The following resolution was passed at a recent meeting of the Quarterly Board of an Ingersoll Methodist Church: "That the system of raising money for church purposes by means of tea meetings, socials, lectures and other entertainments in connection with the King Street Methodist Church be abolished, and that in place thereof an appeal be made to the members and adherents of said church twice a year at such times as may be convenient for sufficient money to meet all claims heretofore met by means of tea-meetings, socials, lectures or other entertainments."

HYDE PARK.

A garden party and entertainment was given by the congregation of the Church of Hosanna on Thursday night, Sept. 11, at Woodholme, the residence of R. Shaw-Wood. The beautiful surroundings, the excellent grounds, the nice refreshments in a splendid programme assisted in making t a grand success. The attendance, however, owing to the threatening aspect of the weather, was not what might have been desired. The lar mayas tent of Mr. Collins, London was procured and erected, under where the programme rendered. It was beautifully illuminated and decorated, and had capacity for 400 or 500 people. The programme was well rendered and HYDE PARK.
