the term implies. It deals with stirring events, including a rescue from a lynching party, a murder, and the hero is even bound hand and foot, and an infernal machine set to explode at a certain time is placed beside him. The play gets its name from the fact that when the hero rescues the villain from a vigilance committee, the villain tears a Jack of Clubs in half and hands one part to his deliverer. The play was a big success in London and New York at Palmer's Theater, and Mr. Gustave Frohman has caste it with a very strong company, so that he has every confidence in its success on tour. A car load of special scenery is carried for the production. One of the strongest scenes in this play is where the villain, to save his daughter's life, seizes the bomb he has set to take his victim's life, and throws it through the window. It explodes before reaching the ground and the house is shattered. When the smoke clears away the villain's dead body is found in the ruins, the hero and heroine having escaped.

A PANCAKE DISAPPOINTMENT. One of Aunt Jemima's pancake trains passed through London at noon today. It consisted of fifteen cars filled with "Aunt Jemima" pancake flour, manufactured by the R. T. Davis Mill Company, St. Joseph, Mont., and was one of three trains, each headed for Boston, by different routes the other day. An idea had gone abroad that pancakes would be given away free on the arwill hold their annual harvest home festival rival of the train, and a number of wet and hungry lovers of pancakes hied themselves to the Grand Trunk depot, only to find the train composed of ordinary freight cars, duly labeled and legally closed. The only man who Shanley's office, left this afternoon for had a pancake on the train was a a number of railroad men who had the pancakes in view while eating breakfast this morning, and left room accordingly, the disappointment was terrible. The engineer showed no disposition to slow up as the train drew in, and with thoughts bent on pancakes which appeared to pass in broad daylight, every unemployed person upon the platform, from the newsboy up to the station agent, began a systematic waving of hands. All this only added to the ultimate disappointment. The only way to remedy the evil is for Mr. McHarg to give a pancake party, and invite

CAN'T FIGHT IN TEXAS.

Legislators Want to Make Prize Fighting a Felony.

Austin, Tex., Sept. 30 .- Very few legislators have shown up, and a full quorum will hardly be on hand Tuesday. The sentiment of members heard from continues favorable to the immediate passing of a law making prize-fighting a felony, and all indicate a de-sire to prevent the Dallas fight. Gov. Culberson, in his message, will recommend a most rigid law, and urges its immediate passage with an emergency clause. It is intimated that he may recommend a law making gambling a felony. He will lay other matters before the Legislature, and it will probably be in session 30 days.

MANAGER SEARGEANT'S DENIAL Of the Reported Grand Trunk Changes -President Highly Pleased.

Montreal, Que., Sept. 30.-When spoken to Saturday regarding the reported changes and resignations of certain G. T. R. officials, Mr. L. J. Seargeant, general-manager, spoke as follows: The announcements in certain of the papers to the effect that there were to be certain changes are wholly unofficial, and may be regarded as having no significance whatever. The president, Sir Charles Rivers-Wilson, and directors have, during the past six weeks, been over almost the entire G. T. R. system, and they have expressed themselves as highly pleased with what they saw. It is the intention of the new president and directors to report their conclusions to their colleagues in England, and I am under the impression that as such announcements as these you have called my attention to cannot be made with any authority until they have made their reports, any action that I may take in the future hinges on the report that may be made. I can only say that every reference to the condition of the Grand Trunk staff which has been made was most complimentary.

CRAZED BY COCAINE. Schenectady, N. Y., Sept. 30.—Last Thursday afternoon S. R. F. Launtins Beniga, M.D., of Boston, a commercial traveler representing the drug firm of Weeks & Potter, of Boston, became violently insane in this city from the too free use of cocaine. Yesterday he escaped from the hospital by jumping from a window, but was recaptured.

His condition became much worse last night, and today he died, death being caused by the overdose of the drug. CHILDREN. IN LAPLAND. The operation of dressing in cold weather n the far north is so elaborate that it is difficult to understand how a deliberate boy or girl in Lapland can be ready for breakfast before dinner-time. First, two suits of thick woolen underclothing are put on, and over these goes a shirt of reindeer skin, with cloth bands to fasten at the wrists. Sometimes two of these shirts, or kaptas, are worn, and a reindeer skin vest beneath them. The trousers are of reindeer skin also. Two pairs of heavy woolen stockings are worn, and the child who puts these on when they are damp is sure to have trouble with his feet. Around the feet a peculiar grass, well-dried, is carefully wound; and, over all this go the shoes. Buttons and hooks and eyes are scarce in Lapland, all clothing is fastened by strings, and it is dreadful to think of all the "hard knots" that Lapp children have fumbled over while too sleepy to be amiable. -[Harper's Young People.

O'SULLIVAN'S HUGE JOKE.

Says McCarthy Will Hand His Followers Over to Balfour.

Montreal, Que., Sept. 30.-Dr. O'Sullivan, of Limerick, Ireland, one of the delegates to the Irish convention held in Chicago last week, is in the city. He made a most startling statement today to the effect that a compact had been made between Justin Mc-Carthy and Arthur J. Balfour, by which the former promises the Government the support of his followers in return for Irish Home Rule. Dr. O'Sullivan says he had the news from McCarthy's own lips and is only afraid that the resolutions passed at the convention may interfere with the plan.

NOT GODLESS SCHOOLS. St. John, N. B., Sept. 28.-At the combined St. John and Charlotte county Teachers' Institute last evening strong ground was taken in denial of the charge made by many speakers at the recent Church of England Synod in Montreal that the New Brunswick schools were godless schools.

The Reason..

Good health cannot be enjoyed when the nerves are in a deranged condition is because other organs of the body do not receive their natural supply of nerve fluid. The nerve centre is situated near the base of the brain, and when nerve food is cut off the isolated part loses its functional power.

A neighbor advised me to try Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, stating that his wife had used it for a throat trouble with the best results. Acting on this advice, I procured the medicine, and less than a half-bottle cured me; I certainly be-lieve it saved my life. It was with reluctance that I consented to a trial, as was reduced to such a state that I doubted the power of any remedy to do me any good."
