THE FOOD AND THE FIGHT.

Who are these little heroes that stand ten days in the firing line? No, sleep, no rest, and the word is still "up and at them." Are they men or gods? They are the little iron Japs, with every nerve and muscle built up from pure CEREAL food. The big, beeffed Russ is simply "not in it." This war settles once and for ever the superiority of cereal foods over all others. If you won't eat LIFE CHIPS yourself, supply them to your children that they may have a fair show in the battle of

WEDDING AT PARSONAGE.

A quiet but pretty wedding took place at the Dundas Street Center Methodist parsonage recently, when Mr. R. J. Harris, third son of Mrs. James Harris, of Lambeth, was united in marriage by the Rev. C. T. Scott to Miss Georgina Thompson, second daughter of Mrs. Isaac Thompson, of 756 Colborne street, this city. The groom's present to the bride was a gold breast watch. After a brief honeymoon in Niagara and Toronto, the happy couple will take up their residence in this city.

A PRESENTATION.

The unfortunate little chap was connected with the Sunday school of All Saints' Church, on the Hamilton road, and at the funeral yesterday afternoon Rev. T. B. Clarke, the rector, officiated. The pall-bearers were school, there being four sets of four, and all wearing white sashes.
