Lannon; vice-president, Miss Jean Norton; secretary-treasurer, Miss Pearl Gibson; corresponding secretary, Miss Dora M. Thompson; teacher, Mr. J. E. Brownlee, B.A.

The meeting was held at the home of the Misses Norton, Fourteenth avenue, on Wednesday evening, and among those present were a number of young people who are interested in books and literary pursuits. After discussing the advisability of forming an undenominational society, and planning to have prominent local literati address the club at stated intervals, it was resolved to limit the membership to 40, and to fix the annual membership fee at $1.

What will be studied this season was not decided, the matter being left in the hands of Mr. Brownlee, Miss Madden, Miss Gibson, and Miss Austin, with the president as an ex-officio member. This special committee will report at an early date. Among the suggestions being considered are the study of Wordsworth's poems, Ruskin's "King's Treasure," and Browning's "The Ring and the Book." If this latter piece is studied, one phase that will be emphasized is the legal points of the tragic "case" the great poet has made famous.

Fortnightly sessions will be held in some central place, and it is expected that the first meeting will be called in the near future.

REV. L. E. BROUGH ORDAINED TO MINISTRY

Baptist Applicant at a Council Meeting Admitted to Ministry

A council meeting was held yesterday afternoon at the Heath Baptist church, East Calgary, for the purpose of hearing the application of Mr. L. E. Brough to be ordained as minister of that church. Delegates from each Baptist church in the city and also from neighboring towns met at three o'clock, and after hearing a statement from the candidate, unanimously recommended that Mr. Brough be extended the right hand of fellowship and be ordained as minister of the Gospel. The meeting was adjourned until 8 o'clock in the evening, when the church building was filled with members and visiting friends.

Rev. W. P. Freeman, who has been appointed moderator of the council, opened the evening service with prayer, after which Rev. J. L. Jordan read appropriate Scriptures. A most inspiring sermon was preached by Rev. M. A. MacLean, pastor of the Olivet Baptist church. Contrary to what might be generally called a sermon to the candidate, he preached a sermon to the church, and to the members and pastor, basing his remarks on the latter part of the fifth verse of the 15th chapter of St. John's Gospel. "Apart from me there can do nothing." With poetic eloquence have proved that, without Christ, neither pastor, people, nor church could accomplish anything worth while, or lasting. So impressive was the sermon that an unanimous request was made that Mr. MacLean be asked to allow the sermon to be published in full in the Western Outlook, the denominational paper. The ordination prayer was offered by Rev. A. J. Milton, pastor of the Olivet Baptist church, after which Rev. W. P. Freeman gave the charge to the candidate. With warmth and earnestness he laid upon Mr. Brough the solemnity of his calling, reminding him of his great responsibilities and opportunities.

Rev. C. C. McLeur, superintendent of missions for this province, gave the charge to the church, admonishing its members of its duties to pastor and to God. During the evening a solo, "One Sweetly Shown Thought," was sweetly sung by Miss Lena Anderson. The orchestra of the church ably accompanied here, and also rendered other appropriate music.

Thanks to the ladies of the congregation, the church building was beautifully decorated with plants and flowers.

Rev. L. Elgin Brough, though only just ordained, is not really new to the ministry. For several years, while still a student, he had most acceptably preached in various parts of the province. He is an earnest, confident young man, endowed with great abilities as a speaker and blessed with an ardent desire to see lives won from sin and saved for God. Rev. C. C. McLeur paid an eloquent tribute to his work accomplished in the north, and it is already evident that he will make a mark in East Calgary and the city in general. Besides being a forceful speaker, he presents his views in a somewhat new light, and was Heath Baptist church looks to a great awakening and upbuilding under his leadership.

A PLANT COMPETITION.

The collections of plants made by pupils in the public schools of the city in the competition for prizes given by the Calgary Natural society, will be on exhibition in the society's room on the top floor of the public library this afternoon, Sept. 28.

The prizes will be publicly awarded in the evening at 8 o'clock at the same place.
