BIG BOTTLE! BIG BOTTLE!

BARK-WELL'S Beef, Iron and Wine, Manufactured originally by late G. W. Hark ness from Liebig's Extract of Beef, Citrate of Iron and Pure Sherry Wine.

The impaired system and impoverished blood, whether caused by nervous debility or any other disease whatever, needs something in the shape of a nutritive tonic to help nature to recuperate. Such a preparation is BARK-WELL'S BEEF, IRON AND WINE. Gently stimulating, nutritive and toning, it speedily overcomes exhaustion, fatigues and general weariness and debility. All the ingredients are simple and good, and in combination form a valuable restorative for convalescents, especially for the hot season. Prepared specially by W. S. BRYERS BARKWELL, Manufacturing Chemist, 268 Dundas street.

solo was very effectively rendered by Miss Golding. A committee was formed to arrange for the annual meeting in November. -The coming of "A Trip to Chinatown" to the Grand tomorrow night brings with it a knowledge that Mr. Charles Hoyt's farce-comedy has excelled, so far as the annals of theatrical history are concerned, all precedents. For 656 consecutive performances it held sway at Hoyt's Madison Square Theater, New York. Previous to that the longest runs ever known to a New York theater has been "Hazel-Kirke, 486 times; "Humpty-Dumpty," 483 times, and "Adonis," 603 times. So far as the realms of farce-comedy are concerned, the marvel-ous success of "A Trip to Chinatown" has never been approached. The company includes Harry Conor, the original "Welland Strong," George A. Bean, jun., Julius Whitmark, George Sinclair, Harry Gilfoil, Geraldine McCann, Nellie Parker, Cora Tinnie, Sadie Kirby, Margaret Mc-Donald. The company also includes the sensational dancer Bessie Clayton.
