Rev. Mr. Smith has begun a series of sermons on the war. Last Sunday his theme was King Albert and Belgium. Next Sunday Lord Kitchener. A large audience listened attentively and with unusual interest.

The ladies in goodly numbers met at the home of Mrs. P. Williams last Thursday to sew for the Over-Seas Hospitals, and numerous garments were made. On Thursday of this week they will meet at the home of Mrs. G. McConnell.

Death came with great suddenness to Mr. Wm. Cook, who resided on the fruit farm of Mr. H. I. McConnell. Mr. Cook, who was a strong, active man, not looking his 70 years of age, seemed as well as usual on rising on Tuesday morning, Nov. 23, but in a short time became unconscious, passing away at 3 p.m., from a stroke of apoplexy. He was an Englishman, coming from his home to his late residence two years ago, bringing with him two daughters, their husbands and one son, who enlisted a few months ago and is now at the front, making six sons all in active service. Four of them are in the navy. One, a naval instructor, has been in the service 25 years. Another son and daughter reside in England. Mr. Cook leaves a wife to mourn his sudden death, for whom much sympathy is felt in her sorrow as well as for the other members of the family. Deceased was a Non-Conformist in religion. Rev. Mr. Smith conducted the funeral service at the home. Interment took place at the Berean cemetery.
